My tooth aches awful. Never mind, my dear, Mr. J. J. Hooper, will be at the Revere Hotel, on the 29th inst., when we will be able to dispose of them.

Presents a lively appearance. Streets are literally black with people every day hauling produce and cordwood, saw-logs, building stone, etc., for buildings.

Wishes New Year and Birthday Photograph, Authograp and Photograph Albums; Bohemian Vases; Ladies' and Shaving Caps; Children cry for the Medical Hall, kept by Reynolds & Co.

The Orange Soiree, held on Friday last was a decided success. No disappointment was experienced on arrival of Mr. Creighton. Mr. Reid, of Chatsworth made a capable speech. The tea was excellent, and altogether a pleasant evening was passed. Admission 50c.

Flesherton Furnitre, Sash and Door Factory, has changed hands. Mr. Hooper having bought his partner's interest in the firm will now carry on in his own name. The premises have been removed to the building lately erected for that purpose, next to the factory. We wish Mr. Hooper success.

There is to be a Magic Lantern entertainment in Dufferin Hall, on Monday evening, 29th inst.; in connection with Christ Church Sabbath School. The views comprise scenes in the Holy Land, England, Ireland, Scotland, United States and Canada. Admission 25c and 15c.

GREY AND BAY AND WELLINGTON RAILWAY.—The first locomotive over the Grey and Bay and Wellington Railway arrived at Durham on Thursday last. The spikeson the road being driven by Mr. Hunter, M. P. P., and W. E. Sanitar, of Durham, amid great rejoicing. The men, to the number two hundred were regailed at a dinner at the International Hotel.

A Tea meeting held in Holland Centre on the 16th inst, was in every way a success, the handsome sum of three dollars was realized, which we understand fully wiped out the debt on the church. Some evil disposed parties entered the church early the following morning and carried off a share of the provisions left from the meeting, they are known.

The Anniversary of the Presbyterian Sabbath School takes place on the 1st 1881, in Dufferin Hall. The entertainment will consist of vocal and instrumental music, readings, recitations, dialogues, &c., by the children of the school, and addresses by local clegymen and others, and through a good evening's enjoyment is promised. Admission 25c and 15c. The funds to be devoted to the Sabbath School funds. As the Presbyterian Sabbath School are noted for getting up good entertainments we would recommend people to go.

The remarkable efforts to gain new subscribers, many publishers seem unwilling to overlook those already on their lists. To add many names to their list of subscribers they offer very tempting inducements, by which they open the paper to those who do not care to subscribe for it, while for every name gained, perhaps one or more old subscribers drop off, and take another paper whose inducements to new subscribers are found equally attractive. These publishers in their struggle after a large subscription list lose at one end what they gain at the other, and at the same time depreciate the price of their paper. The Montreal Witness is not one of these. Its special endeavor seems to be to increase the value of the paper, so as to make it a necessity, and any very special inducement to new subscribers is made through their old ones, so that the old subscriber gets equal advantage. The special offer this year is the presentation of the celebrated picture, "Christ leaving the Pretorium," to every old subscriber to the Weekly Witness who sends a new subscription with his own, and the new subscriber gets a copy as well. If the names are sent independently of each other, 25 cents in addition to the price of the paper is charged for the picture, or $1.85 in all. By such means as these, benefiting both old and new subscribers, the Weekly Witness and Northern Messenger have enjoyed a constantly increasing subscription list, until together with the Daily Witness it numbers over one hundred thousand.

MASQUERADE CARNIVAL.—The first skating carnival of the season was held on the Flesherton skating rink, on Tuesday evening the 21st inst., which was a grand success. The masqueraders began to assemble a few minutes after 7 o'clock, and before 8, the rink was alive with airy like beings gliding around as if on wings, to the infinite delight of a large crowd of spectators. It was a fairy like scene and one of which everybody would like to see repeated. The following are the names of the prize takers:—Best costume for lady and gentleman, 1st, Wm. Keefer and Miss J. B. Blain, Highland lad and lassie; 2nd, J. C. Addison and Miss A. Wright; 3rd, Herbert Strain and Miss M. E. Wright. Best comic costume for lady and gentleman, 1st, William Haskett; 2nd, Chas. Richards; 3rd, C. Wright. Best gentleman skater, 1st, R. J. Reid; 2nd, Wm. Keefer. Best lady skater, 1st, Miss J. B. Blain; 2nd, Miss A. Wright; 3rd, Miss M. E. Wright. The judges were Messrs Vandusen, Haskett and Ferguson, and the manner in which these gentlemen filled the office gave general satisfaction. Mr. F. Sarjeant, the proprietor of the rink deserves great praise for the manner in which the whole night's amusement was performed. A sumptuous repast was furnished after the prizes were awarded. The Flesherton brass band was in attendance, and entertained the company with choice selections of music. Even the coldness of the ice was softened by the sweetness of the notes.

CONCERT.—Elder Hawkins and his Jubilee singers gave a concert in the C. Methodist Church on Tuesday evening, the 6th inst. There was a goodly number present, who seemed to be well pleased with the performances.

The regular day of meeting is the Friday on or before the full of the moon in each month.

EUGENIA.

From a Correspondent.

THE colored ministrels had their usual success, yesterday, a full house.

AN HONEST MAN.—At the last cattle fair in Flesherton, Mr. W. Cameron, Con. 8, Artemesia, sold some cattle to a stranger, who gave him $4 too much, he has tried in vain until a few days since, he discovered his man and returned him his money. As the Scotch bard says:—

"A King can make a belted Knight,
A Marquis, Duke and a' that,
But an honest man's above his might,
A man's a man for a' that.

THE BOOM.—Since Mr. Akitt purchased the Eugenia mill property you would imagine, to see the quantity of saw logs going in, that a city was in contempelation of being built, near hand next spring.

ALLOW me to return thanks to those of the members of Eugenia grange, who turned out and gave me a handsome days sawing of wood. Who would not feel pleased to have a good pile of wood about Christmas time.
