If you want a bureau, try J. W. Wilcox, Flesherton.

SPLENDID Gents Hats for 75c each, at H. Graham's Dundalk.

For the best and cheapest machine oil and coal oil, go to Haskett Bros.

If you want your Watch repaired step in to J. Wilcox—he does them well and cheap.

We are indebted to the O. S. Times for very full report of the proceedings of the County Council.

The social held in the Manse on Thursday the 3rd inst., was well attended, and a very pleasant time spent.

Ask your dealers for "Castorine" machine oil, and see that the barrel is branded "Castorine," as none other is genuine.

Bring us a cord and a quarter of good dry two foot wood, or one and a half green, and you can have the STANDARD for a year.

Robert Davis, of Flesherton, says he has $1 537,000 to lend on good security, and at low rates of interest.—See advertisement.

Manufacturers of reapers, mowers and threshing machines, prefer "Castorine" machine oil to any other, it will out wear lard, seal, or elephant, and is warranted not to gum.

Several communications are held over, on account of so much of our space be occupied with the County Council proceedings. They will appear next week.

The vital statistics for the Township of Artemesia, given in last week's issue was only for six months instead of twelve, as then stated. The following is the correct statement—Births—[illegible]; Marriages—31; Deaths—31.

We have received the copy of a lecture delivered by Dr. Sproule on the Pacific Railway bargain, and have been requested to publish it by a number of our friends. As not a few of our subscribers are [illegible] we intend publishing them next week.

There is a great [illegible] of Winter goods taking place at W. J. McFarland's, and if you are [illegible] of making some very novelty purchases you can't fail to drop in. [illegible] next to another [illegible] and buy [illegible] it.

[illegible]

Mr. Ve[illegible]'s January thaw has reached us at last, only one month and [illegible]. We presume, like the [illegible] of our railways of late, it has been impeded in the snow blockade. It is [illegible] satisfactory arrival by the rapidity with which it is doing its work—the snow disappearing astonishingly fast, and unless a check is put on its recklessness, we will hear the rumble of the wagon instead of the merry jingle of the sleigh bells before the week is out.

L. O. Co. Lodge.—The annual meeting of L. O. County Lodge of North Grey was held at the village of Clarksburg on Tuesday, Feb. 1. The officers elected for the present year are as follows:—James Bowes, jr., Co. Master; D. McCann, Dep. do.; A. Spencer, Co. Chap.; J. H. Delerec, Co. Secy.; J. Creighton, Co. Treas.; Thos. Gilray, Co. Director of Ceremonies; J. H. Berry, Co. Lecturer. The next semi-annual meeting is to be held at Chatsworth on the third Tuesday in June next, at 1 o'clock, p. m.

Oakville, November 16, 1880.

Mr. R. C. Balmer. Dear Sir,—It affords me unqualified pleasure to bear testimony to the benefit I have experienced from using Burdock Blood Bitters. For several years I have suffered from oft-recurring bilious Headaches, Dyspepsia, and complaints peculiar to my sex, which now I am entirely relieved from, if not cured by using only about half a bottle of the Bitters. I beg to return you my sincere thanks for recommending to me such a valuable medicine.

I remain, yours sincerely,

Mrs. Ira Mulholland.

A Miser's Death.—Robert Taylor, an old inhabitant of London township, was found dead in his bed at home on the 8th con., a few nights ago. He was aged 82 years and a bachelor recluse. His only companions through life were dogs and cats. No woman was ever allowed to enter his door. He had amassed a fortune by stock-raising. He always kept his money hidden in different parts of the house, and once a party of robbers entered and gagged him, and then took from him a large sum of money. He was ever after suspicious of strangers, and denied them admission. He leaves a large amount in the banks of this city and one of the finest farms in London township.

ACCIDENT ON THE NORTHERN RAILWAY.

ONE MAN KILLED.

Newmarket, Jan. 31.—This morning the mail train ran off the track on the curve just north of Lundy's mill. The engine and tender kept the rails; the front end of the baggage car was off the track as well as the rear end of the smoking car, but they did not leave the road-bed. The two rear coaches, containing passengers, were wrenched from the trucks and thrown over an embankment—one of the coaches being impaled on a cedar post. A passenger named Tullford was found lying under the platform, between the two passenger coaches, dead. There is at present nothing to show how he came to his death, no outward injuries having been discovered on him. He had over $1,000 on his person. Two or three others passengers received slight bruises, while others, amongst them Conductor Hendrick, were considerably shaken when the train was being dragged over a culvert after leaving the rails. It is supposed to have been caused by the frost and the rails spreading. It is said this is the first fatal accident which has occurred on the Northern for twenty years, as far as the railway is concerned.

Correction.—In Nemo's communication of last week instead of Misses Williams and Lyons, should read Misses Williams and Logan.

E. Robinson of Mount Forest operating very largely in hay at Flesherton Station, and has put in a new hay scale.

A number of teams arrived at Flesherton Station with square timber from Durham, that scores one against Durham railway.

Use "Castorine" Machine Oil, for all kinds of machinery, it is also excellent for harness and leather, making it water and weather proof. For sale by dealers.

The masquerade in the Markdale rink came off on the 4th inst. As there were no prizes awarded, we will not criticise the different characters. Music was rendered very efficiently by the string band.

Those of our subscribers, who have made arrangements to pay their subscriptions to the Standard in wood, will oblige us by bringing it in now while the roads are good. We are in want of wood and a few cords now would be just as acceptable as the cash.

The world should be aroused to the deplorable condition of the females of our land! The enfeebled frame, the pale, bloodless cheeks, hollow eyes, nervous debility, and the various distressing forms of female weakness, are matters that every matron in our country should consider. All forms of Debility and Irregularities peculiar to the sex may be promptly remedied by Burdock Blood Bitters.

It is said that heat travels faster than cold, because you can easily catch cold. If you catch cold easily you can as easily cure it in its worst form if you select Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, the popular remedy for all lung troubles. It not only cures the most troublesome cough, allays inflammation, dislodges the phlegm, cures pleurisy, heals ulcerations, and all diseases [illegible] to Consumption.

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] Ottawa at such an important moment to attend his funeral and consequently Lady Tupper left Ottawa to attend the funeral unattended by her husband.

A cough is usually the effort of Nature to expel some morbid matter irritating the air passages of the lungs. It may, however, proceed from an inflamed or irritable condition of the throat, a slight rash or humor often being perceptible. Let the cause be what it may, the remedy should be Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam. A purely vegetable balsamic throat and lung healer. For sale by all dealers in medicine, at 25 cents per bottle.

Great attraction at McFarland's, what can it be is it good goods, or cheap merchandise, is it his faithful book keeper, or the amiable post office manager, the obliging clerks, or the business tact of the proprietor, or is it that Irishman. Last Saturday there were no less than eleven school teachers in the establishment at one time. Well, one thing certain, he (McFarland) is selling an immense quantity of goods.

It has been aptly remarked that there is one thing better than presence of mind, in case of accidents, and that is absence of body: but as accidents may happen to all, Hagyards Yellow Oil is perhaps the best remedy—it is better than an accident policy. Yellow Oil cures all manner of Flesh Wounds, Pains, Lameness, Burns, Scalds, Frost Bites, [illegible] is for external and internal use in all inflammatory and painful diseases. All medicine dealers sell it.

A Rich Man.—Mr. [illegible] Ashdown, said to be one of the [illegible] men in Winnipeg—worth [illegible] $500,000—[illegible] from [illegible] & A. C. [illegible] of Durham, as a journeyman baker at a dollar a day wages. We do not mention this as being anything to his discredit. By no means. All honor to the man who has the enterprise and foresight to raise himself unaided from a humble position to one of affluence and, as a matter of course, influence.—Chronicle.

Orangeism.—The annual meeting of the South Grey County Orange Lodge, was held in the Orange Hall, Durham, on the 1st inst. There was a large number of brethren present, the most of the district and private lodges comprising the County of South Grey being well represented. The usual routine of business was transacted in a very harmonious manner. There was a communication from the Orangemen of Toronto, asking the Orangemen of this County to celebrate the next anniversary of the battle of the Boyne in the Queen city, which was referred to the district lodges for consideration. The next annual meeting will be held in the Orange Hall, Flesherton Station. The following officers were elected for the current year, viz:—W. C. M., Thos. Ferguson; D. C. M., James Edge; C. C., James Brodie; C. S., R. Murray; C. T., William A. Anderson; C. D. C., Thos. Flemming; C. L., Sam'l Flemming.

[illegible] AUCTIONEER AND GENERAL LAND AGENT, Williamsford Station. Auction Sales attended to in all parts of the County. Farms for Sale or Exchange.
