LOCAL & OTHER NOTICES.

Farm Laborers in demand.

School re-opened on Monday.

Small boys suffering from pains under the third vest button.

Personal.—Mr. John Benson, who has been in Toronto for some time past, returned home on Saturday last for a visit.

Toronto oil company, are sole manufacturers of "Castorine machine oil. Infringements will be prosecuted.

The Marble works are in full operation, and the proprietor appears to be kept pretty busy, as indeed he ought, as the work he turns out is first-class.

Ask your dealers for "Castorine" machine oil, and see that the barrel is branded "Castorine," as none other is genuine.

A foot race took place on Monday evening between A. Speers and D. McCanna, of this village, which was easily won by the first named. We did not learn the amount of the stakes.

The Reid & McDougall block is progressing rapidly, and when finished will be quite an ornament to our village. Work on the new Standard office is being pushed forward vigorously.

Use "Castorine" Machine Oil, for all kinds of machinery, it is also excellent for harness and leather, making it water and weather proof. For sale by dealers.

ARE YOU GOING TO TRAVEL? Don't forget a supply of that Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. It is a superior remedy for sea sickness, and a positive cure for all bowel complaints induced by bad water, change of diet, or of climate. Whether at home or abroad, it should be kept on hand in case of emergency.

The word Falcon, the name of Esterbrook's well known steel pen, is derived from Falc, a reaping hook, suggested by the shape of the Falcon's bill.

Use "Castorine" Machine Oil, for all kinds of machinery, it is also excellent for harness and leather, making it water and weather proof. For sale by dealers.

"Way can't they leave such things out" said an undertaker not a thousand miles from Markdale, when he read in his local paper the warning against eating unripe fruit. "It spoils our business."

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS Cures scrofula, erysipelas, salt rheum, piles and all humors of the blood. Cures dyspepsia, liver complaint, biliousness, constipation, dropsy, kidney complaints, headache, dizziness, female weakness and general debility.

Fire.—Last Friday evening about 6 o'clock a barn belonging to Mr. Alex Warner, 9th line of Euphrasia, was struck by lightning and burned together with stable and a quantity of hay.

DR. FOWLER'S EXTRACT OF WILD STRAWBERRY. Cures summer complaints, diarrhœa, dysentery, cholera morbus, cholera infantum, sour stomach, colic, nausea, vomiting, canker, piles and all manner of fluxes.

Narrow Escape.—Mr. Frank Beatty of Artemesia, who started on the 9th July for Montana, had a very narrow escape from death on his way up, as he was a passenger on the City of Winnipeg, which was burned at Duluth. He lost most of his clothing.

We omitted to mention last week that W. McLeod &Co. had started a Boot and Shoe shop on Mill Street, in the premises lately occupied by D. Lyon. They guarrantee satisfaction and we would recommend our readers to give them a call.

How much labor the Recording Angel would have escaped had old Noah only forgotten to take a pair of flies into the Ark. We are a moral man, but we much fear had our minister been present this morning about 5 a.m., he would have been told that we were going straight to that place where printers put battered type.

Miraculous Escape.—A little girl, daughter of Mr. Jas. F. Sproule, had a most miraculous escape from being killed one day last week. Escaping from her mother's watchful eye, the little one attempted to go down the back stairs, which are very steep and quite a length, and losing her balance fell from top to bottom, receiving a pretty severe shaking and some slight bruises. The mystery is the child was not killed.

A Great Enterprise.—The Hop Bitters Manufacturing Company is one of Rochester's greatest business enterprises. Their Hop Bitters have created a sale beyond all precedent, arising from their intrinsic value found their way into almost every household in the land.—Gropnic.

The First of the Season.—Thos. Orr, Esq., Artemesia, has already threshed the product of a twenty acre field of Barley, being the first threshing we have heard of in this locality this season. The product was seven hundred and fifty-eight bushels and one peck of clean barley, being an average of thirty-seven and three-fourth bushels per acre.

A new lot of Wedding Rings just to hand at Wilcox's.

The Standard from now until the end of the year for 40 cents.

For a good Seth Thomas clock go to Wilcox.

Benson has a new advertisement in this week, to which we would call the attention of our readers.

Selling off balance of summer goods at Cost, to make room for our Fall and winter stock.—Reynolds & Son.

The Prize list for Glenelg Fall Show will be out this week; and for Proton, next week.

The minutes of Euphrasia Council have been received. Unavoidably crowded out. Will anpear next week.

Strange but True.—An apple tree may be seen in Mr. Mark Armstrong's orchard, adjoining the village, this week in full bloom.

We are happy to see that Mr. Jno. Montgomery is able to be around again after the severe accident he met with some time since, by his horse running away.

An entertainment will be given in Dufferin Hall, on Tuesday evening the 16th, after ordination services. Admission 25 cent. For particulars see Posters.

Messrs. Butter & Rae say that gold has been found in Markdale. Well, we can hardly believe that, but there is no doubt but that their store is well supplied with everything needed in the family and at very reasonable rates. Read their advertisement and then give them a call.

For the next two weeks, only, will sell balance of stock at cost.—Reynolds & Son.

Mr. Rutledge, of this journal, went to Toronto on Tuesday to purchase more type and other material. This has been rendered necessary by the very large increase in our patronage, arising from the prompt and satisfactory manner in which we turn out our work.

W. Benson has now in stock a fine selection of peaches, lemons, and every other fruit constantly on hand in their season, which will be supplied at the lowest market price. Give him a call.

A poor woman entered the elevator from the Lower to Upper Town, Quebec, at the top, on Friday. Before reaching the bottom the population was increased one, she having given birth to a child on the way down. The poor woman walked to her home in Champlain street unaided.

Dyspepsia can readily be cured by taking according to directions Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters. They greatly aid the digestive powers and tone the whole system. In large 8 oz. bottles at 50 cents. For sale by A. Turner &Co., special agents for Markdale.

Mr. Vennor now predicts a great change in the weather about the time the new comet is in its perihelion. This will occur on the 20th instant. During the week ending on that day he thinks we shall be nearly frozen by frosts and strong cold northerly winds.

There is no better family medicine than Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters. They are taken alike by both old and young. They invigorate the system. They should invariably be used instead of those little well-known nauseous purgatives called pills. In large 8 oz. bottles at 50 cents. A. Turner &Co., special agents for Markdale.

If a reporter does not dish up a certain amount of local news every week he is called a poor stick, but what can the poor fellow do when everything is as dull as dishwater, not even a dogfight to vary the dull monotony of the scene.

For all Liver and Kidney complaints and affections of the Stomach and Bowels use the great Dyspepsia remedy, Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters. In large 8 oz. bottles containing 70 teaspoonful doses at 50 cents a bottle. A. Turner &Co., special agents for Markdale.

First class Job Work done promptly and cheaply at the Standard office.

The Garden Party on Monday evening at the Methodist Parsonage was in every respect a success. The evening being pleasent, the party was largely attended, about 200 being present. The amusements were heartily enjoyed by all, in fact every one seemed brim full of fun. The refreshments were dispersed with a relish The ice cream and lemonade were also made scarce, and those bouquets, what a variety, from the modest garden flower to part of a potato patch. Some of the young ladies were a little dear, we mean with their bouquets. The pastor and his amiable lady did all in their power to add to the enjoyment of those present. Proceeds $36.

There are a number of our Subscribers who have not paid their subscription. We need money for carrying out our contemplated improvements, such as a quantity of new job type, building a new office, and making other improvements rendered necessary from the rapid increase of our business. This, as all know, requires considerable funds, and we will feel obliged to those who are in debt to us, if they would call and pay up.

Horse-Shoeing a Specialty.
Markdale, June2, 1881. 14-1

Is a compound of the virtues of sarsaparilla, stillingia, mandrake, yellow dock, with the iodide of potash and iron, all powerful blood-making, blood-cleansing, and life-sustaining elements. It is the purest, safest, and most effectual alterative medicine known or available to the public. The sciences of medicine and chemistry have never produced so valuable a remedy, nor one so potent to cure all diseases resulting from impure blood. It cures Scrofula and all scrofulous diseases, Erysipelas, Rose, or St. Anthony's Fire, Pimples and Face-grubs, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter, Humors, Salt Rheum, Scald-head, Ring-worm, Ulcers, Sores, Rheumatism, Mercurial Disease, Neuralgia, Female Weaknesses and Irregularities, Jaundice, Affections of the Liver, Dyspepsia, Emaciation, and General Debility.

By its searching and cleansing qualities it purges out the foul corruptions which contaminate the blood and cause derangement and decay. It stimulates and enlivens the vital functions, promotes energy and strength, restores and preserves health, and infuses new life and vigor throughout the whole system. No sufferer from any disease which arises from impurity of the blood need despair who will give Ayer's Sarsaparilla a fair trial.

It is folly to experiment with the numerous low-priced mixtures, of cheap materials, and without medicinal virtues, offered as blood-purifiers, while disease becomes more firmly seated. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a medicine of such concentrated curative power, that it is by far the best, cheapest, and most reliable blood-purifier known. Physicians know its composition, and prescribe it. It has been widely used for forty years, and has won the unqualified confidence of millions whom it has benefited.

THE TEN Insurance Commandments.

1. Thou shalt insure thy real and personal estate and all that thou hast against fire, for—
Defending thyself from misfortune until old age,
Thy happiness shall equal thy wisdom.

2. Thou shalt not insure more than thou dost possess, for insurance is a business wherein thou canst not make money. This is simply thy duty in order to preserve what thou hast acquired.
Preserve that which thou shalt acquire,
Whoso is prudent guardeth his goods.

3. Thou shalt not insure less than thou dost possess—for what thou does not insure, will not be paid in case of loss.
Though poverty is not a vice
To lose all is not a pleasure.

4. Thou shalt not make excessive declarations of value respecting thy property in case of fire; but thou shall state truly that which belongs to thee, that thou mayest not have a lawsuit or gain a bad reputation
As we make our bed so must we lie.

5. Thou shalt also exhort thy neighbors, thy friends, and thy relations to insure themselves, that they may escape loss, and that poverty through a loss by fire be not laid to thy charge.
That which comes by the flute goes by the drum.

6. Thou shalt not backslide, nor hinder thy neighbor from making all these insurances, for those who are so improvident as not to insure are those who are most visited with losses; no one pities their condition.
Those that are beaten pay the fine.

7. Thou shalt not search for evasion to get rid of the expense of insurance, for it is low in proportion to thy position; thou canst put by as much as the value of the bottles of wine thou drinkest, and thou wilt then have sufficient for all thy insurance.
The pitcher that goes often to the well must in the end be filled.

8. Thou shalt regard the expense of insurance like the expense of thy meat and drink; and as thou canst not do without these, because thou hast hunger and thirst thou shalt not more hesitate about insurance, because it will give thee security, repose, consolation, and aid.
In thirst and misfortune
A pear in reserve is a pleasure.

9. Thou shall be careful when thou insurest that thou selectest a reliable and safe company and that the agent is an honest one, because in so doing in case of a loss thy money shall not have been paid for nought, and if thou lose thy property and not get thy insurance thou will be poorer than a church rat.
If thou fallest into poverty
People will care but little for thee.

10. Thou shalt do all thy insurance with Robert Davis, the Conveyancer and Land and Insurance Agent at Flesherton, for—
He represents only the best companies, and
He guards well his patrons' interests.

ROBT. DAVIS,

Conveyancer, Commissioner in B. R., Real Estate, Loan, and Estate Agent, Flesherton. Branch office, Rutledge's Hotel, Markdale, every Thursday.
