THE customery reduced fares were not made for Thanksgiving holidays. Another tightening down of the screws, eh?

THE letter in last week's paper by Mr. Thos. Boland, on Notes by the Way, is continued this week and will be concluded next.

THE person who took an umberella out of the Methodist church last Sunday night will save exposure by returning it as they were seen taking it.

MARKDALE public school was dismissed on Wednesday morning for lack of fuel to keep up the necessary warmth. There's a screw loose somewhere.

LIVE TURKEYS WANTED.—Any person having turkeys to dispose of please call and see R. B. Currie on Saturday or Monday at the Markdale House

THE population of Markdale is being increased by the addition of seven families, four of whom have arrived and the three others will arrive immediately.

THE revision of the Dominion Voters' List in Markdale took place last Friday before Revising Barrister, Morrison, resulting in a gain of four for the Reformers.

New subscribers can have the STANDARD from now until the end of next year for $1 cash. Quite a number are being added every week, but still there's room for more.

SUBSCRIPTIONS taken at this office for the Toronto Mail, Empire, Globe, World, News; and Montreal Family Herald. Balance of this year, now free to new subscribers for 1892.

POSTPONED.—Isaac Elder's auction sale has, owing to the storm on Tuesday, been postponed until Friday, the 20th, at one o'clock. Please remember. Isaac Elder, Traverston

THANKSGIVING day was observed generally as a holiday in our village and many betook themselves to the woods for a little divarshun. Services was held in each of the churches.

ANOTHER new paper is to hand from Toronto—The Factor—published every Saturday. It is to be an authority on legal and municipal matters. E. A. Macdonald Editor-in-Chief.

A GENUINE old-fashioned snow storm struck this district on Tuesday last. The mercury dropped to 20 above zero that night, and on Wednesday there is fair sleighing and more coming as we go to press.

THE Annual Entertainment of the Public School, consisting of drills, calisthenics and kindergarten songs, will be held in the Rink on Friday evening, the 27th of Nov. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

A young lady from a neighboring village called to see our foreman one day this week accompanied by a lady friend. Our columns are too crowded to give a notice corresponding in length with that of the call.

A communication for the paper was received this week but is held over for want of the name of the writer. It is not required for publication, but this rule we must adhere to, viz: to publish no contribution without knowing the writer.

THE Protestant is the name of a new journal published by Rev. A. B. Demill, Toronto. The 1st number is to hand and is ably edited and in every respect well gotten up. The price is only 50 cents a year, and it will doubtless receive a large patronage.

During the past three weeks quite a number have paid up their subscription to the STANDARD for this year and renewed for 92. We are thankful to all such, and now give a pressing invitation to others to perform a similar act. $1 in advance is better for both subscriber and publisher than $1.50 per year for arrears.

THE LOST FOUND.—The gold spectacles, recently advertised in the STANDARD, have been found; the overcoat claimed and proven to A. Beattie's colts found, Jo. Irwin's pig restored, Os. Walker's halters found, and numerous other parcels of property recently recovered through this medum. It pays to advertise lost articles.

Painful burns, bruises, scalds and cuts are quickly soothed and healed by Victoria Carbolic Salve.

THE election petitions against Col. Tisdale, South Norfolk and Alex. McNeill, North Bruce, have been dismissed.

MARKDALE CHEESE FACTORY.—A meeting of the patrons of the above named factory is called for Saturday, 28th inst., at the hour of two o'clock p. m., to meet at Marsh's hotel Markdale, for the purpose of hearing report of business done during the season just ended and to re-organize for the work of another. The final distribution of checks will be made. R. D. Irwin, Sec.

THAT MONSTER CONCERT.—The concert in Markdale rink hall on the evening of Thanksgiving day was in every way a grand success. The attendance was large, many coming from Flesherton, Holland Centre and other points, and all enjoyed themselves to the full. Messrs. Fax and Cameron made up the program chiefly and kept the delighted audience in rapture from beginning to end. Their renderings were free from anything vulgar and therefore enjoyed by the most refined. Miss Pickell, the pianoist, did her part with rare ability. When we consider the task of playing the accompaniments for a whole program of entirely strange music with only one short rehearsal we can form some idea of what skill is required in this important duty. Dr. Sproule, as chairman, was the right man in the right place. He is quite at home in that position and knows just what to say, how much to say and when to say it, and never says too much. It may be necessary to explain that this entertainment was gotten up and managed throughout by the editor of this paper, he taking all responsibility of loss in case of failure, the net proceeds to be handed over to the Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist Church to assist in paying off the debt on the church. The receipts were $81.90.

Thomas H. Long, aged 26, fell from the C. P. R. dock at Owen Sound last Thursday morning and was drowned.

The following are among the Presbyterian churches in South Grey without regular pastors:—Durham, Dromore, Knox and Hampden in Normanby, Hanover, Dornoch and Rocky Saugeen.—Mt. Forest Confed.

Mr. James Kirkwood, reeve of Erin, the independant Reform candidate for the vacancy in East Wellington, caused by the resignation of Col. Clarke, was elected M. P. P., on Tuesday, the 10th, over Mr. John Craig, of Fergus, the nominee of the Reform convention.

STRANGE DEATH.—John Morrison, a farmer of the town line of Egremont and Arthur, had a bull which was troubled with an abscess on its neck and while lancing this, three weeks ago, some of this matter discharged got into a scratch on his hand. The hand became swollen and painful but a doctor was not consulted until some two weeks afterwards when too late to save his life.

One evening last week, rather later than usual, a knock came to Mr. John Bell's door, Durham Road, Glenelg, which awakened him very reluctantly from his sweet slumbers. Getting up hurridly and opening his door cautiously fearing the midnight burglar, great was his surprise to hear the sweet and angelic voice of a lady asking admission for herself and seven other ladies, who travelled all the way from Town to see him and have a pleasant time. It is needless to say that his surprise became mingled with pleasure, in welcoming his lady visitors into his cabin, where they spent a most enjoyable time into the wee hours of the morning. This was rather a novel way for the ladies to call on their bachelor friend, but John felt so happy that he got them all to promise to repeat their visit in the near future.—Grey Review.

R. DUNLOP,

Editor Standard:

Continuation of notes taken during my trip through N. Y. Connecticut and Mass. Utica next, a thriving town of 31,000 population, it has the Masonic Home and N. Y. State Hospital for the insane. We take the flyer express train for Troy, no stop except for the Empire express the fastest train in the world, running at the rate of 63½ miles per hour from N. Y. to Buffalo. Down the beautiful valley of the Mohock river with steep mountains and perpendicular rock of 100 and 150 ft. high along the peak of which a R. R. Co. are building a branch road, the men appear like boys as we looked up at them. The foreset has put on its most gorgeous hues. We have a fine view of the canal and river. To our right the canal is swarming with flat bottomed boats drawing about 5 ft. of water and carrying 150,000 to 225,000 ft. of lumber, building stone, &c. Some are propelled by steam, but most of them are drawn by 2 heavy horses on 3 mules making the trip from Buffalo to Albany in 20 to 22 days with two boats each. The N. Y. C. has 4 tracks from Buffalo to Albany a distance of 228 miles, the finest road I over travelled on, so smooth one can write without difficulty, trains are passing every few minutes. One peculiarity I saw was in the best farming sections they keep very few cattle; what they had were the best of Jerseys. They are far behind ourselves in the implements they use. Their plows are wooden beams, such as we used 30 years ago. You would not see one farmers' wagon in 20 with steel springs, they use old spring poles. I did not see one well built straw stack from the bridge to New York. A great country for corn and pumpkins. They seem to do no fall ploughing. Many of their farms are spoiled with "big weed." Apples and potatoes are an abundant crop and are selling for 20 to 25 cents per bushel. The country along the N. Y. C. is setting on flat rock, many places the rock coming to the surface. Through the centre of the State of N. Y. they use the old fashioned chain pumps worked by a crank.

Troy is an old fashioned town with very little business enterprise. Albany next, the State capital. Population 103,000. They are completing their parliament buildings the largest in N. Y., being 300 ft. front by 340, at a cost of over $13,000,000. This city is situated on the Hudson River and is the terminus of the Erie canal and a large R. R. centre. This is a great lumber market a large quantity of our pine from North Shore goes by water to Buffalo and thence down the canal in flat boats. They have branch canals into the yards, the lumber comes in here, sorted and the best grades carted across the yards to Hudson River boats by which it is taken to New York, Brooklyn and other points east where it commands a high price. It is no uncommon thing to see lumber piled 40 ft. high. They have a street car line running the length of the lumber district. In the evening I took the Hudson River boat for New York a grand boat for size and finish, loaded with fruits and vegetables for N. Y. markets. We arrived in New York in the early morning and while waiting on board until time for business, we have a fine view of the lumber barges loaded with pine lumber and timber from Eastern States what they call their Southern hard pine.—TOM CONFRED.

THOS. BOLAND.

Editor Standard.

DEAR SIR.—In a recent issue of your valuable paper, I noticed our servant Dr. Sproule makes a bold attempt to gag the mouth of our correspondent which he claims I am. As such I will deal with his misleading statements. But Sir, I feel above using the debasing language that he has used. He says as usual he has a fling at E. G. member. This fling seems to have blistered the Dr. severely apparently in some vital point as since it got vent an epidemic is imminent. The Dr. tells us that No. 1 petition was in due time presented to the P. M. G. with an effort on his part to get our request granted but as the revenue of our office was so small and extra service would cost so much it was refused. Now Sir, our extra service costs thirty-five dollars and fifty as the Dr. tells us, and the revenue from the semi-weekly service will be about $40 per annum instead of 12 or 10 as heretofore. We account for the difference in this way, eight families gives annually $20 revenue, two of which have not gone to our office simply because answering Friday's mail we were compelled to go to other offices or wait a week, which we seldom did. There are over thirty families left for the $20 remaining which is a good guarantee. Now let us see who is misrepresenting. Mr. Logan reports as having interviewed the Dr. on his return as to our request being granted. This is the answer he reports as having received from the Dr. "I forgot all about it," or words to that effect.

Now Mr. Editor for No. 2 petition. Mr. Logan having secured a number of names handed said petition to me to secure the rest. He also informed me that said petition was not to be presented by our member but was to be sent direct to the P. M. G. On presenting said petition for signatures, I was quickly asked was this to be presented by our servant T. S. Sproule, if so we will not sign this petition as we do not wish to be humbugged again. I related what Mr. Logan had told me, which apparently gave satisfaction as the document was readily signed. This will give an idea of the feeling of the people of Markaway towards the Dr. for his action regarding No. 1 petition. This feeling is entirely based on the Dr's answer in the above named interview. The Dr. remarks that it was suggested that Lily Oak and Harkaway be served under one contract from Berkeley. But notice he does not let us know that it was Mr. Logan who made the suggestion, therefore he tries to defraud Mr. Logan of the credit due him. As regards the Dr's reminder, correspondent is prepared to give the evidence in his possession by his informants under oath as regards any statement he has made relating to the Dr. in his correspondence. I may here remind the Dr. that the public eyes of all men should be such as would stand the light of day.

The idea of the Dr. speaking to me of charity in connection with what he tries to condemn correspondent for is simply preposterous. A stranger desire to be white-washed is seldom made public than the Dr. has made by introducing politics into this affair. In connection with this I may intimate that Harkaway people are no longer Grit and Tory but united Patrons of Industry.

Let me say in conclusion that the Dr. s public exhibition of evil temper ill becomes a man in his position.

Hoping Mr. Editor I have not trespassed too much on your space.

Yours truly,

R. S. McLAUGHLIN,

Harkaway, Nov. 16, '91.
