Pair of four-goal games for Hladin

Winners of four consecutive Ontario Junior Hockey League games, the Georgetown Raiders are looking to clinch home-ice advantage in their opening round playoff series with 10 games remaining in the regular season.

The 24-17-2 Raiders went three for three this past weekend, including a pair of wins against the Toronto Jr. Canadiens in which Georgetown's leading scorer, captain Steve Hladin, struck for four goals in each contest.

The weekend began with a surprise 2-1 triumph on Friday evening over the host Aurora Tigers, who are the runaway leaders of the OJHL's North Division with a 31-10-3 mark.

Richard Court and Liam Board scored for Georgetown in the victory and rookie net-minder Michael McNiven was named first star for making 35 saves, including a clutch penalty-shot stop in the final minute of regulation time.

McNiven chalked up his fifth shutout of the campaign at home Saturday, turning aside 34 shots in a 6-0 trouncing of the Jr. Canadiens. Hladin (4), Kyle Allan and Steven Mueller were the goal scorers.

The 19-year-old Hladin teamed up with one of the top prospects for this year's Ontario Hockey League draft to prevail over the Jr. Canadiens 7-6 Sunday night in Etobicoke.

Hladin had four goals and two assists while 15-year-old Adam Mascherin, who was called up by the Raiders from the Vaughan minor midget AAA Kings, scored once and helped set up five other goals.

In Mascherin's only other game with Georgetown this season, the 5-foot-9, 195-pound forward from Maple scored twice in a win over Mississauga in a game back in October.

The Raiders have another busy weekend on tap with a string of four games in five days, beginning Friday night in Milton against the IceHawks, who hold a one-point lead on Georgetown.

Also on the schedule is a home date with last-place Orangeville on Saturday at 7:30 p.m., followed by a trip to Newmarket Sunday afternoon. The Raiders will host Milton on Tuesday (Feb. 4) in a postponed game at the Alcott Arena beginning at 8 p.m.
