DID IT UP BROWN.—The Brockville Recorder has a notice of the marriage of Charles W. Brown and Ida Brown, at the residence of the bride's father, J. Brown, Brownsville, by the Rev. George Brown. The best man was Fred Brown, and the bridesmaids were Lottie Brown and Edith Brown.

The lecture given under the auspices of the Canadian Viavi Co., to mothers, wives and daughters by Miss E. E. Page, Tuesday of last week, was very well attended and was a treat, which any lady desirous of knowing more of her own body, would do well to avail herself of, as the Viavi lectures are interesting as well as instructive.—Chatsworth News.

IN Saginaw the demand for bicycles and bloomers is said to be booming. It was brought about this way: A young man was arrested in that city charged with kissing a woman against her will on the public highway. The prisoner pleaded that she was in bloomers and the mistook her for a long lost brother. The magistrate discharged him.

A WARNING TO SMOKERS.—For some time past certain dealers have been selling inferior brands of tobacco when "T & B" is asked for, thus not only trading on the reputation of the manufacturers but also injuring the sale of the article. The Geo. E. Tuckett & Son Co., of Hamilton have taken the matter in hand and intend prosecuting the offenders. Smokers should be careful to see the "T & B" stamp on each plug, as, to gain extra profit, unscrupulous dealers tear the tag off other brands and say it is "T & B" and "just as good."

THE Big Snow, with its world of wonders, coming to Owen Sound Aug. 27, Orangeville Aug. 28, Toronto Aug. 29. It is definitely settled that we are to be favored this season with one gigantic confederation, which is the laurel crowned Sells Brothers' enormous united shows, America's oldest, largest, richest and best tented exhibition on earth. This will be Sells Brothers' first visit to Canada, although they have been touring the United States, and have met with overwhelming success, as the entire press will testify. Heretofore Canada has been annually visited by one of two big shows, which, by agreement have taken this territory alternately, until the death of the original owners, when both of these shows became the property of one firm, and the policy adopted was to "shut out" other shows, Sells Brothers, not wishing to be outdone, have doubly increased their tremendous exhibition by re-inforcing all that is great, grand and gorgeous, and will present the biggest, the cleanest, the purest and most respectable show ever seen in this city. The date for the appearance of the big show of the world is Owen Sound Aug. 27, Orangeville Aug. 28, Toronto Aug. 29. Special excursions will be run on all lines of travel to the only great show coming to this city this season.

REV. GEO. BUGGIN, a former pastor, preached in the Methodist church on Sunday night to a good sized and appreciative audience.

MR. THOS. EDWARDS' many friends were pleased to see him out again on Tuesday last with Traverston mail. The old gentleman has had a long and severe illness, and is not fully recovered. Hope the outings will prove beneficial

All who are in arrears for the STANDARD, or who have an over-due account, are hereby cordially invited to hand in or remit the amount on or before the 31st of this month. The amounts are not large, but they are much needed all the same. Please don't forget.

ALL persons wishing to become members of Glenelg Agricultural Society can do so for one dollar by paying that amount to W. N. Haskett the Secretary before the 30th of this month. The returns have then to be made, and by joining before that date the Society draws a percentage on your membership fee. See?

DWELLING BURNED.—Mr. Geo. A. Gough is an industrious farmer a mile west of Markdale and had one of the most easy and well furnished dwelling houses in the district, but it went up in smoke. On Wednesday about 2 p. m. fire broke out in the region of the chimney and before assistance could reach the place it was past control, tho' about one half of the contents were saved. The house and contents were partially insured in the Sydenham.

AN exchange says that some mouths look like peaches and cream, and some like a hole chopped into a brick wall to admit a new door or window. The mouth is a bottle of toothaches, the bung hole of oratory, and a baby's crowning glory. It is patriotism's fountain head and the tool chest for pie. Without it the politician would be a wanderer on the face of the earth, and the corset-ist would go down to an unhonored grave. It is the grocer's friend, the orator's pride and the dentist's hope.

DURHAM foot-ball team drove over to play a friendly match with the Markdale boys on the Agricultural grounds here on Friday of last week. The game was advertised to start at 5 p. m., but owing to the Durham players breaking their rig on the way over, play did not start till half past six. Markdale won the choice of goals and Durham kicked the ball off and the excitement ran high for three quarters of an hour, both teams playing good ball, but in that time no goals were scored. Half time being up they changed goals and Markdale with blood in her eye was determined to score, which they did after fifteen minutes play. Durham then consented to stop play as it was getting rather dark, as she thought she could not score again Markdale Jacks. The game throughout was friendly, and Durham boys were pleased with the hospitality shown them by the Markdale players.

Bartley's steed in the shed was tied,
The owner felt not the hours glide,
As he snuggled up to the maiden he wooed
While he sat in the star-light and cooed.
The colt, he resolved to go home alone,
So loosened the snap and started on;
Into the sawmill he trod his way
Thinking he'd soon have a wisp of hay,
Crash he went through the upper deck,
Twenty feet he fell—broke not his neck,
The harness took, but the buggy stayed
Down the murky waters he started to wade.
All night long the dismayed youth tramped
To find where his horse and rig had decamped;
But the mists of morn had rolled away
Ere he espied the form of his handsome bay
A furlong or more below the mill,
Wholly unheart and standing still.

HUSTLER.

The New School Bell.

The trustees of our section got up a new brick school,
And hired a first-class teacher, to handle the wooden rule,
But then they weren't satisfied as most of the folks can tell,
They straightway wanted money, with which to buy a bell.

So they appointed a time for meeting, to talk the matter o'er,
And wondered that they'd never thought of having a bell before.
Till, at last, it was decided that the best thing to be done,
Was to hold a concert in the school, and try and raise the sum.

They got a number of speakers to come from the villages near,
And put out bills announcing, what all the people should hear,
Hoping would only come to the concert, and pay the lawful fees,
And by so doing they would greatly oblige the three energetic trustees.

The night it was a lovely one, and quite a crowd was there,
The music which was provided was beautiful and rare,
The baskets which the ladies brought were filled up to the brim,
The inspector was there and gave a speech which was a credit to him

The other speakers did well too considering how shy they were,
And some of them especially, trembled when they saw their best girl was there,
But everything passed off nicely, and they made about twenty dollars,
And the trustees thought what a nice thing 'twould be to have a new bell for the scholars.

But alas! no bell has chimed at Vandeleur as yet,
'Tis a shame that our trustees should such a matter forget,
And the people all feel like singing that old and mournful song,
Oh where! oh where!! oh where!!! oh where!!!! oh where is the money gone?

AMELIA JOHNSTON.

Vandeleur, Aug. 12th, 1895.
