Markdale Standard.

C. W. Rutledge, Proprietor.

MARKDALE, AUGUST 29, 1895.

FIFTEEN YEARS OLD.

The STANDARD is now fifteen years old, and celebrates this anniversary by donning a new dress of body type. A newspaper dress resembles that of a lady or gentleman in as much as, the better the material used and care received, the longer it wears.

Fifteen years appears a short period, looking backward, yet many changes have taken place both in the people and the community during those years.

The seasons glide along one after another in quick succession, some more prosperous than others, but all fairly renumerative to the industrious and economical. This village has made steady progress as a trade centre, and has improved unmistakably in both appearance and financial standing, while the surrounding country has developed even more than proportionately. The STANDARD has stood loyally by the interests of its constituency, and thoroughly appreciates the generous patronage accorded it in return by both town and country. It advocates loyalty to domestic home, loyalty to church, loyalty to your town and your country. The individual that will not stand by and uphold the best interests and good name of his family, church, town or country, is not worthy the name of a man or the respect of his neighbors, and is not the kind of citizen with which to build up a progressive community.

We heartily thank our numerous correspondents for valuable and much appreciated service and trust that you may not grow weary in well doing.

An invitation is hereby extended to any reader for suggestions on the line of improvements in the paper. We may not coincide with your suggestion or be in a position to adopt all that might be suggested, but that need not hinder you from making them. Let us hear from you. This is an age of improvement, and it is our aim to conduct the STANDARD accordingly.

The circulation continues growing yearly. This is of itself undoubted evidence that our humble efforts are appreciated. Hundreds of families will testify that

It comes like a boon
And a Blessing will follow
Each patron who punctually
Pays in his dollar.

TWO TRAINS YOUNG CATTLE.

Mr. George Lane, an extensive rancher, 75 miles south of Calgary, has been through this district for a fortnight purchasing one and two year old cattle, and left last week with two train loads, one from Barhamville containing 415 head and one from Markdale with 356 for which about $5,600 was paid. Mr. Lane with local helps brought the Durham shipment while Messrs. Alex Lucas and J. M. Davis accompanied the Markdale lot. Good prices were paid where well bred stock of the shorthorn grade were found, thus showing that it pays to breed up. For instance: Edwin Callis of Artemesia was paid $40 a head for his yearlings; D. R. Ellis, Euphrasia, $45 each for two year olds and Jas. Bell, of Glenelg, $25 each for 3-year-olds. Mr. Davis informs us that Artemesia had the best yearling which he purchased. It is not always the largest animal that commands the highest price. Ranchers like the square, straight back fellows which show good breeding.

Priceville.

Farmers are busy harvesting and report grain first class.

Mr. Dugald McLaulin, of Bannessan, passed away on Monday last at the ripe age of 95 years. He had enjoyed good health all his life.

Mrs. Alexander Bowman died on Friday last after a prolonged illness. Her remains were laid away in the Rocky Saugeen remetery. Mr. Bowman is in feeble health and has the sympathy of his many friends in his bereavement.

Mr. John Hazard, Sr., of Artemesia, received injuries on Saturday last by a fall in the barn which caused his death two days later.

We are glad to notice that the diphtheria place has been removed from the door of Mr. G. W. Tyson and that health is again restored.

A Proton bachelor, who wears a long beard, drove over with his lady to attend our S. S. picnic one day last week but found after this 5 mile drive that he was a week late, and now he vows vengeance on the Durham paper which misled him.

Wodehouse.

Harvesting is nearly over in this locality. The straw will be short in general, but the yield of grain is fair.

Many are sowing fall wheat this week. Those who threshed a week ago have had a snap selling seed wheat at $1 a bushell. But its like the schoolboy and the master, when the boy grows up he sings "He can't lick me now."

Mrs. Jas. Pike of Caledon East, has been giving lessons in fancy picture frames and basket work. The work is very nice and looks not unlike wax work.

The Misses Mary and E. Birch returned last week to the city.

Mr. Albert Wilcox spent last week among friends here, returning to Toronto on Saturday.

Messrs. Dan Walker, John Boales, Geo. Nesbitt and Angus Kennedy, are all happily engaged in Manitoba in the harvesting and threshing.

Mr. Henry Wilcox is now engaged in putting fall wheat on the Wilcox homestead. We are glad to see the place kept in the family. Henry has been away a few years, but will soon with his wife and family take full possession.

Miss Ella Wilcox of Toronto is visiting her sister Mrs. Jas. Lanktree and many friends.

Mr. Wm. H. Best went to visit his parents near Owen Sound and also to attend the very large entertainment of Sells Bros.

BORN.—On Tuesday to Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Woods, a daughter.

Walter's Falls.

Dr. McLean and wife and Miss and Master McLean, Mr. and Mrs. Manley, and Mrs. McCorral of Meaford and Dr. McCorral of Detroit, spent Tuesday and Wednesday fishing in our town, but failed to catch as many fish as usual owing to the weather being so wet and cold.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Walters of Kimberley spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. T. Walters of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thompson of Woodford were visiting friends in our town on Sunday.

Some of our town's people have been investing in some pressed hay.

Mr. Irwin of Blantyre preached in the Methodist church on Sunday evening.

The Kickapoo Indian troupe are to come to our town on Thursday, 29th, to cure up all the sick people in this locality.

There was quite a number of our citizens attended the great Sells Brothers circus held in Owen Sound on Tuesday.

Holland Centre.

Harvesting operations are well forward.

Miss Aggie Erwin is home from Toronto on a visit.

Miss Eliza Love is visiting relatives about home.

Mr. Wm. Searle left for Manitoba on the 20th.

Miss Susan Lilburne and neice, Miss May Ireton left on the 20th for Vancouver, B. C.

We wondered what caused Mr. John Greenaway to look so forlorn, but learned on enquiry that Mrs. G. was off on a two weeks visit to friends in Palmerston and elsewhere.

A meeting was held here on Monday to further consider the needs of the grasshopper stricken farmers. We understand that a petition for a loan to the Government was drafted.

A happy event of the past week was the marriage on Wednesday of Mr. H. J. LeGard, of Markdale and Miss Annie, eldest daughter of James Crowther, Esq. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. J. Husband, and the happy couple left for their home the same evening. We wish them smooth sailing o'er the sea of life.

Flesherton.

The intelligence has reached us of the sad accident resulting in death which has befallen Mr. John Hazard who was one of Artemesia's trusted and highly respected citizens. Mr. Hazard was of a literary taste and on Saturday last had gone to the cool and quiet of the hay mow to read a book from the public library here. It is supposed he had lain down near the opening in the hay loft and while reading had fallen asleep, rolled over and fell through to the floor below, about eight feet, sustaining severe injuries to the head and lower part of the body. He succeeded in getting to the house but soon became unconscious and remained so until he died early Monday morning. Drs. Hutton and Christoe were in attendance. Mr. Hazard was an Englishman by birth and had been in the teaching profession some years ago, and was a thrifty farmer having some time ago retired from active work. He had been tax collector in his ward for a number of years and had already received appointment by the council to that position for the present year. The sad accident cast a gloom over the entire community where he lived. The remains will be interred in the Flesherton cemetery this Tuesday afternoon. Deceased was 66 years of age and leaves a widow and grown up family of sons and daughters to mourn his untimely end.

The band tournament here by the Markdale, Dundalk and Flesherton bands on Wednesday last week received a liberal patronage, considering the very chilling atmosphere of the evening which was unfavorable for an outdoor entertainment. The visiting bands were late in coming, especially Dundalk, which did not arrive till 9 o'clock and some of the spectators had gone home. The entertainment was given on the grand stand on the agricultural grounds and was highly entertaining throughout, the flow of soul ceasing not until eleven p. m. The ladies of town entertained and served refreshments to the bands in the Agricultural hall. $24 were added to the band funds.

The large frame barn and contents with adjoining stables belonging to Mr. W. J. Caswell, Toronto line, 2½ miles from this place were totally destroyed by fire between 9 and 10 o'clock on Thursday night last. Mr. Caswell had retired only a few minutes when the fire was discovered but had made such headway that only the horses and harness from the stable were saved. There had been no fire or light in use about the buildings and it must have been the work of an incendiary. Insurance on building and contents $800.

Miss Gordon and Miss Greenland left on Friday on their return journey to Brooklyn, via the beautiful St. Lawrence and Montreal.

Mrs. J. T. Wright and little son left on Friday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Demude of Toronto, from where she will leave shortly accompanied by Miss May Damude for her home in Wichita, Kas.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Henderson spent part of last week at Owen Sound and on the lake and with the members of their household left here Monday for their home in Toronto. Mr. Henderson feeling better for his two months holiday here.

Miss Hattie Cole and Miss Hattie Smith returned to the city the beginning of the week.

Rev. Mr. McGregor, of Durham, preached an edifying sermon in the Baptist chapel here Sunday morning last. God uses human agencies for the accomplishment of his work was the Presbyterian pastors theme and was specially interesting. The Methodist pastor held a special service for the children in the morning which was very interesting, and his theme announced for the evening—the cake not turned—brought out a crowded congregation.

Miss Kate Bellamy has gone for a visit with relatives in Toronto.

Mr. R. Stinson of Markdale was in town on Sunday.

Mr. W. Moore spent Sunday at the parental home in Normanby.

Owing to the indisposition of the pastor, Rev. J. F. McLaren, B. D., the pulpit of Temple Hill church was occupied Sabbath morning by that venerable octogenarian Mr. Robert Gilray, J. P., of "Braeburn Place," Epping.

The fall fair will be held on Thursday, October 3rd.

Osprey.

Harvest operations are now engaging the time and attention of farmers in this locality.

The grain ripens slowly owing to showery weather of late which however will benefit the root crops, and pastures which seemed so dead a month ago are now growing luxuriantly.

R. S. McGirr completed Mr. Thos. Madden's barn last week, which is one of the best barns in the neighborhood. You should have seen how the youth and beauty enjoyed themselves the night of the raising.

Mr. John Inkster has lost nine head of cattle and W. G. Moffat three head by some peculiar disease. Dr. Ottewell attributes its origin to eating poisonous weeds in the swamps which creates the disease which is contagious and incurable.

Canada's Great Fair, '95.

Never before in the history of the Toronto Industrial Exhibition, successful as it has been in the past, have entries been anything like so numerous as this season. The fair which opens on the 2nd of September, only a few days hence, continuing until the 14th of the month, will in all departments be the fullest, choicest and most representative of all branches of Canadian industry, skill and art of any ever held. Every building is literally packed with exhibits and the management have reluctantly been compelled by lack of space to turn away many applicants. The programme of special attractions and entertainments is of a superior order and embraces many novel high-class features. In addition to trotting, running, pacing and hurdle races, bicycle contests, equestrian specialties, balloon ascensions, and other always popular items, the daily programme includes a great water fete and aquatic exhibition, an entirely novel and unique entertainment presented on an artificial lake in front of the grand stand. It presents a number of beautiful tableaux and a continuous succession of wonderful, exciting and diverting aquatic and acrobatic performances, such as high tower diving, fancy swimming, etc., accompanied with a great variety of vocal and instrumental music and specialty entertainments by artists and companies of world-wide renown. Every evening the proceedings will conclude with the rendition of the grand spectacular military and pyrotechnic pageant "The Relief of Lucknow," in which over 400 performers will take part, characterized by military marches match dances, battle scenes, and a splendid display of fireworks. Reduced rates on all railways and steamboats, and special excursions from a number of important points in Canada and the United States, will bring an unusually large number of visitors to the Fair. Every one should avail themselves of the opportunity. If you cannot all go to the Fair at once let part of your family go the first week and part the second. It will be equally as good from the beginning to the close.

Mrs. T. S. Hawkins, Chattanooga, Tenn, says, "Shiloh's Vitalizer Saved my Life. I consider it the best remedy for a debilitated system I ever used." For dyspepsia, liver or kidney trouble it excels. Price, 75 cts. Sold by W. Turner & Co., Markdale, and Wm. T. Price, Berkeley.

North Grey Fall Exhibition

This year's Fall Show on the Agricultural Grounds at Owen Sound, Sept. 16, 17, 18 and 19 promises to far surpass the great Exhibition held last year. The programme, which appears in another column, shows that the Directors have secured the very best attractions. Cyrene, the character and acrobatic dancer and slack wire artiste, has a world-wide reputation. La Belle Bros. in the Mexican Revolving Ladder, Double Trapeze &c., will certainly prove a drawing card. The Graham Bros. are also billed. The high stilt-walking clown and contortionist is well known in parts of Grey.

$2,500.00 cash are offered in prizes. Two large cattle sheds have been built. A large tent, formerly owned by the Woodbridge Poultry Association, will contain the Poultry Exhibit. Accommodation 80 x 100 feet will be furnished for machinery. Day and night Fire Works will enliven the proceedings. A large aquarium will contain ten different kinds of fish. The speeding in the Ring and Bicycle Races on the splendid half mile track will assist in drawing one of the largest crowds ever gathered in Owen Sound.
