THE street car traffic in Toronto during the Exhibition was something enormous. On Wednesday of last week 192,006 passengers were accommodated, being the largest number ever carried in one day. The receipts for that day amounted to $8,322,80. In all that throng not an accident happened.

THE Hanover Post, in advocating that paper as an advertising medium mentioned last week a case in which a cattle buyer lost a heifer, and found her by an ad in the Post, but that she was dead. Those advertised in the STANDARD have been found alive, as far as we have learned. That's better, eh?

Our band is to be congratulated for the excellence of its entertainment.

MATERIAL is being put on the ground for a residence on Wellington street, but whether it is to be single, double or tripple we have not learned; at any rate "coming events cast their shadows." PRESS of matter necessitates some boiling down of correspondence this week.

DUNDALK Band captivates the musical ear. It plays beautifully and some rare selections were given here last Tuesday night. A Clarionet solo, "Coming thro' the Rye" by Mr. Parks, the leader thrilled the harts of lovers of good music.

HOT meals at all hours will be provided both days of the Walters Falls Exhibition, 24th and 25th Sept., by the Church of England people in J. Coleridge's large agricultural hall. They are making immense preparations to accomodate five hundred people. Everybody come.

HOME SWEET HOME.—Mrs. W. J. McFarland and Miss McFarland arrived home on Thursday night last from their tour through England, Scotland, France Italy, Switzerland, Germany and Belgium. The citizens gave them a cordial reception at Enfield Villa; the spacious lawn was beautifully illuminated for the occasion, and the citizens band discoursed popular and appropriate airs in good style. We hope to give a series of "Notes by the way" from the pen of Miss McFarland during coming weeks.

DISTRICT MEETING AND S. S. CONVENTION.—The Financial district meeting of Owen Sound, Methodist church, was held in town on Monday last. All the circuits were represented and a very harmonious session enjoyed. In the evening a Sabbath School convention was held when a good sized audience was treated to an excellent program consisting of live practical addresses from Rev. Herbert Lee, Owen Sound, M. Richardson, Esq., Flesherton and Rev. Thos. Scott, B. T.L. of Corbetton interspersed with appropriate music by the choir. Rev. A. Brown, district chairman presided.

MODERATE Mr. WM. MORRISON.—It was with many regrets the public learned this week that the grim reaper had called away one of the earliest settlers and pioneers in this part of the country. It is now forty eight years since Mr. Morrison moved into the township of Glenelg and in that long period he has led an active, useful life. A man of more than ordinary intelligence, he had great influence and served his township for 22 years or more as a councillor and for 4 or 5 years sat in the county council. For a considerable period too he acted as assessor, and in various ways a representative man. He lived and died in the communion of the Catholic church of which he was a most devoted member, and he leaves behind him 4 sons and 3 daughters to honor his name and mourn his loss. An affection of the heart which has troubled him for two years was the caused of his death. The funeral procession was a very large one, and the service in the Pomona church, conducted by Rev. Father Connelly of Mt. Forest in the absence of Father Maloney, were most impressive and touching.—Grey Review.

Wedding Bells.

Queen's Valley, Sydenham, is a beautiful and progressive agricultural district, lying between Walters Falls and Owen Sound. Its citizens are prosperous and thrifty, and perhaps none of them more so than the couple that were made one last week. The happy event took place at the home of the bride's parents, Geo. Garbutt, Esq., and wife, on Wednesday evening, and the Rev. Henry Berry was the officiating clergyman. Miss Mary E. Garbutt, sister-in-law to Mr. Henry D. McLoughry of this place, and Mr. Donald Morrison, also of Queen's Valley, were the contracting parties, and Miss Sarah Hill of Meaford and Mr. Robert Macpherson of Sydenham acted as maid and man. The knot was well and truly tied at 8 o'clock after which a cloudburst of congratulations broke over the happy couple. Sixty invited guests enjoyed a sumptuous repast and a convival evening was spent. The bride was the recipient of a large number of useful and valuable presents. The young couple begin wedded life with bright prospects for smooth sailing and with the good wishes of a wide circle of friends, among whom is the STANDARD.

Kind Komments.

FIFTEEN YEARS OLD.—The Markdale STANDARD is now fifteen years old, and is improving with age. We trust it will continue to prosper.—Shelburne Economist.

THE Markdale STANDARD is fifteen years old and celebrated its anniversary last week by putting on a new dress of body type, so that always neat it will now be still tidier. The STANDARD is a credit to Editor Rutledge and Markdale.—Durham Chronicle.

THE Markdale STANDARD is 15 years old. It has every appearance of being a long live, having a healthy, outward look. Its get-up is a credit to its proprietor. It has a good pair of lungs without doubt, as it can always be heard quite distinctly when it has anything to say on any subject. It is a welcome visitor to our office every week May its shadow never grow less.—Thornbury Herald.

THE Markdale STANDARD celebrates the fifteenth year of its publication by donning a new dress. The STANDARD is one of the best local papers published in Grey county, and the people of Markdale have good reason to be proud that they have such a faithful and impartial exponent of their rights. The Mirror wishes its contemporary a long and successful career in the field of journalism.—Meaford Mirror.

The Markdale, Ont., STANDARD has entered upon its sixteenth year of publication, and has celebrated the event by donning a new dress of body type. There is not a more presentable, readable or welcome paper on our exchange list than the STANDARD. We wish friend Rutledge, the publisher and proprietor, the success in future that has attended him during the past fifteen years of his experience in pushing the quill of a first-class weekly newspaper. Such journalistic enterprise deserves success.—Chilliwack Progress.

I observe that the Markdale (Grey Co.) STANDARD has entered upon the sixteenth year of its existence under the proprietorship and management of Mr. C. W. Rutledge. Fifteen years ago, Mr. Rutledge—then an ambitious and prosperous farmer, surprised his friends by buying the Markdale Expositor from Mr. G. J. Blyth, who has since made such a success of the Chatsworth News. To step from behind the plough into the sanctum of a local newspaper—without any preparatory training—was so very unusual that for some time Mr. Rutledge was subjected to a running fire of good-natured and ill-natured remarks. But Mr. Rutledge was made of the right material and can look back over his fifteen years' experience in the newspaper business with pardonable pride. He has a handsome brick printing office and one of the best equipped country newspaper and job printing plants in Canada. His venture has been an unqualified success; and Mr. Rutledge deservedly enjoys the respect and esteem of his confreres of the press. May his shadow never grow less.—Toronto Junction Leader.

This is the instructions given by hundreds of good wives to their husbands before leaving home for Markdale.
