A Boring Act

One evening last week a fierce looking character entered the house of Mr David Foster two and a half miles east of this place just as the inmates were about to retire to bed. They were terrorized when the intruder covered them with a seven shooter and made demands for booty. Had it not been for the superior nerve and powerful physique of Mr Leonard Cox who was present, having been engaged attending the masons who were building the foundation of Mr Foster's new house, we say, had it not been for Len's defensive attitude? there's no telling what the result would have been; as it was, the highwayman beat a hasty retreat and made good his escape without adding a shilling to Eli's purse.

William A McLeod

After about twelve months' failing health and declining physical vigor, during which time all that medical aid could furnish or loving hands provide Will McLeod passed away on Friday last aged 19 years, 1 month and 16 days, of pulmonary trouble. Will was a favorite in the community and his premature demise causes universal regret. The funeral took place from the residence of Mr and Mrs Marsh Sunday p m to the public cemetery and was a very large one. The cortege was led by over 50 young men who marched in advance of the hearse. The casket was covered with flowers and wreaths presented by loving friends and a magnificent pillow of cut flowers with the word comrade worked in immortelles the gift of his associates. Rev J Hunter was the officiating clergyman, who also preached an appropriate memorial sermon same evening in the Presbyterian church to a crowded house.

Town Fathers

Markdale Council appears to be getting down to business in good time this year and working industriously. Two special meetings have been held already this month. On Friday night last the second was convened at 8 o'clock, all the members present. By-law No 116 re early closing was put through its various stages and passed. This gives farmers and others two evenings in the week for shopping later than six o'clock, and will doubtless be appreciated by many. The by-law is published this week in another column and should be carefully read by all concerned, as its provisions are to be strictly enforced.

The council has decided to have all standing bylaws printed in pamphlet form. This is a move in the right direction.

District Meeting

The annual May meeting of Owen Sound District, Methodist church, was held in Markdale on Monday evening and Tuesday. There were fourteen ministers and as many lay delegates. The Monday evening session was exclusively clergymen. Tuesday at 9 o'clock the full board convened. Rev A Brown of Owen Sound, District chairman, presiding. Rev T Scott was elected secretary and Rev. Humphreys statistical secretary. Rev Mr Ward and Mr J W Redfern financial auditors. At the layman's meeting C W Rutledge was elected member of the Missionary committee and Mr J W Redfern as alternate and the following as delegates to Conference:

Owen Sound 1st, J W Redfern.
Owen Sound 2nd, A W McFaul.
Markdale, C W Rutledge.
Flesherton, R Test.
Dundalk, T Hanbury.
Brookholme, Eli Perkins.
Woodford, W B Thistle.
Walters Falls, Jas Bowes
Chatsworth, Jas McInnis.
Holland Centre, W Foster.
Euphrasia, C Morwood.
Priceville, A Ostrander.
Eugenia, Plautt.
Corbetton, M Williams.

Rev Mr Fallis of Dundalk was elected member of the stationing committee.

The statistical returns showed a satisfactory state of the work and finances generally.

Upon the invitation of Principal Rowe the assembly visited the public school at 3 o'clock p m and were much pleased with the evidence of discipline as manifested by the whole school. It being Empire Day the patriotic spirit was pleasingly apparent in national designs on the blackboard, floral decorations and flags as also patriotic songs by the school. Revs Simpson, Chairman A Brown and Mr Newell made short but appropriate addresses.

A short session was held on returning to the church and a pleasant and profitable annual district meeting closed. The next May meeting is to be in Dundalk.
