Local girl was Jr. Citizen nominee

Grade 12 Georgetown District High School student Briana Courtemanche was the nominee for the 2013 Ontario Community Newspapers' Association Junior Citizen of the Year for this area, recognizing her many volunteer activities in Halton Hills and beyond.

The list of Courtemanche's volunteer involvement in both the local community and in school is lengthy, including fundraising activities for Cancer Assistance Services Halton Hills and the Georgetown Hospital Foundation, as well as participating in the Big Brothers/Big Sisters Homework Club.

At GDHS, the aspiring teacher assisted new students by becoming a Link Crew Leader and has been a member of the Georgetown Leadership Committee, along with co-ordinating the school's dance team.

Last year, Courtemanche joined a group from GDHS that helped build the foundation for a school in a village in Kenya and is enthusiastic to share her knowledge of the Free the Children organization with others.

The OCNA, through its member community newspapers and with support from TD Canada Trust and Direct Energy, recognizes young people every year who are involved in community service, contribute to the community while living with a disability, performed an heroic act or are "a good kid" who does more than is expected of someone that age.

Does your child want to have lots of fun!?!?
