Mr. Boyajian is a medical student and as soon as his course is complete will return to Armenia.

New Laundry.

Mr. J. A. Crowston's new laundry commenced operations last week with Mr. John Ferguson, late of Montreal, in charge. Mr. Ferguson is an experienced laundryman and the first week's work was most satisfactory. The new laundry is now prepared for all kinds of orders.

The Finale.

The second performance of "What happened to Jones" was given in Marsh's hall on Saturday evening last. The attendance was not as large as on the former occasion, but was attentive and very appreciative. The personel was the same with the exception of Mr. J. A. Crowston, who was replaced by Mr. I. W. McArdle, the role being the sanitarium superintendent. The club have received invitations to appear in Owen Sound, Chatsworth and Dundalk.

Lacrosse.

The lacrosse match on Monday evening last between the Canadian Thistles, of Dundalk, and the Aberdeen's III, of Markdale, was intensely interesting and was witnessed by a large number, fully one third being ladies. The Thistles objected to one or two of the Aberdeens and an hour was occupied in discussing the point. Finally matters were agreeably adjusted and the game commenced. A casual glance at the two teams did not inspire an over abundance of confidence in the home team's ability to win, but the game had not advanced very far when it was seen that the Aberdeens could play the best kind of lacrosse. The Thistles were well schooled in combination play, but their opponents mixed combination with fast checking and it was owing to this that they won. Towards the last the Markdale flags were frequently in danger and it was at this time Dundalk secured their two goals. Dassie Mercer tallied twice for Markdale and Joe Crowe once, the score being three two in favor of the home team. The game was characterized by good feeling and clean playing on the part of the boys. The only feature that savored of burlesque was the referee. He had an awfully tender heart, as far as the Thistles were concerned, and couldn't stand half what they stood. He filled the bill very nicely, however, and everybody enjoyed the music of his little whistle. Enthusiasm is responsible for a good deal, but there should be a thorough enforcement of the rule allowing the boys a clear field in which to try conclusions. Markdale hasn't a monopoly of this fault. The return match will be played on July 1st.

Woodstock will be incorporated as a city on July 1st.

Fresh burnt lime for sale, at kiln 2 miles west of Markdale, or delivered. Robt. Ireton.

Some smart scientific chap has invented smokeless tobacco. All the ladies journals are puffing it.

Roch Marien, horse buyer, will be in Markdale on Wednesday, June 12. He wants army and big horses this time, and is prepared to give the highest prices possible.

Messrs. P. C. McGregor, of Sydenham, and Anthony Shute, of Holland, are the candidates for County Commissioner to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Thos. Williscroft. Election on the 14th.

Philippe Fontaine, P.H.D., L.L.D., and his Egyptian company, will appear in Marsh's hall on Thursday evening next, under the auspices of the Independent Order of Foresters. The entertainment partakes of an Egyptian character and is spoken very highly of by all who have seen it.

The entertainment given by Cox Bros. in Marsh's hall on Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Womens Guild of the English church, was well attended and pleasing to all. The moving pictures, including the funeral procession of our late Queen, were splendid, and the gramaphone selections were much enjoyed.

The following is a list of appointments made by the Methodist Conference now in session in Toronto for the Owen Sound District:—Markdale, Rev. W. Buchanan; Euphrasia, Rev. J. J. Sparling, B. A.; Flesherton, Rev. J. S. I. Wilson, B.A.; Corbetton, Rev. Thos. G. McAteer, B. D. Rev. W. P. Brown goes to Temperanceville.

Tuesday afternoon of this week Miss Muir and Miss Mitchell, of our public school, took their classes to the woods on Mr. Douglas' farm and there conducted a lesson in nature study. The pupils returned about four laden with plants and leaves. Breaks like these in school routine help a great deal to obviate the temptation so strong to the average boy of taking the law in his own hands and forgetting to go to school on certain fine days.

The following were elected officers and teachers of the Methodist Sunday School for the ensuing year at a meeting held recently: Superintendent, W. G. Pickell; assistant supt., E. Rutledge; treasurer, J. E. Crone; assistant treas., W. Halbert; secretary W. L. Young; librarian, J. E. Matson; assistant librarian, C. P. Pickell; teachers, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Young, Mrs. W. A. Armstrong, Mrs. Walker, Miss Muir, and Messrs. E. Rutledge, Thos. Boland, J. E. Crone, R. W. Ennis and W. J. Shortill.

Will be Good.

The Egyptian Production of 1,000 miles on a Camel's Back, which is to be rendered in Marsh's hall Thursday night (this week) by Fontaine's Egyptian Company comes to Markdale most highly recommended. The biggest and best newspapers in the country speak of this entertainment in the highest terms. The New York Sun says "as on entertainer of cultured people Dr. Fontaine, P.H.D., L.L.D., is without a peer." The Detroit Free Press says "The costumes are rare and rich, the singing in Arabic and the lightning painting of oil paintings were alone worth the price of admission." Marsh's hall should be packed for this engagement. The concert is under the auspices of the Independent Order of Foresters.

Victoria Day in Markdale.

The Markdale folk, quite eager, spoke
Of May the Twenty-Fourth,
As a great day; to tell all, they
A fine programme sent forth
Ere Victoria Day.

First, on parade, red-coats displayed,
Cadets would march, 'twas true.
They fear not gun nor heat of sun,
Yet, none came out to view
On Victoria Day.

Full well they race in prairie chase.
Those broncbos, wild and free.
While some are found, these parts around,
No man the race did see
On Victoria Day.

With joy they've kicked; Who would restrict
The playing of foot-ball,
Though men be lame after the game?
But no one was at all
That Victoria Day.

O cyclers fast! who hasten past
While crowds crush round and cheer,
We saw not you, no cycler flew
His much-sought goal to clear
On Victoria Day.

The Markdale Band with music grand
Would to the Park proceed,
No sounds were borne from drum nor horn;
In silence they agreed
On Victoria Day.

Those forts that fell, as stories tell,
By Indian strategy
Should interest give, while still doth live
Lacrosse, Jack Canuck's glee
On Victoria Day.

In sporting scenes, the Aberdeens
Have played their part right well,
And Orangeville team we true might deem
A fast, fair match would tell
On Victoria Day.

And Dundalk, too, those lads we knew,
Thought they could play, also,
The Thistles came, but not a game
Was tried by them, I know,
On Victoria Day.

The Gourlay Bros., trick performers,
Are wonder-making men,
But Gourlay feats were not the treats
That Markdale town had then,
Last Victoria Day.

Some men have legs, those useful pegs,
That move at rapid pace,
But Swift of Foot where were you put
That no man saw the race
On Victoria Day.

Why, why was this? What went amiss?
Where were all sportsmen stored?
O Nature grieved, great groans she heaved,
And then her tears down poured
For 'Our Queen' that's gone.

Long years ago, this world to know,
A baby princess came;
Our Queen to be, destined was she;
Since then that day has fame,
The Twenty-Fourth of May.

She now doth lay, cold, cold her clay,
The sovereign all did love;
With husband dear and friends so near
Her spirit dwells above,
Victoria the Good.

And so, quite meet it seemed to greet
The Twenty-Fourth sad-teared.
Her grief to hide, fond Nature dried
Her eyes, as evening neared
On Victoria Day.

In concert hall, did curtains fall
O'er acts of mirth and woes,
But even there came grief and care—
The Bishop lost his clothes
On Victoria Day.

Down stairs he flew, in garments few,
Habiliments to find,
"My clothes I seek", he thus did speak,
Warm-wrapped in blanket kind,
On Victoria Day.

The play was done; then came some fun
After the crowd was gone;
And dancing feet, to music sweet,
With fairy steps moved on,
As the mid-night come.

The day is o'er, but don't feel sore
Though Nature sadly wept,
Just try again, committee men,
Her tears may back be kept
Next Victoria Day.

. . . . . Grey County's Biggest Store . . . . . .

Always Aggressive

No matter how high in the sky a bird may fly it has to come back to the earth for a drink, and no matter how much stores may advertise they've got to deal with the experience of shoppers and the judgement of trade critics.
