Look well after your Horses' Feet.

If you have a horse that is worth shoeing have him shod well. Remember we do not burn the foot to fit the shoe. Every foot dressed properly and shoe fitted cold. Call and see the most complete assorted stock of horse shoes, bare iron steel bolts, clifs, whiffletree irons, neckyoke irons, sleigh dogs, clevises—in fact, everything the people need on shortest notice. I will have a fair price and warrant sound horses without interfering or over-reaching.

FLESHERTON HAPPENINGS

(By our own Correspondent.)

The celebration here on Dominion Day was a grand success and the immense crowd of visitors went home well pleased with the day's fun. Many last year were not out in time to witness the Trades Procession but were not to be disappointed this year and before ten o'clock the streets were thronged with an expectant crowd whose expectations were fully met in the parade witnessed by them. Our citizens in office and store and shop and factory turned out and vied with each other in making this part of the celebration a success. There were some fine decoration effects, Mr. M. Richardson & Co's van, W. A. Armstrong and J. Nuhn's wagons being specially good. The brawn and muscle of labor were splendidly represented on several floats by operatives at work. Bells clanged, bellows blowed, anvils rang, and on one of Heard & Son's floats a horse was shod during the parade.

At ten o'clock the procession formed at the Baptist church, and, led by the Collingwood Band, for nearly an hour paraded the streets, going to and from the agricultural grounds before dispersing. The following was the order observed: Policeman, Dr. Emerson Henderson, of Toronto, who was a typical Hibernian and made the crowd stand off; Collingwood Band; Mr. R. N. Henderson, president of committee, in spotless white carriage with liveried coachman; Mr. M. K. Richardson, M. P., and Dr. Boyle in carriage; committee, ten, on horseback; Artemesia Council in carriage; M. Richardson & Co's dry goods van; F. G. Karstedt's hardware van, a very attractive display; Flesherton Band; P. Loucks, flour; John Hales, carpenter shop and very neatly framed building; Thompson's bakery; Heard & Sons, blacksmith shop, carriage works and bicycle department on three wagons; Lloyd & Scully, butter and eggs; W. Moore, harnessmaker, workman at the bench; W. Clayton, boots and shoes, a fine display; D. McTavish, blacksmith and carriage works, well represented; M. K. Beaton, timber dealer, with large stick of timber and workmen thereon; Vandeleur String Band gave much amusement with their music and unique outfit; F. A. Baker, tailor shop, machines humming; John Nuhn, woollen mills, loom in operation; T. Bulmer, photographer, picture not yet developed; Chas. Stewart, dairy, dog churn in operation, and the whole much admired; A. Wilson, barber shop and laundry, two wagons, good representation; W. A. Armstrong, jeweler, very artistic display; T. J. Sheppard, dry goods, well represented; Dentist Murray, good outfit and splendid exhibition of painless extraction; J. P. Ottowell, Massey Harris implements, very attractive; W. H. Bunt, furniture, a nice display; W. H. Thurston, the Advance job press printing and distributing hand bills. An excellently represented elephant, who kept his keeper busy, and several monkeys with their antics made lots of fun for the crowd as did also a fat Dutchman and four clowns, who were as usual the cynosure of all eyes. A mounted Calithumpian Band of about a score from Eugenia under command of General Carr were a unique aggregation and brought up the rear with good effect. Their last volley from their "Long Tom" cannon and cheers for King and Country was a splendid closing of the morning program. Eugenia won the Calithumpian prize and Heard & Sons the prize for the best trade representation in the parade. Editor Thurston was busy taking "snap-shots" of the procession.

In the afternoon the gate receipts at the Agricultural Grounds were over $250, which indicates the large turnout. A program of lacrosse, races, etc., was carried out but at the time of writing have not been able to secure the full list and results other than Orangeville defeated Markdale in the lacrosse game—score 8 to 4. The great heat of the day and very warm evening was against the concert at night. There was, however, a fairly good attendance and a pleasing program was rendered by Mr. J. H. Cameron, of Toronto, and Mrs. Wright, of Markdale, who were introduced by Mr. M. Richardson, M.P. This was Mrs. Wright's first appearance in Flesherton and it is needless to say she delighted her audience with her superior vocal powers.

PRICE REDUCTIONS!

This week we begin a series of systematic price-reductions. All lines of goods that have not been selling as freely as we would have liked have been re-marked regardless of cost. These reductions also apply to all lines where the assortment is broken. We believe this is the BEST WAY of keeping stock RIGHT and while we lose money occasionally we know that customers who participate in values like the following are sure to come again.

7½ and 10 cent Swiss Embroideries at Five cts per yard. 25 pieces or 900 yards, beautiful fine Swiss embroidery—none of it worth less than 7½, while several pieces are actual 10 cent lines. If you are likely to require any embroidery during the next twelve months this is unquestionably your opportunity. Regular 10 cent goods per yard 5

Mens' Bicycle Hose.

Gents fine pure all-wool Bicycle Hose, footless, in assorted colors that are absolutely fast. These are precisely the same class of goods that are retailed in some stores at 35 cts. per pair, and while we admit that somebody loses money on them at our present price it matters not so long as you are the gainer. These 35 ct. bicycle hose on sale now 2 pair for 25

12½ cent Soiled Linings at 7 cts.

275 yards fine linings in cream and colored, slightly soiled, but none the worse for wear. If you require anything in linings you'll find these cheap and you'd better buy soon. 275 yards fine linings per yard 7

Childrens' Linen Hats 5 cts. each.

25 Childrens' Linen Hats, assorted sizes, that have been selling at 15 and 20 cts. We place these on sale at this ridiculous price because we require the space they occupy for other goods. 15 and 20 cent linen hats each 5

25 cent Cashmere Hose 19 cts.

These we bought a few days ago—not because we needed them but because the price was low—very low. One hundred and eighty pair ladies fine all-wool plain Cashmere Hose in sizes 8½, 9, 9½. Our reputation for handling the very best hosiery values has never been disputed, and when we say this is is as good a line as we've heretofore sold at 25 cts. the saving should prompt you to buy a supply. 25 cent Cashmere Hose per pair 19

10 cent Percale at 7½ cts.

One case or nearly 1,000 yards extra fine fast-colored percale at this remarkably low price. If you've used percale in past season's you are aware its the best low priced cotton goods in the market. On sale now 10 cts. per yard percale at 7½

25 to 50 per cent reductions on Dress Goods.

We've placed on tables in the centre of our store for convenient inspection hundreds of yards of choice fabrics in summer Dress Goods at reductions in price up to 50 per cent. The assortment embraces almost all kinds—there's sure to be something you'll require. Take a look through them as soon as you can.

Another Remarkable Shoe Snap. Men's 1.50 to 2.50 Fine Shoes for 1.13.

120 pair Mens' Fine Shoes in gaiters or laced, all sizes, but only a few pair of each line. The lot includes almost all worthy styles and qualities and represents the workmanship of the best Canadian Shoe men. Your choice of 2.50 shoes for only 1.13.

200 DOZEN FRUIT JARS AT RIGHT PRICES

F. T. HILL & CO., MARKDALE.

Mr. Cameron has been heard here before with good effect. At the conclusion of the concert a fine display of fireworks and three balloon ascensions were given under the management of Mr. R. N. Henderson, to whom much of the success attending the celebration is due.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist Church served meals on Monday and were very well patronized.

On Tuesday of last week as Mr. Trimble's bus was coming in from the Station when opposite Hill street at Mr. Heard's shop, a horse belonging to Mr. W. A. Armstrong, which ran away from its own stable, where it was about to be unhitched from the buggy, dashed down the street and instantly coming up to the broadside of the bus bounded across it at the dashboard overturning it in its flight. Perc Trimble, the driver, and a little boy of Mr. Wm. Tucker's, were the only occupants of the bus, and miraculously escaped injury. Both vehicles were considerably damaged and the runaway horse received some wounds.

An interesting event took place in our public school at the closing for the holidays on Tuesday afternoon of last week. Miss Irwin, who has had charge of the intermediate room for four and a half years, and Miss Meredith the primary department for three years, were that day severing their connection with the school and their pupils seized the opportunity to express in some tangible form their appreciation of and love for their teachers who have during these years faithfully endeavored to mould their character and develop their young lives. A number of the parents were present and the special proceedings having been taken charge of by Principal Slaughter the retiring teachers were each presented with a beautiful gold watch chain accompanied by an appropriate address. In Miss Irwin's room Miss Ella Karstedt was chosen to read the address and Lily Boyd to make the presentation. In Miss Meredith's room Masters Clarence Dafoe and Harald Karstedt performed the same duties. Both teachers thanked their pupils for so kind expression of their love.

Among the large number of visitors in town over the holiday were—Mr. T. Henderson, Dr. E. Henderson, Mr. John Gordon, Miss May Domude, Mrs. T. Aikenhead and daughter, Mr. Jos. Armstrong, Toronto; Mr. J. Baker, Stayner; Mr. Lou Karstedt and Miss Th. Elmwood; Mr. E. VanZant and daughter and Mr. M. VanZant, Cayuga; Mr. W. J. Douglass, Collingwood; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Van Luven, Owen Sound; Mr. W. Burke of Guelph, dropped in on us on Monday to renew old acquaintance. The Misses Southgate, of Toronto, are visiting their uncle Mr. George Miscampbell.

Miss Flo Powell and Miss Rita Dunn of Toronto, are the guests of the Misses Munshaw.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Strain, returned from Ann Arbor for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Wright, of Penetang, are visiting the former's parents.

Miss Hattie Cole is home from Toronto visiting her parents.

Mr. W. Henderson and Miss A. Boland of Toronto, are visiting here.

Mrs. Ethel Gordon, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is visiting at Mr. M. Richardson's.

Mr. W. Smyth spent part of last week with friends at Dundalk.

Mr. S. Kingston fell a few days ago and struck her face on the corner of a chair inflicting a cut and several severe bruises.

Mr. P. Crossely is rejoicing over the arrival of a young son on Friday last.

Rev. S. Wilson preached interesting sermons to large congregations on Sabbath last and made a very favorable impression.
