

Howard Stern personalities at Nashville North

On Saturday, March 1, The One Mic Comedy Tour featuring Shuli Egar and Maddog Mattern, hosted by Howard Stern Show personality Ronnie Mund will be held at Nashville North, 530 Guelph St, Georgetown.

Tickets $25, are available at www.thebigevent.ca. Doors at 6:30 p.m.; show at 8 p.m.

When SiriusXM Radio personalities Egar and Mund perform at Nashville North, it will be their first show north of the border in nearly two years.

Mund has been Howard Stern's limo driver and head of security and omewhere along the way, the lecherous and loveable hardass found his way in front of the mic. Mund is a one-night-only guest at the seated stand-up show.

Egar's big break came in 2006 when he was invited to be a founding member of the Howard 100 News team. He's also a regular on the Jay Thomas and Doctor Harry Fisch Shows, and still finds time to gig with some of the best comics in the business. The Israeli comedian has an everyman charm, and a knack for keen observation.

Supporting act Maddog Mattern is a hyperactive sports and pop culture trivia whizz whose act is almost entirely improvised and inspired by the crowd and setting.
