FLESHERTON HAPPENINGS

Special Correspondent

One of the prettiest June weddings in this locality was that which took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hoy, Collingwood Road, on Thursday afternoon last when their only daughter, Matilda, was united in marriage to Mr. Robert C. Phillips, of Toronto. The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. W. Thom, of this place, in the presence of about forty-five relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a very pretty dress of white silk organdie trimmed with lace appliqué, and carried a beautiful bouquet of white roses. Miss Lillie Phillips, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid and was prettily gowned in pale green lustre with a yoke of all-over lace and carried pale pink carnations. Little Miss Gertrude Mathews, of Toronto, was flower girl and looked very sweet in a gown of pale blue silk, and carried a basket of red roses. Master Charlie Douglas, of Meaford, was ring-bearer, and looked very cute in a suit of brown velvet. Mr. Alex. Hoy, the bride's brother, was best man. After the ceremony a dainty wedding breakfast was served, the table being prettily decorated with roses. The young couple left on the evening train for Toronto, where they will settle in their new home. The bride going away in grey, was a handsome navy blue cloth with white silk vest and large white hat. The bride was the recipient of a large number of beautiful presents.

On Wednesday of last week when starting for Markdale with a load of Rev. Mr. Wilson's household goods, Andy Kennedy's team became unmanageable on the incline opposite Mr. Armstrong's jewelry store, and a few rods farther down collided with a telegraph post upsetting the wagon and load broadside on the street. The tongue and one wheel of the wagon was badly broken, but only slight damage was done to the contents of the boxes.

Twelve pupils wrote at the Entrance Examination here last week, twelve of whom were from Flesherton school. Principal Rowe, of Markdale, presided, and gave us a pleasant call while in town.

Flesherton football club played at Priceville last week where the score was 5-5, and also at Kimberley where the score was 9-0 in favor of the Valley boys.

S. S. No. 4, east of the village, held their annual picnic in Mr. Quigg's bush on Dominion Day. A number from here attended the Foresters' picnic at Vandeleur that day.

Born—On Friday last, to Mr. and T. A. Blakely, of this place, a daughter.

Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Caldwell arrived here on Friday night last and were given a welcome at the parsonage where the ladies had refreshments prepared for their coming. Dr. Caldwell preached his inaugural sermon in the Methodist church on Sunday morning and made a very favorable impression on his congregation. The speaker's theme was the rest that remaineth to the people of God and was specially well adapted to the worshippers at the morning service. The sermon was well delivered and was thoughtful and uplifting in character. Service in the evening was withdrawn in favor of the Presbyterian anniversary.

Large congregations were present at the anniversary and re-opening services in Chalmers Church on Sunday when Rev. Dr. R. P. McKay, of Toronto, preached very able and edifying sermons which were highly appreciated by his hearers. Dr. McKay delivers the Gospel Message with fluency and power and should be again favor Chalmers Church will receive a hearty welcome. Dr. Caldwell was present and took part in the evening service. The choir rendered excellent music at both services.

On Monday evening a successful festival was held. After refreshments served in the body of the church the audience adjourned to the auditorium where a good programme was rendered, the pastor, Rev. L. W. Thom, presiding. Addresses were given by Rev. Dr. R. P. McKay, of Toronto, Rev. D. W. Urquhart of Corbetton and his friend, Rev. Mr. McKay, who accompanied him; Rev. Dr. Caldwell, Rev. J. B. Wass, Rev. J. F. Hurlburt of this place. A pleasing reading was given by Miss Matheson, and the musical part of the programme was well sustained by the choir. The total receipts of the anniversary were $105.

The Session of Chalmers Church has election Mr. A. S. VanDusen representative elder to Presbytery for the ensuing twelve months.

Principal Mansell recently received a tempting offer to join the staff of a business college in Toronto. The school board here have offered him a substantial advance in salary to retain his services and have been successful in the matter. Mr. Mansell has done excellent work in the school since coming here. He and family leave this week to spend the holidays at Toronto and Glenmeyer.

Mr. James Gillespie, of Huron Co., Mich., who was visiting his sister, Mrs. Wm. Wright, west back line, received the sad news on Friday last that his barn and residence with most of the contents had been destroyed by fire. Mr. Gillespie left for home at once.

Dr. Ern. Armstrong, dentist, has commenced the practice of his profession here.

Messrs. Chas. Stafford and William Simpson returned last week from Cuba where they had been inspecting the properties held by them. The land they found to be on the whole good and a safe investment. The climate, however, is very warm, and too few yet of the English-speaking race in the place to make it attractive for immediate settlement.

Rev. John Stafford is again on his annual holiday with his sister, Mrs. J. P. Ottewell, here.

Mrs. George Edwards and Mrs. Clark, of Woodstock, are visiting the former's sister, Mrs. F. Chard. Mrs. John Blackburn and other relatives in this vicinity.

Mrs. P. Homan left some days ago to visit her daughter, Mrs. Strain, in Manitoba.

Miss Prichette, of our school staff, is spending her holidays at her home at Deseronto.

Miss Lily Thistlewaite has returned from Business College, Toronto, and was successful in her examination.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Stewart of this place left on Saturday to visit their son at Fort William.

Among the holiday visitors in town were Mr. and Misses Agnew of Owen Sound were the guests of the Misses Munshaw. Miss Hill of Markdale was the guest of the Misses Trimble; Miss Aggie Lever, Toronto, visited her sisters; Miss Bert Crossley, Toronto, visited her home; Mrs. Jeff Thistlewaite, Toronto, visited at his home; Mr. John Richardson, Owen Sound, visited his uncle, Mr. W. E. Richardson; Mr. and Mrs. H. Harrison, Miss A. Harrison and Mr. and Mrs. H. Thompson of Toronto visited at Mr. Ab. Stewart's; Messrs. John and Alex. Sinclair, Toronto, visited at Mr. Price Teetor's.

Among those abroad were Mr. Geo. Mitchell and daughters, Mr. C. N. Richardson, Mr. H. Howard and mother at Toronto; Mrs. J. F. Wright, west back line, visited her home at Orangeville.

Mr. Ed. Bentham of Toronto Junction is on a couple of weeks holidays at his home here.

Rev. Dr. McKay was the guest of Rev. L. W. Thom over Sunday and Monday.

Vandeleur

In spite of the very unfavorable condition of the weather on Saturday, the C. O. F. garden party was well attended. In the evening tea was served on the school grounds, after which the doors of the school were opened and the building was soon packed. The programme, which commenced at 7.30, was very interesting: Mr. Robert Wilson, of Toronto, humorous vocalist and entertainer, who had been secured for the occasion, gave several amusing selections. Mr. Conacher, the Scottish vocalist, of Toronto, sang very sweetly the Scotch selections. Miss McMullen, of Collingwood, gave several beautiful selections on the violin. Mr. J. H. Dundas made a splendid accompanist for the evening. Short addresses were also given by Dr. Ego, Markdale, Mr. John Boyd and Mr. McKenzie, Flesherton, and other members of the order. The concert was brought to a close by the singing of "God Save the King." Total receipts $106.

Rev. Dr. Caldwell preached his first sermon in this church on Sunday afternoon and made a very favorable impression. We extend a hearty welcome to Dr. Caldwell and wish for him the best of success in our midst.

Messrs. Ed. Warling and Ed. Hutchinson came up from Toronto to take in the Dominion Day celebration and visit with friends here.

Mr. Conacher was the guest of his cousin, Mrs. Geo. Wright, while in our burg.

Miss Sarah Johnston, of Minnie Hill, is spending her holidays at the parental home here.

The brick work of Mr. Wm. Summer's new house is about completed.

Miss Jessie Graham spent the 1st in Orangeville with her sister Miss Minnie.

Mr. Charlie Boland and Miss May Douglas spent Dominion Day at Dundalk.
