Some local church services are at:

Ash Wednesday Service: 7:30 p.m. at St. Andrew's United Church, 89 Mountainview Rd. S. The congregations of St. John's and St. Andrew's United join together for the beginning of the season of Lent. theAsh Wednesday service will be contemplative with the smearing of ashes and a reflection by Rev. Kelly Thomson. Guests are invited to bring a symbolic item to be brought forward as a sacrifice for Lent. Info: 905-877-4482 or www.standrewsuc.ca

Ash Wednesday: join St. John's United

Church's congregation in preparation for the Lenten Season and the arrival of Easter. Time and location to be advised. Contact: 905-877-2531, www.stjohnsuc.ca

Ash Wednesday Liturgy with the Imposition of Ashes: 7:30 p.m. at St. Alban's Church, 537 Main St., Glen Williams. In his poem, Ash Wednesday, T.S. Elliot wrote, "This is the time of tension between dying and birth..." As a Christian fast, Ash Wednesday lives in this tense place where we acknowledge the sorrow of death in the hope of resurrection. As an act of contrition and humility, it reminds us that not everything is all about us. As the threshold of the season, it opens to us the solemn and quiet meditation of a holy Lent.

St. Alban's in the Glen to host World Day of Prayer, March 7

St. Alban's Church hosts this year's World Day of Prayer on Friday, March 7, 7:30-8:30 p.m. at 537 Main St., Glen Williams. All are welcome. The World Day of Prayer is sponsored by the Women's Inter-Church Council of Canada and is an invitation for all Christians to pray together. The theme of the service this year is "Streams in the Desert", written by the women of Egypt.

The Coptic Church, which traces its history to the early years of Christianity, has come under violent attack since the overthrow of the Morsi regiem. Guest speaker Ghada Melek, a member of the Canadian Coptic community, will share her experience of the struggle of that ancient church, as well as other Christian denominations in Egypt.

Please join Christians in more than 170 countries around the world who will gather to pray and act in solidarity with the people of Egypt.
