A Good Record.

Mr. James Sharp, of Britannia, acting for Miss Sharp, on Saturday last sold to Mr. John Winlaw, of British Columbia, one of his 3-year-old shire geldings for the price of $300, and there was no rebate or commission returned. This fine animal is 17 hands high and over 1700 lbs., and is very powerful. He was sired by Newham's Duke. Mr. Sharp has a number of others sired by the same horse which are said to be more valuable than the one which brought this fancy figure. Mr. Winlaw will take this purchase to Nelson, B. C. Speaking of the horse at the fall fairs last year, Mr. Tomlon, the popular horse buyer, known better as "Yankie George," said: "He was the best sire of his age ever seen in Brampton." Dr. S. F. Quinn says: "This horse breaks the record and is the best sire of heavy draft horses he has ever seen in 25 years experience."—Brampton Conservator. Dec. 21, 1906.

This is the horse that won 1st and championship at Toronto in 1901 and 1902, and Gold Medal over all ages, and first and championship at World's Fair at Lewis & Clark, Portland, Oregon, and has never been beaten on the Pacific Coast. Thos. Mercer brought him back last fall and appeared in Toronto on Feb. 27th, 1908, at the Spring Show, and again carried off first prize and championship, and the English Shire Horse Associations' Gold Medal over all ages, notwithstanding he showed against one of Lord Rothchilds' and King Edward's exhibit of '06.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY IS AGREEABLE AND EFFECTIVE.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has no superior for coughs, colds and croup, and the fact that it is pleasant to take and contains nothing in any way injurious has made it a favorite with mothers. Mr. W. S. Pelham, a merchant of Kirksville, Iowa, says: "For more than twenty years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been my leading remedy for all throat troubles. It is especially successful in cases of croup. Children like it, and my customers who have used it will not take any other." For sale by R. L. Stephen, Markdale.

To the Public.

Everybody says, "Well, well; what next?"

A few days ago I had in hand full preparations for a trip to Saskatchewan, there to work a farm six miles in circumference. A car of horses and implements had been purchased and before this will be in print purposed being on the way to Strongfield, but suddenly plans were reversed and this week I find myself proprietor of Mr. J. E. Trelford's large hardware and furniture store, and I now respectfully solicit the patronage heretofore accorded my predecessor in business. Having assumed control of an important block and mercantile property without one dollar of encumbrance, I feel confident that I can make it to your advantage to continue to patronize this store. By honorable dealing and content with a small margin of profit, I hope to merit your confidence and support. Those who require furniture should inspect our big stock, covering a floor space of 60x66 feet. My purpose is to continue the cash system recently introduced by Mr. Trelford, that is, to sell for cash or trade. By this method you pay only for what you get, there being no bad debts to provide for.

Again soliciting your continued patronage, I am,

Yours Respectfully,
JEFFREY ARTLEY,
Markdale.

NOTE.

In reference to the foregoing, I would hereby introduce Mr. Artley, my successor, and bespeak for him that generous patronage awarded me during my 19 years' mercantile experience in Markdale, and at the same time sincerely thank one and all for past favors.

Those indebted to me by note or book account will kindly call at Mr. Artley's store, where I will be for a short time. Please do not delay as I would like to wind up these matters as soon as possible.

J. E. TRELFORD.

HAVE YOU A HORSE?

If you want to keep him in shape never let him suffer pain. Rub on Nerviline—it is noted for curing strains, swellings and stiffness and sore muscles. For internal use in curing cramps and colic, Nerviline is a perfect marvel. In every good training stable you'll find Nerviline, because it keeps horses in trim and reduces the veterinary bill. Farmers, stockmen and all horse owners should buy Nerviline and prove how valuable it is. Good for man or beast. 25c. per bottle at all dealers.
