Manarey--Sutherland

On Tues., 6th inst., at twelve o'clock "Hinton Grange" the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Sutherland, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when their only daughter, Elizabeth Irene, was married to Mr. Hugh L. Manarey. Rev. W. M. Lee, of Temple Hill, tied the mystic knot.

The bride, who entered the parlor leaning on the arm of her father and took her place beneath a large wedding bell, looked winsome in her gown of white pussy broidered tulle and carried a sheaf of bridal roses, and wore a jewelled necklet, the gift of the groom. Mendelssohns wedding march was beautifully rendered by Miss Irene Dudgeon, of Toronto, cousin of the bride, who was beautifully gowned in embroidered voile, trimmed with chains of small satin roses, and wore the groom's gift, a handsome pearl brooch.

After congratulations all repaired to the spacious dining room, which was beautifully decorated with carnations, roses and greenery, and partook of a dainty luncheon, which was served by cousins of the bride, under the directions of Mrs. John Norton.

At 3 o'clock the bride slipped away and donned her travelling suit of navy gabardine and large leghorn hat with velvet crown and french roses.

Later the happy young couple left by motor, amid showers of confetti and good wishes, for Markdale, where they entrained for a short honeymoon trip, to Toronto, Niagara and Detroit.

On Tuesday, May 30th, about sixty young people, close friends of Miss Irene Sutherland, A.A.O.M., the bride elect, met at her home and presented her with a kitchen shower. Miss Sutherland although taken completely by surprise, managed to open the parcels and amid shouts of laughter read the accompanying verses. The evening was spent in games and music, after which, the young ladies served a delicious lunch, and after singing "Auld Lang Syne," and wishing the bride-to-be much happiness, the jolly bunch returned to their homes.

On Thursday, 2nd inst., Miss Irene Sutherland was invited by Mrs. J. T. Norton to take tea in her home, where the ladies of Knox Church had assembled to bid farewell and also present her with a miscellaneous shower.

Miss Sutherland has been an ever willing worker in Knox Church, especially in the Sunday School and choir her musical ability especially has been a wonderful help, and expressions of sorrow were many at losing the most efficient and willing worker from the congregation.

After tea, all sang "Auld Lang Syne" and "For She's a jolly good Girlie," and wishing the bride-to-be God's richest blessing in her new home, took their departure.

Newspaper Folk Meet.

A Delightful Excursion to Port Arthur and Fort William.

The 58th annual meeting of The Canadian Press Association was held last Thursday and Friday in the new Technical School, Toronto.

This school was recently built and equipped at a cost of three million dollars, and is in every respect a magnificent building and a credit to Toronto. It is elaborately equipped with the most modern plant, as also experts for practical high class teaching of the various trades and arts.

About one hundred and fifty representatives of the press were present, from Vancouver, B. C., St. John, N.B., and intervening points.

After a general meeting in the Auditorium, when the members were welcomed to Toronto and the Technical School by Trustee W. O. McTagart, different sections met separately and discussed their many problems. The Daily Section, the Weekly Section, and the Trade and Class Sections all met.

In his presidential speech, Mr. W. E. Smallfield, of the Renfrew Mercury, touched on various problems which confront Canadian Newspapers, a prominent one being the necessity of increasing the subscription prices, which has been brought about largely as a result of the war.

The Excursion

On Saturday the number was augmented by some sixty-five ladies, wives and daughters of the publishers, and an excursion taken by special train to Port McNicoll, thence by the superb S.S. Keewatin to Port Arthur and Fort William. This re-union of acquaintances, and intermingling of those who have so much in common, by nearly two hundred journalists representing every province in Canada and all sparkling with sociability, proved highly enjoyable. When we add to this the magnificent service rendered by the Canadian Pacific Railway, and the exhilarating effects of the atmosphere, of the upper lakes, it will be readily understood that the outing proved a genuine tonic.

The Keewatin passed through the "Soo" locks at noon Sunday, reaching the "Gateway to the West" about 10 o'clock Monday a.m. Here we remained until noon the following day, during which time the civic authorities and citizens of Port Arthur and Fort William proved generous in feeding and entertaining the party, which was conveyed in some thirty autos about the twin cities, and also by the great icebreaking tug along the river front, which afforded an excellent view of the expansive docks, huge elevators, big flour mills, Steel Company of Canada's Works, etc., etc.

The party gathered in the main saloon of the boat the evening prior to leaving and a number of impromptu speeches were made by the various members of the party in appreciation of the courtesies of the Canadian Pacific Railway Co. in arranging the excursion. Presentations were made to Mr. McD. Duff, manager of the Great Lakes Service of the C.P.R., J. S. Byron, superintendent of the line, Mr. W. B. Howard, district Passenger Agent, Toronto, and others who accompanied the excusion party, and also to Captain McPhee and other officers of the "Keewatin," as well as civic bodies.

NOTES

On the arrival at the "Soo" on the return trip Wednesday at 9.30 a.m., the Press men were taken through the steel plant and paper mill, and the ladies about the city in autos and thus greatly enjoyed the hospitality of the city for some four hours.

The News-Chronicle, of Port Arthur, and Times-Journal, of Fort William, each issued a monster edition dated June 5th, the day the excursion arrived, and every member of the press was presented with a copy. These were elaborately illustrated with cuts of elevators and local enterprises and scenery and photogravures of prominent members of the Press Association, and contained much valuable information.

The Times-Journal presented each member of the Press party with a souvenir in the form of a miniature elevator filled with No. 1 hard wheat. This unique souvenir was much appreciated.

The elevators of the twin cities, some twenty-five in all, have a capacity of between forty and fifty million bushels.

Mr. J. G. Elliott, the new president of the Association, is a genial and capable head.

A large number of the party were musically built, which resulted in an enjoyable concert every evening. Miss Rita Irwin, daughter of the editor of the Durham Chronicle, made a most efficient pianist.

While on the return trip King George replied to the message of congratulation sent on his Majesty's birthday, as follows: "Please convey to the Canadian Press Association my high appreciation of their resolutions of loyalty and devotion, which you have communicated to me on their behalf. The unswerving adherence of Canada to the cause for which the Empire and Allies are fighting has been again manifested by the splendid gallantry of her troops on the battlefield in Flanders."
