PRESENTATIONS.

A very pleasant social evening was spent at the home of Mrs. A.M. Brown by the Presbyterian choir, when an opportunity was taken of presenting Miss Jean Baird with a complete set of ivory brushes and mirror as a small token of the high esteem in which she is held. During the evening an appropriate address was read (as follows) and the serving of light refreshments brought to a close a most enjoyable evening.

The address:

Markdale, Ont., November 22nd.

To Miss Jean Baird,—

We, the members of Cook's Presbyterian Choir, desire to place on record our high appreciation of your presence, affection and ability, as one who led us in the Psalmidy of God within His house. We are sorry, very sorry, you are leaving our midst, but know that you will do honor to our Church and choir, wherever you go.

We ask you to accept these toilet articles as a token of our high esteem and best wishes for your future, wherever that future may be spent.

Signed on behalf of the Choir:
Mrs. A. M. Brown, Miss Eva Burnett.

The home of Mrs. M. Thistlethwaite Flesherton, was the scene of a large gathering, when her friends and neighbors met Wednesday evening, November 20th, to bid her farewell and present her with an address and a gift of remembrance in the form of a rocking chair, before her departure from among them.

Mr. Chard read the address and Mr. W. Caswell presented the chair. Mrs. Thistlethwaite replied to the address thanking them for all their kindness and love to her in the past and for the gift they had given her.

The Address:

Springhill, November 20, '18

Mrs. Miles Thistlethwaite:

Dear Friend:— We, your friends and neighbors, have met in your home to spend an evening with you before you remove from our midst. But knowing that we shall not be separated by any great distance, we shall still have many pleasant intercourses with you.

We feel that we could not let this opportunity pass without expressing in some way our esteem for you. We ask you to accept this chair and our sincere wish is that you may be spared many years to enjoy its use, and that you may have many pleasant recollections of our gathering in your home this evening, and when called from the scene of action to our Eternal Home where farewells and partings are not known, may we all dwell in peace and love.

Signed on behalf of your friends and neighbors.

Mrs. Alf. Harrison,
Frank Chard.

At presentation took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Doubleday when their son, Spr. G. F. Doubleday, #2012200, was presented with an address and purse. The following is the address:

Harkaway, November 8th, '18.

Dear Gordon,—We, your friends and neighbors, assemble here, tonight to express our appreciation of your cheerful and ready answer to your Country's call. We have always found you ready to help in any way and hereby wish to thank you, and beg you to accept this purse as a small token of affection of your friends whom you leave at home.

Signed on behalf of the community,
W. J. Winterburn,
D. L. Binns.

IF YOUR CHILD IS CROSS, FEVERISH, CONSTIPATED

Look, Mother! If tongue is coated, cleanse little bowels with "California Syrup of Figs."

Mothers can rest easy after giving "California Syrup of Figs," because in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour bile and fermenting food gently moves out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.

Sick children needn't be coaxed to take this harmless "fruit laxative." Millions of mothers keep it handy because they know its action on the stomach, liver and bowels is prompt and sure.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups.

THE LATE JAMES AUSTIN CLARK

The late James Austin Clark was born in Township of Euphrasia, on February 5th, 1880, being the fourth son of the late Wm. Clark. He left these parts some twenty years ago for the Pacific Coast where he spent seven years in Vancouver and thirteen at Dawson City. Some fourteen years ago he paid a visit home, and it makes the sad fatality all the more tragic that he was on his way home leaving the Yukon permanently after thirteen years of successful and prosperous employment. Following his purpose he took passage on the fateful "Princess Sophia," which, on the night of October 25th, went down in the rough and dangerous waters of the Skagway with all on board. It is great consolation his body was recovered and forwarded home for burial by the C. P. R. authorities. The remains arrived here on Monday, November 18, and the following day a private funeral took place from the home of Mr. J. R. Dillon, a brother-in-law, to the Markdale cemetery. The service was conducted by Rev. A.P. Stanley of the Methodist church, assisted by Rev. J. Thurburn-Conn of the Presbyterian church. The pall bearers were: four brothers of the deceased, John, Howard, Richard and Robert, J. R. Dillon, a brother-in-law, and Howard Magee, a nephew.

Besides the sorrowing mother, Mrs. Clark, of Wodehouse, for whom great sympathy is felt, the following brothers and sisters are left to mourn his loss: Mrs. Salisbury, Brampton, Ont.; Mrs. Rich. Genoe, Vanoleur; John and Howard, on the homestead; George, Ladner, B. C.; Mrs. J. R. Dillon, Markdale; Mr. Victor Swanson, Buffalo, N.Y.; Mrs. Harry Trotter, of Vancouver, B. C.; and Richard B. and Robert, of Euphrasia.

MR. JOHN BRANIFF

On Tuesday morning, November 12, Mr. John Braniff passed peacefully away at his home in Kincaid, aged 86 years. Although in failing health for some time he was able to be up around until a short time before his death.

Mr. Braniff was born in Belfast, Ireland, came to Canada with his parents when only quite a young man and settled on the 14th concession of Artemesia where, with the assistance of his brothers hued their homes out of the bush, and many were the stories he could relate of the hardships of those pioneer days.

In May 1881 he married Ellen Burns, of Osprey, who predeceased him two years and a half ago. To them were born five children, two died in infancy and one daughter, Mary (Mrs. Wm. Braniff) died last June.

Eight years ago Mr. Braniff retired from farming and moved to Markdale where he resided until some three years ago, when he, with his wife, went West where all his family lived.

There is left to mourn the loss of a loving father, one son and daughter, Jack, of Kincaid, Sask., Ella (Mrs. Milton Neil), Meyronne, Sask.; an adopted son, Willie, in France; and one brother, Charlie Braniff, of Collingwood.

His remains were laid to rest in Weyburn Roman Catholic cemetery, beside his wife and daughter. Rev. Father Mallard officiated at the grave.

WALTERS FALLS

(Special to The Standard.)

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wickham and Miss Florence and Master Milton spent Sunday at Mr. and Mrs. Joe Longs.

A public meeting was held in the public hall on Saturday night, for the purpose of discussing some plans of erecting some memorial for those of our boys who died in France that we might live in peace and it was decided to go in with the Holland and Chatsworth districts in erecting a memorial in Chatsworth. Canvassers have been appointed and it is hoped that a generous response will be given them in the districts.

A number from this village attended the presentation to Mr. and Mrs. Wilmet Caswell on Tuesday night, prior to their departure to their new home in Holland Centre where Mr. Caswell has purchased the mill.

The Women's Institute will hold their next meeting at the home of Mrs. Jas. Hamill, on December 3rd.

Mrs. G. H. Watson is spending a few days in Owen Sound visiting relatives there.

Mr. Wm. Gibson, our young hunter seems to be hard to please in regard to dogs for hunting, for he says one of our dogs won't chases the rabbits too fast and the other one won't chase them at all, so Willie will have to practise shooting faster.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girls! Try it! Hair gets soft, fluffy and beautiful—Get a small bottle of Danderine.

If you care for heavy hair that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff. You can not have nice heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast. Surely get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store and just try it.

EAST MOUNTAIN

(Special to The Standard.)

It is beginning to feel a wee bit wintry.

We are pleased to report Mr. Carro Humkerstone and sister, Alma, able to be out again after an attack of flu.

Miss Bertha Griffin, a former teacher in our school and gentleman friend from near Rocklyn visited at Mr. Robt. McMullen's.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Genoe and John Jamieson, also the Carruthers family, have been laid up with the flu, but are recovering now.

Mr. Andrew Fawcett, of Kimberley, and lady friend, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Martin.

Mr. Wm. Harbottle has had cement stables put in his barn on the blind line. Mr. Thos. Lever, of Flesherton, was the contractor.

Miss Winetta McMullen is visiting with her grandmother, Mrs. Chard, Rock Mills.

Miss E. Davy, teached, has returned to her home in Vineland, the school being close on account of the flu.

The latest fad now is for the young unmarried women to steal beauty pins off the married men's coats. So beware, it takes only mere acquaintance to do this unmannerly act. Mothers should teach their daughters to not play with fire.

Mr. Chas. Martin has purchased a fine Shorthorn cow.

RIVERDALE

(Special to The Standard.)

Miss M. Cutting was the guest of her sister, Mrs. G. Wyville, of Cherry Grove, for a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Irwin visited the latter's parental home at Harkaway recently.

Mr. Henry Burns left on Thursday for the North Shore Lumber Camp having accepted a lucrative position in the employment of the North American Bent Chair Factory Co., of Owen Sound.

A large number from this vicinity attended the memorial service of the late private G. [illegible] at Markdale, on the 17th; also the memorial service for the late Neil Gibson at Ebenezer on Sunday p.m.

An earthquake of alarming proximity was experienced here on the evening of the 16th at 7. Distinct earth tremors were felt accompanied by a rumbling noise similar to distant thunder but of much longer duration. Many of our citizens felt their houses tremble and heard the windows rattle while in several cases pictures hanging on the walls were displaced by the terrible vibrations. No certain report as to the cause of the disturbance, other than an earthquake, has as yet been learned here, but it has been suggested that it was the concussion of General Foch's last big shot to wind up the war if so it must have been a humdinger over there.
