FLESHERTON

(Special to The Standard.)

You mustn't miss the show at the Regent Theatre, Markdale, to-night.

Mr. Arthur Johnston, the subject of this sketch, who died at his late home on the Meaford Road on April 26th in his 74th year, was born in Albion Township, County of Peel, from where he came to Artemesia about fifty years ago and with the exception of two or three years absence resided continuously in the township. He was a progressive farmer and a man highly respected in the community. About 18 years ago he was married to Miss Isabella Sinclair, of Artemesia, who survives him, with two sons and two daughters, viz: J. Lundy and William B., Meaford Road; Mrs. Harr, teacher, Markdale; and Mrs. Fred Boland, Vandeleur. The funeral took place on Wednesday, April 28th, to Meaford Rural Cemetery, assisted by the deceased's nephew, Rev. W. Sinclair of Holland Landing circuit. The deceased was a Methodist and in his younger days was an active and active worker in Wesley church. Relatives who attended the funeral were: Mr and Mrs. R. Nesbitt, Fred Forks; Mr. John Johnston, Alton; Mrs. Chambers and Mr. Nesbitt, Caledon; Mr and Mrs. W. Love and Mrs. R. Hannah, Portland.

After only a few weeks illness Mr. Joseph Fenwick passed away at his late home on the Eighth Line on April 23rd aged 76 years. He was an old resident of Artemesia and an industrious and highly respected man. He was married and leaves a widow and three young children who have the deep sympathy of the community in their loss. Mr. Fenwick was a Methodist and a supporter of the church here. The funeral took place to Flesherton cemetery on Friday afternoon and was largely attended. Service was held at the home conducted by his pastor, Rev. C. A. Reid.

At the Gospel Band meeting on April special interesting and spiritually helpful papers were given by Misses Edna Consley, Florence Wilson and Clarence Campbell, High School students, and five minute talks of useful life.

The Globe on Monday contained the following interesting wedding news: Buchanan—Colman—About eight hundred people were gathered in the Yonge Street Methodist church, Toronto, on Wednesday evening, April 28th, at 7.30 o'clock, to witness the marriage of Hazel V. B. Colman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Colman, to Mr. Wm. R. Buchanan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Buchanan, of Flesherton. Rev. J. W. Smith officiated. The church was decorated with palms and flowers. The bride, who was given away by her father, was attired in a white taffeta, and wore an embroidered veil of tulle, with a bandleau of orange blossoms. She carried a shower of white roses and sweet peas. The bridesmaids were Miss Emma Colman and Miss Lillian Buchanan. They wore blue taffeta, and carried Ophelia roses. The groomsmen were Mr. George Buchanan and Mr. Whitney Colman. Miss Mackle played the wedding music, and, while the register was being signed, Miss Ruby Dunnett sang "Because." A reception was afterwards held at the home of the bride's mother, and later Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan left for an extended honeymoon trip, after which they will live near Flesherton. We wish the young couple happiness and prosperity.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Kennedy, of Toronto, recently married, are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Henry. The bride's friends purposed giving her a "stone" on Tuesday evening.
