Owen Sound Presbyterial Society.

A sectional meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the Owen Sound Presbyterial was held in St. Paul's Church, Sydenham, on Oct. 2nd. There were representatives from Owen Sound, Meaford, Markdale, Thornbury, Heathcote, Temple Hill, Knox, Holland, Knox St. Vincent and Woodford. About one hundred or more ladies were present.

The morning session opened at 10 o'clock with Mrs. Morrison, of Markdale, presiding. The devotional exercises were led by Mrs. Jarvis and Mrs. Lendox. Mrs. Laing, of Thornbury, gave a very interesting address on Young Women's and Mission Band Work, which was followed by a discussion led by Mrs. Allen with several others taking part. Mrs. Brown, of Markdale, rendered a beautiful solo. Mrs. J. J. Douglas, of Owen Sound, gave an address on Finances. She said this Society had done well but there was an opportunity for greater efforts. Miss Armour led in prayer and the meeting adjourned for lunch.

The afternoon session opened at 2 o'clock. The officers' reports were taken by Mrs. Gray and Mrs. Martin.
