In Memoriam

THOMPSON—In loving memory of our dear daughter and sister, Emma, (Mrs. W. Thompson) who passed away September 9th, 1923.

Gone but not forgotten.

Not gone from memory or from love,
But to our Father's home above.
Free from all sorrow, grief and pain,
Our loss is her eternal gain.

Sadly missed by mother, sisters and brothers.

McLAUGHLIN-BUICK SPECIAL SIX 25-21

Where Luxury and Economy Meet

BEAR in mind that this Special Six Double Service Sedan embodies all the refinements in appearance and performance—all the mechanical excellences that has made McLaughlin-Buick known as Canada's Standard Car.

The handsome Fisher-built body is upholstered in high-grade and very-durable automobile plush. The rugged chassis, powerful valve-in-head motor, Four-Wheel Brakes, together with the unusual riding qualities made possible by cantilever springs and low pressure tires, make this the ideal car for business or pleasure use.

The price is considerably less than you'd expect to pay for a car so fine.

FLESHERTON

(Special to The Standard.)

After only a few days illness with a paralytic stroke, Mr. Ephraim Doupe, a well known respected farmer, three miles from Flesherton, passed away on Friday morning last, September 5th, aged 64 years. The deceased was born in Blanchard Township, County of Perth, but at two years of age came with his parents to Egremont Township from where the family came to Artemesia fifty years ago and settled on the farm on which he died. Thirty-one years ago he was married to Miss Susan Hawken, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hawken, near Eugenia, who survives him with one son, Charles, married and living on the homestead. He is also survived by one brother, Amos, at New Liskeard, a half brother, Francis Shier, at Portlaw, and two sisters, Mrs. Robert Best, Flesherton, and Mrs. W. J. Spence, Toronto. Mr. Doupe was a Conservative, an Orangeman and a Methodist, a supporter of the Church here. The motor funeral took place to Flesherton Cemetery on Sunday afternoon and was largely attended. The family pastor, Rev. H. H. Eaton, conducted the services at the house and grave. The pall bearers were, Deputy Reeve, J. A. Hogarth, Jos. Watson, J. T. Best, C. Hindle, Geo. Waller and John Parker. Beautiful floral tributes from the family and others were given. Relatives and friends from a distance were: Mrs. Spence and son, Reuben, Mrs. Thos. Clayton and Mrs. Bert Field, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. John Boyd and Mr. and Mrs. Blair, Owen Sound; Mr. Jas. Wren and Mr. and Mrs. Williamson, Palmerston; Mr. and Mrs. Robert McKenzie, Mt. Forest, and Mr. and Mrs. Liversage, Cedarville.

The sick—Mr. Herb. Badgerow and Mrs. W. R. Simmons, neighbors on the 4th line, have been very ill, the former with typhoid fever and the latter with liver complications. Mrs. Wes. Plantt, affected with heart trouble, is gaining strength slowly. Mr. Thos. Henry, who has been very ill is improving slowly. Mr. Percal Hemphill, assistant agent at Flesherton station, who underwent an operation for appendicitis in Toronto last week, is reported to relatives here doing well. Mr. Isaac Sinclair, an aged invalid here, had the misfortune to fall from his bed on Sunday morning and sustain a nasty cut in the forehead which Dr. Bibby dressed.

The opening meeting last week of the Presbyterian Guild after the summer holiday took the form of a reception for the staff and students of the High School. Kimberley

(Special to The Standard)

What do you know about your vote for October 23rd? Are you on the list? If not, Why not? If you are going to vote for the booze, stay off. We want a good clean Ontario. Booze won't make it clean, but votes and water will.

We feel a long felt want will be met when the "Grey Swan Transportation Co., begin their operations carrying freight and farm produce by trucks from points between Owen Sound and Toronto. Starting at Owen Sound via. Meaford, Thornbury, Clarksburg, Heathcote, Kimberley, Eugenia, Singhampton and Allliston. Owen Sound Sun-Times, September 4th, Meaford News, is responsible for this report and it is just what the Valley needed, having no railroad.

The W. M. S. held their monthly meeting at the cosy home of Mrs. R. Clugston on Wednesday, August 27th. Mrs. E. Clugston had charge of the meeting in the absence of the president, Mrs. (Rev.) Kennedy, who was away on her holidays. It opened by singing the hymn, "What a friend we have in Jesus". The Scripture was then read. Miss Leona Boyd then rendered a solo. Mrs. Sheldon Boyd led in prayer and Mrs. Fred McCullough read the topic of the meeting which was very interesting. Miss Ptomely, a returned Missionary, gave a very interesting talk on prohibition, advising us which way to vote to protect our boys and girls. The roll was then called. There were thirty ladies present. The offering was taken up and a hymn was sung. The meeting closed with prayer. After the close of the meeting a bale was packed. The hostess served a dainty lunch, assisted by her daughter, Pearl, which was enjoyed by all. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ed Clugston.

THE Welcome Sign

"NOBODY asked you, sir," said the coy maiden. And in matters of buying, as well as in affairs of the heart, most people like to be "asked." Often, indeed, they INSIST on a proper invitation.

He is a wise merchant who keeps the welcome sign constantly before the community in the form of ADVERTISEMENTS in the home paper. There everybody sees it—for ADVERTISING is "the light of directed attention."

Speak up. Light up. Hundreds of good customers are listening for your message and watching for your welcome sign in "THE MARKDALE STANDARD."
