EDITORIAL

With the coming of the New Year The Standard extends the wish for prosperity, health and contentment for all its patrons and contributors during the months of 1925.

This week issue of The Standard brings in a New Year with all its new opportunities and responsibilities. Most of us are in a position to profit by the experiences of the past few months, and most of us no doubt make an effort to do so. Starting in a new year is no different from starting in a new week unless we impress ourselves with the fact, and more than that we profit by the past. We guess we all make no notice of the passing of the years.

The Village Council for 1925 has been elected by acclamation and five men have accepted the responsibilities of managing the affairs of the municipality for twelve months. It is easy taking and why they should be expected to make good offers for the position on every side, which is not the case in municipalities where there is a contest. There is no man on the Village Council Board who is not desirous of the town and each of them will be glad to have the co-operation of all in the advancement of the town generally. Let's get into the habit of boosting for Markdale. The members of the Council are supposed to put into effect the desires and ambitions as a municipality of the taxpayers generally and if we keep those desires and ambitions to ourselves how can we expect our representatives to represent us.

FLESHERTON

(Special to The Standard.)

The funeral of the late Mr. Ernest Russell, whose death we reported last week, took place to Flesherton cemetery on Wednesday afternoon, December 24th, and was largely attended. Service was held at the home near Rock Mills, conducted by Rev. Mr. Pogson, Anglican Rector, Dundalk, assisted by Rev. Mr. Preston of this place. The pallbearers were Arthur Chard, Chas. Wilkinson, Edgar Betts, Edward Linton, Chas. Stafford and Wesley Smith. Beautiful floral wreaths were given by the wife, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wilkinson, and family, and the deceased's brothers and sisters, all of whom attended the funeral.

The Methodist Mission Band was entertained one day last week at the home of the Superintendent, Mrs. (Dr.) Murray. The little folk had an enjoyable time decorating a Christmas tree with missionary offerings of over $7.00 to help spread the Gospel in heathen lands.

A number of young people here formed a sleighing party and spent Christmas Eve gaily at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Warling of Vandeleur. The young couple were married recently and the bride was formerly Miss Edna Stewart, Flesherton.

Mrs. G. Mitchell's class of girls in the Methodist Sunday School presented her a few days ago with a beautiful sandwich plate as a token of their love and esteem.

Mr. J. C. Griffiths of Owen Sound, the only surviving Charter member of Prince Arthur Lodge A.F. & A.M. here, has still a warm spot in his heart for his old lodge as shown by a nice Christmas remembrance to the lodge and token of good-will expressed in a generous cheque sent to the secretary last week. Mr. Griffiths was a highly respected resident of Flesherton over forty years ago when he and his brother-in-law, the late Solomon Damude, conducted an extensive business here. We congratulate him upon his long active life and wish him many more years to come.

Reeve McKenzie presided over a fair sized audience in the town hall on Tuesday of last week to hear Mr. Squire, Provincial Deputy Minister of Highways, speak on the abolition of statute labor. His lucid address on the new system of keeping up country roads was listened to with deep interest and any questions afterwards asked were courteously answered. The speaker said that a large proportion of the townships of the Province have already abolished statute labor and had found a marked improvement for the money spent. He made it clear that a township may adopt the old system, but if so, no government grant would be given. The Presbyterian Sunday School concert in aid of the Mission on Christmas Eve was a fine success. Santa Claus was there in his usual form and distributed the gifts from a Christmas tree and the young folk had a merry time without the use of forfeits. The severe cold and stormy weather kept many away, so the audience was much smaller than usual on the occasion. The Rev. A. E. Harrower, presided and conducted a varied program consisting in part of exercises and recitations by the little tots who are always cute and pleasing. Dialogues were given by some of the intermediate scholars and a playlet entitled "Uncle Joe's Will" was given by some of the seniors. A song in Gaelic by Masters Leverne and Milfred Pipp was very pleasing and received a hearty encore. Miss Marion Stuart gave a recitation in a very effective manner. A solo by Mrs. McCallum was very sweetly rendered and choruses by the school were well and brightly sung. A very pleasing feature was a visit from Santa Claus and the distribution of gifts from the Christmas tree to each scholar in the school. The program closed with the National Anthem.

A death very sad is that of the beloved wife of Mr. Thomas J. Sled, who died at her late home near this village early on Sunday morning, December 28th, after a protracted illness during which all that could be done for her locally and in the hospital was done to save her life. She bore her affliction with patience and resignation. The deceased, who was born on the farm on which she died, was a little over 49 years of age. She was the younger daughter, Annie, of the late Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Dinwoodie and was brought up here a bright and popular girl. She was married to Mr. Sled at Collingwood twenty-five years ago and lived for a few years in that vicinity before coming to the Dinwoodie homestead. She was highly esteemed in this community and in the Methodist Church where she was a member. The funeral will take place on Tuesday and service will be held in the Church. Mrs. Sled is survived by her sorrowing husband and three boys, Melvin, George and Burton. One son died in 1908. One brother Fred and a sister, Mrs. Albert Beecroft, in British Columbia survive the deceased. Deep sympathy is felt for the bereaved family in their loss.

Walter McMaster, a young man of about sixteen who lives on the Third Line, had an unpleasant experience himself and narrow escape from losing a team of horses on Friday night last. Driving home from here an attempt was made to cross the little lake on the Fourth Line, but the ice was not strong enough and the team broke through leaving the sleigh on the ice. After a heroic effort the horses were released from the sleigh and rescued from their perilous position and taken to a neighbor's where all were cared for till morning.

Sunday was anniversary day in the Methodist Sunday School. The morning service was devoted to the children who took the place of the choir and the pastor's address was appropriate to the occasion. At the evening service a splendid male quartette was given by Dr. Murray, Mr. Cross and visitors here, Mr. Bryan and Mr. Clipperton.

The skating rink was opened last week with good ice and many enjoyed skating on Christmas day.

Mr. George Brackenbury, whom we reported last week severely burned with gasoline, is making good recovery.

Mr. Clarke McMillan, son of Mr. John McMillan near Ceylon, was seized with appendicitis last week and was taken to Owen Sound Hospital where an operation was performed. Drs. Turnbull and Carr accompanied the patient who was in a very critical condition, but is reported holding his own.

Mrs. Albert Stewart is at Feversham visiting her father, Mr. Ira Perigo, who is very ill.

Mr. C. N. Richardson visited his mother and sister in Toronto over Sunday. He was accompanied to the city by Mrs. Richardson on her way to visit her mother and sister, Mrs. Green, at Detroit.

Misses Rene and Louise Cargoe have gone to Detroit to take office positions.

Mrs. W. A. Armstrong has returned from visiting her daughter at Weston, who was ill, but who has recovered.

Mr. Fred Matheson has returned from visiting his daughter, Mrs. Wiley at Owen Sound. His daughter, Miss Freda, nurse in training, visited at home on Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. George McCann of Toronto was a visitor with his sister, Mrs. Harrower, at the manse over Christmas, and Miss Brown of Toronto, who was also a visitor, remained to visit this week.

Mrs. Geo. Cairns and children of Glenella, Man., are on a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Crossley.

Mr. Thos. Hill's sale on Dec. 17 was quite successful, prices ruling high.

The Cherry Grove people have always enjoyed the reputation of putting on a good entertainment and the Sunday School Christmas concert on December 12th was no exception to the rule. The ample accomodation for horses and vehicles provided by the new community shed, which was used for the first time on this occasion, was doubtless the means of drawing the unusually large crowd which attended. Our up-to-date school also provided accomodation for a much larger number of people than did the former building. The people had the pleasure of listening to a splendid program ably presided over by Rev. Mr. Bowes of Markdale. The various numbers on the programme were as follows: Recitations by Mrs. E. Deirnes, Miss Vera Myers, Margaret Harvey, Eliza Wyvill, Viola Wyvill, Mary Murray, Elsie Murray, Olessa Burnett, Elva Smart, Vera Smart, Jean McNally, Herl Hill, Jack Bradley and Dave Wyvill. Four dialogues were given: "Painting the Chair", "Uncle Joe's Will", "Mother Goose" and "The Ruggles". The chairman's address was nicely spoken by little Miss Sadie Harvey. The musical numbers consisted of two choruses by the school, several minstrel selections, duets by Winnie Harvey and Mina Dickie, Jane Dickie and Elva Smart. A boys' chorus "Morning on the Farm". A pretty Flower Drill was given by 10 girls in rose colored costumes. A fitting climax to the drill was the singing of "A basket of old fashioned roses". Several numbers were given by the seven piece orchestra, the members of which were Messrs Joe Boyd, H. Cherry, Dick Irving and P. A. Rutt with violins, Mr. Bussey, drum, C. Williams, autoharp, Mitchell Harvey, harmonica, accompanist, Mrs. Dickie. Other accompanists of the evening were Miss O. Lawson for the school chorus and duets; Margaret Harvey for the boys' chorus and Alice Smart for the little girls' duet. Those who directed the program were Mrs. W. C. Myers, Mrs. Wm. Laughlan, Mrs. W. A. Dickie, Miss Olga Lawson and Mrs. Wm. Smart. Mrs. Hm. Hodgson and Mrs. Geo. Wyvill were a committee to make the containers for the Christmas treats. Every number on the program gave evidence of careful preparation and reflects much credit on all concerned. Santa Claus was as jolly as ever as he handed the bags of candy and the many other gifts from the prettily decorated tree. The audience also received a treat of home-made candy. Proceeds $27.75.

Miss Olga Lawson is visiting with Meaford friends.

A number from this community and Rosedale attended the excellent concert given in Rosedale school by Miss Margaret McQueen and her pupils. The programme consisted of five dialogues, very humorous and all showing careful training. Three choruses by the school, recitations, solo by Mr. Wales, duet by Mrs. Dickie and Miss Lawson; two very fine drills, one by the girls and the other a "Handkerchief drill" by the young men provoked much mirth from the spectators. Messrs Rutt and Williamson provided excellent violin music. Santa Claus in the person of Mr. George Fitzsimmons appeared and distributed the presents to the satisfaction of all. Mr. Earl Kirkpatrick ably auctioned off the boxes which were real works of art. The proceeds of this entertainment were $23.45. Much credit is due Miss McQueen for the able way in which this concert was presented, showing her to be a capable entertainer as well as a most successful teacher.

Mr. Percy Lawson had the misfortune to seriously cut his foot while chopping wood. He is home at present.

The S.S. concert was held in the Harkaway Church on Dec. 16. The church was well filled. The concert consisted of a "Camp Fire Scene", a novel presentation by the S.S. scholars consisting of choruses, recitations and minstrel songs, the stage being fixed up to represent a real camping scene. Mr. Artie Murdoch made an able chairman for this. Then Rev. Mr. Bushell took charge of the remainder of the concert. Three drills were given, one by the primary pupils of the Sunday School under the direction of Miss M. Johnston; the "Star Drill" by the pupils of Miss Moore's school was an especially pleasing number, showing careful training and real ability; the "Scarf Drill" by 12 young ladies was very well executed, the white dresses of the young ladies and the colored scarfs and the different exercises made a very pleasing spectacle. There were recitations and solos by Misses Ina Thompson, Dorothy Halbert and Harold Thompson. Santa Claus in the person of Mr. C. Rodman created a great deal of mirth and very ably distributed the gifts from the well-laden tree. A pleasing part of the program was the presentation of a goose to Rev. A. Bushell by the Ladies' Aid and a beautiful hymn book to Mrs. Bert Rush in recognition of her faithful services as president of the W.M.S. Much credit is due Misses Johnston, Couper and Moore in getting up such a splendid entertainment. The S.S. is well attended and very prosperous. Much credit is due Mr. T. H. Richardson, who has been superintendent and Bible Class teacher for many years now.

Traverston

(Special to The Standard)

Rarely has the holiday week for Christmas and New Year's been so stormy and roads so blocked. It is almost impossible to get the latter open before another storm is on.

However, despite the ugly weather, there have been many happy family re-unions and family feastings.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Cook and family had Christmas fare with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McFadden at Orange Valley; the Edwards home had T. Ivan and wife and student W. H. from Toronto, Spencer and Keith from Detroit, the latter remaining until Saturday of this week; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Beaton and Miss Blanche and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Turneaux at Mr. Geo. E. Peart's; Mrs. Ben. Mays and Misses Sadie and Isabel from Guelph and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Holmes and family from Durham at Mr. Wm. Firth's; Miss E. J. Allan of No. 5 is holidaying at her home in Chesley; Mrs. John O. Greenwood and family spent Christmas at Mr. A. Beaton's.

Mr. T. E. Blair has purchased a new sawing outfit with four horse gasolene power, with both drag and buzz saw attached. It will cut down the trees, saw 'em up and eat the browse.

Rob. Timmins is barely holding his own of late. Miss Mamie Haley is growing stronger daily.

Old Zion was at her best on Tuesday night of last week at the Christmas tree concert. The church was filled and the aisles, too, with a happy crowd. It was beautifully decorated and the two shapely evergreens were all aglister. The program from start to finish was full of life and pep. 'Twas, largely, "Children's night" and bright recitations were given by the following:—Catherin Timmins, Charlie Timmins, Elva Hastie, Mary McNab, Ewen McNab, Isabel Mays, Isbel Kleist, Ada Banks, Violet Banks, Clara Jack, Iola Noble, Viola Neely, Mary Anderson and Geordie Blair. Besides these sang two songs and had a very pretty "Candle" drill and a most amusing "Stocking" drill. The young people gave two choruses and three well-acted dialogues, adding to their past reputation for good dramatic ability. The Pantomime, entitled "Silent Night, Holy Night", by five maidens robed in white was a splendid number and the "Christmas Star" drill by nine fair ones was a number that will not soon be forgotten. Solos were given by Mrs. John O. Greenwood, Misses Armonel Glencross, Fredrica Staples and Violet Fallaise, the latter having a magnificent voice and fine culture. Violin selections by Messrs Arthur McNally and Jim Peart, with Mrs. McNally as accompanist, were warmly encored and received special mention by the chairman, Rev. G. E. Peters, who most affably handled the program. Santa Claus was a big burly fellow but generous with his gifts some of which were most unique and appropriate. Proceeds of the evening were about $40. A good deal of the success of the evening was due to the teacher, Miss E. J. Allan, and Miss Myrtle McClocklin, accompanist for most of the songs and choruses.

Dr. Thos. McRae of Dundas spent the festive season at the old home on the 5th con.

Messrs Frank and Philip Dunbar of Detroit are holidaying at the parental home on the 4th con.

The Christmas tree Tuesday night was a decided success in every way. The children did their parts well and showed the excellent training of Mrs. Carruthers. The drills and singing deserve special mention. Mr. Ellison helped also in the train-

"Nerves in Bad State Could Not Sleep"

Mrs. H. N. Tardell, Harrowsmith, Ont., writes:

"My nerves were in a very bad state and I did not know what it was to have a night's rest. I could not eat, and never felt well. I heard about Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and thought I would try it. After using for a few days I began to feel better, and soon was able to sleep well at night. My appetite returned, and I felt much better, and after using three boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food I was quite well. I have given the Nerve Food to my little girl, with good results."
