Frederick Sarjeant

By the death of Mr. Fred. Sarjeant on Saturday evening, October 13th, 1928, one of the best known and most highly esteemed residents of this community has gone to his reward. He had been in failing health for the past few years and last spring was seriously ill for several weeks. He improved however and was able to be about a little during the summer months but a few days ago he again became seriously ill and passed away as above stated.

The late Frederick Sarjeant was born on February 19th, 1849, at Sutton, England, and came to Canada in 1870. He settled first at Barrie where his parents and the rest members of the family came a year later. The deceased moved to Flesherton where in 1881 he was married to Miss Maria Burns, who survives. They came to Markdale shortly afterwards and Mr. Sarjeant conducted a butchering business until 1912 when he retired to a small farm just north of the village where he passed away. He was a man of strict integrity and was successful in business.

Besides his widow he is survived by two sons and two daughters, namely: C. A. Sarjeant of Scranton, Pa., and W. B. Flesher at Magnolia, Alberta; Walter, A. J. and Eben of Barrie; Samuel in Orillia; James in Toronto, and Charles at New Westminster, B. C.

The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon to Markdale Cemetery and was largely attended, most of the business places in town being closed. The services were conducted in Annesley Church by Rev. A. Newton St. John, pastor of the deceased. In his address he paid a fitting tribute to the deceased, who was a member of the church. After the church services the burial service of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows was conducted by the Grand [illegible] and A. E. Colgan. The pallbearers were [illegible] members of Lodge No. [illegible] and of Meaford Preceptory No. [illegible] R.B.K.
