TRAVERSTON

Phenomenal has been the growth during the past week in fall wheat, meadows and spring grains.

Mr. Dolphie Lawrence was in this neighborhood last week, shearing the nannies. There were few minutes between bleating "Baa" when caught and "Maa" when their woolly coats were clopped off. Ten an hour is his average.

Splendid was the success of Zion's 54th anniversary of the present church. The forenoon was fair and the church was full to overflow, to hear the Rev. W. Howey of Owen Sound, who taught in No. 3 school 23 years ago and was Bible class teacher in Zion Sunday School and most popular with young and old. The sermon was a most inspiring one and will linger long in memory. The local choir had several good selections and the duet by Mrs. T. Glencross and Mr. Carman Baker was specially sweet. The evening proved misty and damp, yet, the church was well filled at the evening service, when the gifted pastor, Rev. W. H. Smith's eloquence, logic and illustrations were matchless —"A Window, a basket, a rope", will not soon be forgotten. Knox United Church choir had charge of the song service in the evening and soul and heart and voice united to make stirring emotion and spiritual uplift. The number by the male quintette and the full choir's rendering of "Abide With Me", appealed to us as the finest numbers. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers of wondrous and varied bloom and added greatly to the service.

Rev. Mr. Howey was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McClocklin after service and spent a pleasant half hour at your scribe's home on his way back to Owen Sound.

Among the morning congregation were many from outside points, among whom we noticed Mr. and Mrs. John Cochrane of Toronto, who visited with Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Jack; Mr. and Mrs. E. Halliday and daughter from near Mount Forest, Mrs. Halliday is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Greer, who many years ago kept store in Traverston, and is a niece of the late Mr. Isaac Elder; Mr. and Mrs. Philip Harrison, Missy Eileen and Mrs. Jackson of Swinton Park; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Crutchley of Dornoch and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stewart and Miss Vera, the two last groups visiting Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McArthur; Mr. and Mrs. Will Campbell of Welbeck, entertained at McNichol's homestead; Mrs. J. Hudson, son Jim and daughter of near Hanover, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Janes of Toronto and Mrs. Robert Millburn of Durham, guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Peart; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beaton and family of Bunessan visited Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Peart; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McFadden and Miss Gladys of Orange Valley at the Cook homestead; Mrs. Wm. Dodds, Mrs. E. Atkinson, Alma, Eldon and Muriel of Berkeley, Mr. Sam Saunders of Walters Falls and Miss Blanche Gomm of Rob Roy, guests at the Edwards homestead. There were many out from Durham, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moffat and son and Mrs. Herb. Greenwood, guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Greenwood.

On Monday evening a big crowd gathered to hear the play, "Aunt Susan Shoots the Works". There were fourteen young people taking part and most of them had dramatic ability of high order and the crowd was kept in fits of laughter. Rev. W. H. Smith acted as chairman and local talent supplied music and song between the acts.

Mr. Tinianov of Durham is around these days gathering up the big bundles of wool.

"God Save The King".

Their Majesties, the King and Queen, are the special attraction this past week with their visit to Toronto. Large numbers from our Dominion and the United States participated in their Royal welcome to the city. The special train, with its sixteen coaches, chaperoned by Trainman Harry Bell, who is a first cousin of your scribe, Mr. G. W. Littlejohns, looked very showy in its colors as it came into North Toronto station. Next was the appearance of King George and Queen Elizabeth on the station platform in their beauty and pleasing attire. As they travelled about the city to the most prominent places, escorted by Officials, Mounties and a Guard of Honour, it was the most magnificent sight that was ever witnessed in Canada. Our King is very pleasing and capable looking, of the high honour that we hold him and long may the reign. His noble wife, Queen Elizabeth, has all the high qualities that she could be endowed with. In conclusion we might say it was a rare treat to those who saw them and an extreme regret to the ones who were unable to attend.
