MARKDALE NATIVE GETS HIGH POST

Markdale residents will be interested in news of the appointment of George L. Macpherson as general manager of refineries for Imperial Oil Ltd. Mr. Macpherson is a native of Markdale, having been born in this village while his father was a bank manager. He grew up and attended school here, and served in the Air Force in the first Great War. Completing his university course, after the war ended, he entered the employ of Imperial Oil Ltd. in 1923.

CANADIAN PLOWMEN ABROAD

by ELLIOT MOSES ★ Director
ONTARIO PLOWMEN'S ASSOCIATION

This is the third year that Canadian plowmen have been awarded a trip to the British Isles to take part in plowing matches and study British methods of agriculture. It is also the third year that Canadian Plowmen Abroad has been published. It is hoped it can do as well as my predecessors, Clark Young and W. L. Clarke in recounting observations of conditions abroad.

The expenses of our trip are being paid jointly by Imperial Oil Limited and the Salada Tea Company Ltd. Imperial Oil sponsors the Esso tractor class at the International Plowing Match and Salada Tea, the Trans-Atlantic Class for horse drawn jointer plows. This year's winners in the Esso tractor class were Rhys Bacher of Hagersville and Robert Timbers of Stouffville. Alvin Mark of Cameron and Wilbert McFaddin of Millbank were the successful contestants in Salada's Trans-Atlantic class.

Last fall when the champion plowmen won their trip to Britain at the International Plowing Match at Linden, I was asked if I would be willing to accompany them as team-manager, we wondered what it would be like to visit "far away places" and meet so many new people. Now that we are actually on our way we seem to be taking everything in our stride. As I write this letter, we are in the heart of Manhattan—five Canadian farmers seeing New York for the first time. New York is a wonderful city but I'll tell you more about it later.

The Canadian Team

We have been looking forward to meeting the 1948 "champs" to Britain. They are a grand lot and a fine example of Canadian farmers. For that reason I would like to tell you some thing about each one in turn.

This year's team is a youthful group—the average being 26. That's exclading myself, of course, because I must confess that I would bring the average up considerably. Two of the lads are under thirty and the other two are in their early thirties.

Alvin Mark of Cameron is the Salada gold medalist. He is 33 and married. In the excitement of winning a trip overseas, Alvin apparently forgot to mention that he had a family and the first newspaper reports said he was single. His wife is the former Alberta Blatchford and they have four children, Keith, Anne, Faye and Sharon. Alvin entered his first plowing match in 1929 and his first "international" in 1931. He owns a 125-acre farm and has won the "Salada Special" every year in his county since it was first introduced. An active sportsman, he plays baseball, hockey and is interested in horse showing. He is also a member of the Young Adults Club of Cameron United Church.

Alvin Mark

One of the first statements Rhys Bacher made when he learned he had won the Esso Tractor class gold medal was: "There's a man over there who owns one $117,. now maybe I'll be able to collect." Rhys was born in Fisherville, Ontario on October 13, 1920 and has been a farmer all his life. He is married to the former Jean Gloyd of Selkirk. For several years Rhys was a member of the inter-county teams and had two second prizes and one first to his credit before winning the trip to Britain at last year's international match.

Rhys Bacher

Wilbert Russel McFaddin, winner of the silver medal in the Trans - Atlantic class for horse-drawn jointer plows sponsored by Salada Tea Company, is a younger brother of Glen McFaddin, last year's Esso gold medalist. He was born in Millbank, Ontario, on December 26, 1914 and helps Glen run their 250-acre farm. Wilbert has competed in both tractor and horse plowing competitions and has won a number of trophies including three gold watches. He is 34, single, and a member of Millbank United Church. In addition to his plowing ability, Wilbert has the heartiest appetite of the group. We have decided that if he will plow with the same determination as he eats he will be a sure winner at the British matches.

Wilbert McFaddin

The Esso tractor silver medalist, Bob Timbers, also comes from a well-known plowing family. His father, Wilfred Timbers, won a number of prizes at plowing matches and his uncle, Fred Timbers, was one of the 1946 Esso Champions. The 1948 plowing match was Bob's fourth international and at other competitions he carried away several first and second prizes. He was born in Stouffville on November 10, 1926 and is the youngest of the 1948 champion plowmen. He owns an 100-acre mixed farm. His wife is the former Leatrice Nicholson and their baby daughter Karen is nearly one year old.

Robert Timbers

I have been told that it is customary for the team-manager to say some thing about himself so here are a few facts. I am a director of the Ontario Plowmen's Association and was born at Ohsweken, on the Six Nations Reserve near Brantford, 60 years ago. While my tribe, the Delaware, is not part of the Six Nations Indians, we are affiliated. The Six Nations reserve is the largest (in population) in Canada and claims such famous people as Joseph Brant, Pauline Johnston and Tom Longboat.

I received my early education at the Six Nations Day Schools and later went to the Ontario Agricultural College at Guelph. Apart from a short career with the Canadian Army during World War I, I have been a farmer all my life. My wife is the former Ethel Styres and we have seven children. Like the others, I have been looking forward to this trip. But there are two special reasons why it means a great deal to me. My maternal grandmother was born in Ireland and even more important, I am hoping to visit at least one of the fields in France, where the Canadians are buried. So many of our boys from this reserve were killed during the last war and I know it would make their families happy if I could do this.

Now that you know something about us, let me tell you about our trip until we boarded the Queen. We just had one day in Toronto but as in previous years it was a busy one. We had to get our visas, travellers' cheques, and see that our luggage was "in order." In addition to all this, there were the radio broadcasts and press interviews. We had dinner at the King Edward Hotel as guests of our sponsors, the Salada Tea Company and Imperial Oil and then left by train for New York.

En Route To New York

While we were reviewing the day's events before retiring to our berths, I was surprised to learn that train travel was a relatively novel experience for most of the boys. They had all travelled many miles by means of their own cars, of course, but not by train. Rhys Bacher was enjoying his first train ride at the age of 26. Alvin Mark had his last train ride when he was eight years old, 26 years ago. Wilbert McFaddin was the most frequent passenger on trains but Bob Timbers only had one train ride before this trip.

This shows how much the motor car has altered the farmer's method of transportation. It would seem that farmers make little use of train transportation for themselves and their families. On the other hand, our farm produce is transported by rail to all parts of the country and to all parts of the globe where we sell it. We provide the railways with one of their main sources of revenue.

On reaching New York we were met by a group of men from the Esso Company who exerted every effort to make our stay in this great city interesting and profitable. I am not going to describe the places we visited because we saw many of the same sites that were discussed in last year's news letters. Instead, I am going to mention some of our impressions of this amazing city and its inhabitants.

We are all most favourably impressed with our American friends, for they are in a class by themselves when it comes to hospitality. They have such a free and natural way that one cannot help but feel at home. We had to leave this city for another matter. It both terrified and amazed us when we decided that it should ever motor to New York I shall park my car at least 50 miles from the centre and hire a taxi driver let someone else worry about traffic lanes. Another thing that seemed strange to us was the distance people travel back and forth to work. For example, our hosts of the Esso Company both live 50 miles from the centre of the city and commute daily.

One of our most pleasant memories of New York is dinner at the Waldorf Astoria. The hotel itself is magnificent and the dinner was superb. It was an added treat to have music with our meal and watch the people dancing. In New York age does seem to make any difference and young and old dance with equal enjoyment. Yoots Shore was another interesting spot we visited. It is quite a famous restaurant near Rockefeller Center just down the street from the new Esso Building.

After a memorable day in New York, we are preparing to board the new British liner, R. M. S. Caronia. In my next letter I'll tell you about this ship which is the largest liner we had to get off at the end of the voyage.

The boys and I are anxious to see and do as much as we can during our tour of the British Isles, not only for our own sake because we may not have this opportunity again, but also so other Canadians can share our experiences and come to understand the British farmers and the conditions under which they are working. We can say, as did Peter Fitzgerald, a member of the Northern Ireland team when he visited Canada last fall, that our visit is in the nature of a good-will mission and that we are doing our share in helping these visitors to other countries and, will in time provide the basis for understanding and friendship among the farmers of the world.

HANDS IN TRAINING . . . FOR ONTARIO

Learning to Make Plastics

IN Ontario the wheels of industry turn for the benefit of every single one of us. Our lathes, dynamos, drill presses, farm combines, tractors, business machines, etc. are producing goods and services which earn dollars. These dollars provide food, clothing, medical care and other necessities which contribute to our security and high standard of living. Every single one of us, therefore, has a very personal interest in the flow of a steady supply of trained workers to industrial plants. These workers will operate machines which are important to our way of life.

We should appreciate, then, the co-operative efforts of government, industry and labour in the field of employee training. In schools and in factories our workers, young and old, are given the opportunity to develop new and specific skills in every field of business and industrial activity. For instance, as in the pictures shown here, every effort of Ontario's newly-skilled plastics workers will mean better plastic products — will help to make Ontario a finer place in which to live and work.

THE BREWING INDUSTRY (ONTARIO)

Our Way of Life Rewards Trained Hands

Ontario workers know they can earn more, have executive responsibility and enjoy a higher standard of living in direct ratio to the skills they acquire and the way they make use of them. That's always true in a free economy — that's why our competitive system will continue to make Canada great and a great place in which to live.

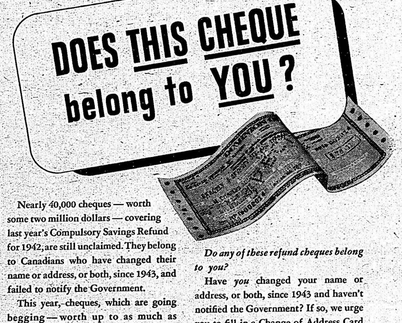
DOES THIS CHEQUE belong to YOU?



Nearly 40,000 cheques — worth some two million dollars — covering last year's Compulsory Savings Refund for 1942, are still unclaimed. They belong to Canadians who have changed their name or address, or both, since 1943, and failed to notify the Government.

This year, cheques, which are going begging — worth up to as much as $15,000,000 — should be going out this March to as many as 200,000 Canadians for the return of 1943 and 1944 Refundable Savings. But proper names or addresses are lacking.

Do any of these refund cheques belong to you?

Have you changed your name or address, or both, since 1943 and haven't notified the Government? If so, we urge you to fill in a Change of Address Card and mail it as soon as you possibly can. You'll find these cards at any Post Office.

WHEN YOU RECEIVE YOUR REFUND . . . why not put that money in a savings account at the B of M? It's there already saved — you won't miss it; you'll be glad of it in meeting emergencies or opportunities in the months ahead. Thousands of B of M customers have built up a tidy sum this easy way.

ROCKLYN W.I.

Mrs. Otto Foy was hostess for the January meeting of the Rocklyn W. I. when the attendance was rather small on account of the stormy day. The president, Mrs. C. Caswell, presided, and the hostess read part of the 8th chapter of St. Matthew as Scripture reading. The roll call was answered with a New Year's resolution. One member said that in making a resolution, you didn't fool anyone but yourself. The minutes of the last meeting were approved, and several items of correspondence were read. It was decided to purchase the new book sent out by the Department "Fifty Years of Achievement." It was also decided to send-away the District and Federated fees.

Mesdames E. Hodgkinson, W. Burrell, D. Patterson and L. Sewell were named as convenors to form groups, each group to make a crib quilt to be quilted at the next meeting. These quilts will be sent to the Grey Home for children. Mrs. Emerson Cook's demonstration of the motto "If you can't do great things, do the small things in a big way" was especially good. Mrs. A. McVittie who was in charge of the program "Sing, say or pay" called on each member present for a song; this was both interesting and amusing and concluded a very enjoyable afternoon.

The National Anthem was sung, after which Mrs. Foy and daughter, Alice, served a dainty luncheon. The February meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. S. Falls on Wednesday, the 16th.

FOTO-NITE AT DELL THEATRE PROVES POPULAR FEATURE

On Wednesday, February 3rd, at the Foto-Nite presentation at the Dell Theatre, the name of Mr. Elmer Lake was called, and as he was present at the Theatre, he accepted the $150.00 Prize. On producing a photograph of himself 8x10 inches he will receive $150.00 for it.

Foto-Nite is a new weekly feature at the Dell Theatre. Every Wednesday, through the co-operation of the audience and a special stage contest, a name is selected, and if the person whose name is called responds, he is offered a large cash amount for his or her photograph.

It is not necessary, however, to produce a photograph until one week after the name has been selected. It was explained from the stage last week that all a person has to do, is register his or her name and be at the Theatre on Foto-Nite or Attendance night, Tuesday of each week. Anyone who has not registered may do so in the lobby of the Theatre.

In view of the fact that Mr. Elmer Lake accepted the $150.00 offer the Foto-Nite offer will again start at $50.00.

LAURISTON FARM FORUM

Lauriston Farm Forum met at S.S. No. 6 Glenelg, with fifteen present to discuss the topic "Food in Sales Clothing". The solutions found to be important are as follows: (a) Advertising is a benefit to the producer. (b) Advertising is the consumer's benefit, providing quality goods are advertised.

The farmer should be responsible for making his own goods presentable for the consumer. The next meeting, Monday, February 14th, will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wes. Aitkens.

WALTER'S FALLS

Mrs. Hallman and John spent a week recently in Kitchener.

Mr. Hazard spent the last week of January with his wife here, but she is see he has not completely recovered from his knee accident which occurred in the early fall.

The progressive card social, sponsored by the W.I., which was held on January 28th was quite enjoyable. Several new tables were in use, the gift of the W.I.

The Anglican Ladies' Guild held their February meeting at the home of Mrs. H. Mower on February 2nd, with an attendance of nine members. Mrs. E. Quinton was in the chair and the meeting was opened with hymn 90 and prayer. Mrs. W. I. Seabrook read the Scripture. A price was set on the pretty quilt on hand. Some discussion took place as proposed future work. A program committee was appointed. Mrs. Young was in charge of the program, and several seasonal readings were read by various ladies. The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. E. Quinton. After closing prayer by Mrs. M. Quinton, lunch was served.

MRS. JOHN A. McGIRR

Durham and district residents were shocked to learn of the sudden death on Sunday afternoon, January 30, of Mrs. John McGirr, formerly Sadie Senath Noble. She was in her usual health and attended the annual meeting of the Durham Agricultural Society, of which she was a director. After the meeting she placed her shopping parcels in the car and suddenly dropped on the street, which was caused by a cerebral hemorrhage. She was taken immediately to Durham Hospital where she sank into unconsciousness from which she failed to rally.

She was the eldest daughter of Mrs. Noble and the late George Noble and was born in Bentinck Township on May 7, 1889. She received her education in Hutton Hill School. Thirty-eight years ago last November she married John McGirr and their home has been on the second concession of Glenelg in No. 9 section. She took an active part in all community interests and was president of South Glenelg branch of the Women's Institute for a term, and previous to the organization of the Glenelg branch was a member of Durham Women's Institute. Mrs. McGirr also took an active part in the Farm Forums. She was a member of Knox United Church and of the Women's Association.

She is survived by her husband and one son, Allie, two grandchildren, a nephew who made his home with them since childhood, her aged mother, Mrs. Geo. Noble, who has lived with her daughter for several months, one sister and six brothers.

WODEHOUSE

The sympathy of the community is extended to the Breadner family in the loss of a husband and father, who passed away in Hamilton on Saturday, February 5th.

Miss Joyce Wiley of Collingwood is spending a few days at her parental home here.

Mr. Ted Fawcett of Hamilton spent the week-end with his family here.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Willcock and children and Mrs. Ed. Willcock visited with Mrs. Mary Hicks and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas McArthur at Collingwood on Sunday.

Miss Eva Harris of Saskatoon is visiting at present with Mrs. S. Wiley, Sr., and Miss Nettie.

Mr. Ross Gordon of Temple Hill visited recently at the Willcock home.

BRIDE AND GROOM HONOURED BY FORMER NEIGHBORS

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Kirk of Mount Forest were honoured last Wednesday evening by a group of the groom's former neighbors around Holford. The young couple was presented with a telephone table and a pair of blankets along with the very best wishes of all present. Dancing and refreshments were enjoyed. The bride was the former Rose Bondi of Mount Forest.

Flesherton will celebrate the 12th of July this year.

MISS JEAN MacDUFF BURIED
(Dundalk Herald)

Following a lengthy illness from a form of paralysis, Miss Jean MacDuff, a former resident of Dundalk, Riverview and Brooklin, died in hospital Tuesday, February 1st, at Kingston, Ontario. For two years she had been tenderly cared for by her sister, Mildred (Mrs. Gordon Ego) at her home at Kingston and for the past two years she had been a patient in hospital.

Jean, who was born February 17, 1896, at Markdale, came to Dundalk at the age of one month with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. R. MacDuff. She attended Dundalk schools, took an active interest in St. James' Anglican Church and was popular with young and old. She possessed a particularly keen sense of humour and her jolly laugh was as refreshing as a ray of sunshine.

When the MacDuff family, more than thirty years ago moved to Riverview, where they conducted a general store, Jean accompanied them. She was an obliging clerk in the store and performed similar duties when the family moved in the fall of 1922 to Brooklin, after again residing in Dundalk for a time. About four years ago Jean was forced to give up her activities. Her last visit here was in 1944, when she and her sister, Mrs. Lenore Waddell, went on a trip up the Lake.

Surviving are two brothers and one sister, namely: Jack of Brooklin, Ont.; Thornton of Toronto, and Mrs. Gordon Ego (Mildred) of Kingston. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. MacDuff, predeceased her. To those bereft the sympathy of numerous local friends goes out.

The funeral took place on Friday, with services held in Oliver's Funeral Home, at 2:30, in charge of Canon R. S. Jones of Markdale, thence to the Brooklin United Cemetery, Toronto. Interment will be made later in the family plot.

MRS. E. QUINTON PASSES ON SUNDAY

The death of Mrs. Thomas Quinton, occurred in a London, Ontario Hospital, where she had been a patient for the past four or five months. The late Mrs. Quinton, who was in her 76th year, had been in failing health for the past two years.

Deceased, whose maiden name was Sophia Margaret Lyons, was born at Harkaway on January 4, 1873, a daughter of the late James and Catherine Neely Lyons. She was married in marriage on April 3, 1907, to Thomas Quinton, who predeceased her six ten years ago. She resided at Walters Falls, Temple Hill, Bayview and Markdale, in the Markdale district. Surviving to mourn her passing the late Mrs. Quinton leaves a son, Wesley, of Grimsby, a daughter, Carrie, Mrs. Harvey Keeling of Woodford, and three grandchildren, a daughter, Helen, predeceased her. There also survives three brothers, Geo. Lyons of Seaforth, Wesley of Markdale and Robert of Vandeleur. Two other brothers, James of Markdale and William of Collingwood, and a sister, Mrs. Richard McKennitt of Owen Sound, predeceased her.

Following a lengthy illness from a form of paralysis, Miss Jean MacDuff, a former resident of Dundalk, Riverview and Brooklin, died in hospital Tuesday, February 1st, at Kingston, Ontario. For two years she had been tenderly cared for by her sister, Mildred (Mrs. Gordon Ego) at her home at Kingston and for the past two years she had been a patient in hospital.

Jean, who was born February 17, 1896, at Markdale, came to Dundalk at the age of one month with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. R. MacDuff. She attended Dundalk schools, took an active interest in St. James' Anglican Church and was popular with young and old. She possessed a particularly keen sense of humour and her jolly laugh was as refreshing as a ray of sunshine.

When the MacDuff family, more than thirty years ago moved to Riverview, where they conducted a general store, Jean accompanied them. She was an obliging clerk in the store and performed similar duties when the family moved in the fall of 1922 to Brooklin, after again residing in Dundalk for a time. About four years ago Jean was forced to give up her activities. Her last visit here was in 1944, when she and her sister, Mrs. Lenore Waddell, went on a trip up the Lake.

Surviving are two brothers and one sister, namely: Jack of Brooklin, Ont.; Thornton of Toronto, and Mrs. Gordon Ego (Mildred) of Kingston. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. MacDuff, predeceased her. To those bereft the sympathy of numerous local friends goes out.

The funeral took place on Friday, with services held in Oliver's Funeral Home, at 2:30, in charge of Canon R. S. Jones of Markdale, thence to the Brooklin United Cemetery, Toronto. Interment will be made later in the family plot.
