Dance masters

Members of the McGinley Academy of Irish Dance have been training for the upcoming world championships to be held in London, England April 17-20. Several of McGinley's pupils have qualified for the worlds thanks to their performances at the recent Oireachtas Canada championships in Montreal, in which they finished in the top 10 percentile of competitors across the country. Pictured above (front, from left) are the McGinley's competitors who'll be going to London, with their result from the nationals in parentheses: Megan Orr (11th, under-11), Olivia Howlett (2nd, under-10), Beibhinn Parisi (8th, under-12), Hannah Furness (6th, under-10). Back row: Paige Cross (13th, under-11), Brianna Wilson (6th under-14), Sharon Ball (6th, under-18), Jenna Shepley (8th, under-15), Simone Faloona (3rd, under-15). The girls are coached by Roisin McGinley, Clair Faloona-McGinley and Lily Wilson.

Sunshine List shines on Town

By EAMONN MAHER
Staff Writer

The number of staff members from the Town of Halton Hills who made the 2013 "Sunshine List" of people who made more than $100,000 grew by five this past year.

Public Sector Salary Disclosure Act figures released by Ontario's Ministry of Finance showed that last year in this municipality, 34 employees, made up mostly of bureaucrats and fire services staff, landed
