And withered are the pale wild flowers;
The frost hangs blackening on the stalk,
The dewdrops fall in frozen showers."

—The FREE PRESS will be given to new subscribers from now till the 1st of January, 1880, for $1.15.

—This is a fruitful season for the tinsmiths. People who have kept their stoves in the cook-house all summer begin to think it is time to get them in the house proper.

—The poets are not confining themselves this season to odes on autumn, but the coming government is the subject which calls the attention of many of those of a poetic turn of mind.

—The pipe which Mrs. S. Speight advertised in last week's FREE PRESS, found an owner on Friday last—one day after the issue of the paper. This shows the value of the FREE PRESS as an advertising medium.

—The "Town Line Blazers" of Eramosa and surrounding townships, came to Acton on Tuesday afternoon to play a game of baseball. A nine was picked up around town, and the result was 37 to 10 in favor of the Blazers. The score and other interesting facts have to be left over. They will appear next week.

—There are five new buildings in the course of erection in this village at the present time, three of which are brick. We understand there are several more new houses in contemplation.

—Halton county is the only county in the Province of Ontario, where school teacher's residences are the property of the board of school trustees. There are two in the county, and Acton can boast of having one of them.

SPORTING NOTE. — Various reasons are assigned for the scarcity of partridges this season, one of them being that they are killed by the foxes, which have not been troubled much by the hunters lately, as their skins are worth but little, and so have multiplied rapidly. Sportsmen, who shoot most for fun, might get a good deal of sport if they would go for hunting.

CHANGE OF SEASON.—Now, as the change of season is coming on, and the cold nights are at hand, it is time for you to be thinking of your blankets, flannels, wineeys, new tweeds, dress goods, new mottled wincey, black and colored lustres, cottons, prints, canton flannels and knitted goods. The spot to get them in large variety and very cheap, is at McLeod, Anderson & Co.'s Mammoth House, Georgetown.

TURNING SCOTCH.—The Marquis of Lorne is coming to Canada soon, in order to assume his duties as Governor-General. The result is that there is a general desire on the part of a portion of the people to become as Scotch as possible, and Glengarry and other caps are beginning to show themselves. Hatters ought to be able to do a good trade in Scotch caps this fall.

—Grand opening day, Saturday, 21st Sept. Christie, Henderson & Co. of Acton will open their Millinery and Mantle Show Rooms on Saturday, 21st inst., with a most brilliant display of Bonnets, Hats, Flowers, Ribbons, Laces Fringes, Mantles, Mantle Trimming, &c. &c.. All extra value.

Our bills are second to none for style of get up, and are very cheap.

—A new post office has been opened in Erin township, to be known by the name of "Blakman." Wm. Wansborough, is the post-master.

—The FREE PRESS will be given to new subscribers from now till the 1st of January, 1880, for $1.15.

—A petition, signed by some of Guelph's influential citizens and largest ratepayers, has been forwarded to the Ontario Government, asking that body to suspend, or delay its sanction of the issue of the debentures for the water works in that town. One reason for this is the small majority with which this by-law was carried.

—Protection is all the rage at present; but we call upon the old men, the young men, the youths and the boys to come and protect themselves from the cold blasts of the coming winter by purchasing their clothing, overcoats flannels, undershirts and drawers, fur caps, gloves, gents' furnishings, &c., at the Mammoth House, Georgetown, where extraordinary inducements will be held out. Cash we want—bargains will be given. McLeod, Anderson & Co.

WEATHER SIGNS.—About these times the farmer takes a walk of a pleasant Sunday afternoon to get points on weather indications for the coming winter. If he finds the muskrat houses unusually thick and strong, the fish collecting in the deepest water, the squirrels thick in his sugar bush, and covered with an especially heavy coating of fur, he shrugs his shoulders and takes a look at the family woodpile. The season is sure to be a cold one. All these signs are reported to be strongly marked this year.

Entertainment at Dufferin School House.

A grand musical and literary entertainment was held in Dufferin school house, section 10, Esquesing, on the evening of Sept. 20th, before a large and appreciative audience. The evening entertainment opened with "Fair Canada" by the school children, accompanied on the organ by Miss Smith, their beloved teacher; the next piece on the programme was a reading by Miss Smith, which was well rendered and duly appreciated. A song "Take this Letter to my Mother," by J. P. Dunn, of Belleville, rendered in his usual happy style, was well received. A Dialogue "The Tea Party," by Misses Smith, Turner, Michie and Dunn was next in order; then a song "Dublin Bay" by Miss Smith, was heartily encored, and responded to with "When we were young together." A Recitation by Miss Smith, entitled "Vers de Societe," was appreciated as it deserved, as well as a song by Mr. D. Stewart, "The Cameron men," which was loudly encored, and responded to with "Gentle Annie." The next was a comedy in one Act, "The Enrolling Officer." This play is illustrative of drafting young men for the army, and the Enrolling Officer generally comes out second best, especially when he comes to draft the sons of old Mrs. Gridley, whose character was so ably portrayed by Miss Smith, as to fairly "bring down the house." The characters of two old maiden visitors of Mrs. Gridley's Miss Sikes and Miss Withers were ably taken by Misses Dunn and Hampshire respectively, and the Enrolling Officer by Mr. J. P. Dunn. A comic song, "Cruelty to animals" by Mr. Rymal, of Waterdown, was ably given. After this the great event of the evening was inaugerated, and the hungry look of the expectant "School Boy Gourmandizer" betokened that it was not a moment too soon. Refreshments in plenty, and sweet cider to wash them down, were brought forth and for the next half hour eating was the order of the evening. After all had been satisfied, and the fragments cleared away, the programme was resumed by a song, "Dreaming of Home and Mother," by Miss Smith, which was feelingly rendered and warmly applauded. The next, a song, "Pat Malloy," by J. P. Dunn, was well received. The next on the programme, a comedy in two Acts entitled "Taking a Photograph," was well played by Misses Smith and Brown and Messrs. J. Grant and J. P. Dunn, the character, Josh Beade, the country cousin, who had to sit for his photo, was played with great power by J. P. Dunn, and was enthusiastically applauded. The part of Photographer was well acted by John Grant. A song, "The Red, White and Blue" by Mr. Hampshire was loudly applauded. The best piece of the evening was a recitation, "Mary Queen of Scotts," by Miss Smith, who displayed in the reading of this piece a power of elocution which has rarely been equalled and never surpassed by anyone in this neighborhood. The next was a comic song by Mr. Rymal, which received an encore. A song by D. Stewart was favorably received, and followed by a burlesque, by Misses Smith and Brown, entitled "Old and New," Miss Smith as old and Miss Brown as new. Both acquitted themselves with distinction. A song, "The Bridge" by Miss Smith, a very difficult piece, was very ably given. Proceeds, $17, in aid of the Sunday School. A very pleasant evening was brought to a close by the entire company, assisted by the audience, singing the National Anthem.—Com.

COLDS.—Almost every other person has one, and they caught it without any trouble. And the colds of the present season are of a serious nature. An epidemic in that line seems to have struck this locality, and many victims feel as though life was a burden.

WORTH SEEING.—Christie, Henderson & Co's celebrated Grey Flannels at 25 cents. Their stock of Wincey this season is extra good and cheap. Grand display of Tweeds. Suits made to order at bottom prices. Try their famous 50 cent Tea. Christie, Henderson & Co. sell cheap.

MILLINERY.—Our millinery Show Room is stocked full of all the latest novelities in hats, bonnets, feathers, flowers, ribbons, silks, velvets, shawls, mantles, furs, &c. All the above goods are well selected and extraordinary cheap. The millinery is well got up, and finished with taste, in English and French patterns. Inspection is respectfully solicited. McLeod, Anderson & Co., Georgetown.

—On Friday last, Mrs. Swan presented us with a well-loaded branch of ripe black-berries, grown in her garden. They were from the second crop. The productions of the soil this year, in this vicinity, are very remarkable. Frequently a second crop of fruit has been shown us, off trees and bushes never before known to bear more than one crop.
