Woman facing charges after parcel swiped from mailbox

A Georgetown woman has been charged with theft under $5,000 after a parcel was taken from the mailbox at a home on Academy Street last week.

The victim was in the home just before 3 p.m. when a suspect was observed approaching the mail box and grabbing an item from it before quickly walking away.

Police were called to the residence, identified the suspect and made an arrest.

Charged is Crystal Webster, 26.

Halton attracting more doctors

Halton Region says its Physician Recruitment program had another successful year in 2013 as 22 family physicians each established their practice in the region.

Since Halton's recruitment initiative began in 2003, more than 200 new family doctors have come to Halton to practice.

"Attracting new physicians to establish medical practices in Halton is a key priority in the Citizens' Priorities Action Plan," said Regional Chair Gary Carr. "The successful Physician Recruitment program addresses both current and future physician needs. Thanks to this collaborative partnership involving all four local municipalities, local hospitals, clinics and community representatives, we are well on our way to meeting the goal of a family doctor for every Halton resident."

Carr said the program also recruits family physicians to cover maternity and other leaves and assists hospitals with their specialist recruiting for psychiatrists, pediatricians, emergency room physicians, and others.

He said the program continues to provide support to the Halton McMaster Family Health Centre in Burlington.

To see a list of newly recruited doctors who are accepting patients across Halton, visit www.halton.ca/newphysicians.
