COMPLIMENTS OF

THE FREE PRESS CARRIER BOY,

ACTON, ONTARIO.

JANUARY—1ST—1883

HIS ANNUAL ADDRESS.

"A merry Christmas and glad New Year,"
Is the Carrier's greeting to his patrons dear;
A sentiment uttered in every land,
And joyously welcomed on every hand.

This season of pleasure and right good cheer
Rolls merrily round just once a year,
Laden with blessings for every mind,
From the humblest serf to the noblest lord.

It brings to each home in our land once more
The absent ones from the far-off shore,
Uniting again in one family group
The dear "old folks" and the childish troop.

Then here's to Christmas and bright New Year:
All are in readiness to give them cheer
A cheer that will make the welkin ring
And banish dull care till they again come round.

For twelve months past—without any rest—
We've brought to your door the welcome FREE PRESS;
You've had your good things—'tis only fair
Now you've had yours, to give us a share.

"Perhaps you've heard the proverb true:
"Never the Satan lets than his due;"
Then don't think of hanging him less than a
[illegible]
When he gives you his usual New Year's rhyme;

May [illegible] months so near begun
[illegible] than the past has done;
May the New Year bring you all much joy,
[illegible] wish of the
