Santa Claus' Headquarters.

A glimpse of our store will be a veritable glimpse of Santa Claus' warehouse to you and every buyer of Xmas gifts. The jolly old Saint seems never to tire of the labor of inventing new things for the delight of his loyal friends, and this season he has seemed to outdo himself in the profusion and novelty of his wares. If you want to see to what extent ingenuity can go and how many pretty things lie within the reach of the smallest purse just drop in and take a look around our store. It will do you good.

MANY MINOR LOCALS

Collated by the Ever Thoughtful and Alert Free Press Reporters.

—Good sleighing a week ago, none now.

—Council meeting next Monday evening.

—Bread is down to ten cents per loaf here.

—The new manse will soon be completed.

—Some very springlike weather in the last ten days.

—Lots of things would be different if they were otherwise.

—The 10 Cent store, Guelph, invites a call from our readers.

—The man who is dead in love with himself usually has no rivals.

—An expected pleasure is like a wet boot. It's awful hard to put off.

—The frequent rains of the past week caused the sleighing to disappear.

—St. Alban's S. S. entertainment willl be held on Monday evening, 23rd inst.

—Mr. I. Francis is moving into his fine new residence on Willow street this week.

—The Disciples' Sunday School Anniversary will be held on Friday evening 27th December.

—In Siam a man can gamble away his wife; or rather he could if he could find anybody willing to take the bet.

—Mr. George Barclay, of Toronto, preached two very impressive discourses in the Disciples' church last Sunday.

—The annual show of the Milton Poultry and Pet Stock Society will be held at Milton from Dec. 30th to January 2nd.

—Jack Frost draws near, the skies are drear, on every hand throughout the land, is heard the roar of "shut that door!"

—Mr. Hugh Akins publishes in this issue a card of thanks to the friends who have assisted him in his time of distress.

—Judicious advertising always pays; and an abundance of it in the holiday season, is the best outlay a business man can make.

—The young people of St. John's church, Stewarttown, announce a Promenade Concert in the Town Hall there, on Friday evening.

—Where, oh where, has the lamplighter gone? was the plaint of citizens who had to be out on the streets the past two or three evenings.

—The assets of the estate of the late Robert Warren will be distributed amongst the parties entitled thereto after the first day of January next.

—Miss Alice Snowden, of Guelph, is thinking of organizing a class in calisthenics here, similar to the classes under Capt. Clarke's tuition in Guelph.

—The annual meeting of the Dominion Alliance will be held in Toronto commencing on Wednesday, 18th inst. A large attendance of all interested is asked for.

—Harvey's mill pond has risen about twenty inches within the last few days. When it is known that it covers about 90 acres it will be realized that a good deal of rain has fallen.

—A neat little pamphlet descriptive of the newly opened Red Cross Hospital and Convalescent Home, Orillia, has been received at this office from the founder of the institution Mr. J. P. Secord.

—The farm belonging to the estate of the late Jeremiah Smith, lot 31, con. 6, Nassagaweya, of 150 acres was sold last Friday by Auctioneer Hemstreet to the the three sons of deceased for $5,345.

—There are no more inviting windows in town than those of J. B. Pearson and numerous lines of goods suitable for Christmas presents are shown. Mr. Pearson has quite a few words for you in another column.

—The anniversary services in connection with the Eden Mills Presbyterian church will be held on Sabbath next, Rev. J. W. Bell preaching morning and evening. On Tuesday evening, 17th, a tea meeting will be held.

—The Christmas announcement of N. McGarvin & Co. in another column is calculated to attract customers. The Christmas stock of this firm, under its present enterprising management, is unusually fine and well selected.

—Messrs. Gillaher and Sheahan, of Guelph, together with good local talent, will produce the popular temperance drama, "The Social Glass" at the town hall, Brookville, Nassagaweya, on Friday evening, Dec. 20th.

—Prof. Robertson, of Guelph, at the East Elgin Farmer's Institute meeting at Aylmer last week, stated that owing to careless methods in farming, enough wealth in the shape of wasted manure goes down the St. Lawrence annually to pay the interest on the whole debt of the Dominion.

HOME GLEANINGS

Which are Mostly of a Local Character and All Interesting.

A Big Bite For Oakville.

Oakville will submit a by-law to the ratepayers on the 6th of January asking for $30,000 waterworks, electric light, and for redemption of $4000 school debentures now the overdue.

Communion Services at Knox Church.

The usual quarterly Communion services of Knox Church were held on Saturday and Sunday. Rev. John Stewart of Elora, preached the preparatory sermon on Saturday. On Sunday Rev. J. W. Rae, the pastor, preached in English, while Rev. Mr. Stewart preached in Gaelic, in the vestry, to a dozen or so of the lovers of the native tongue. Rev. Mr. Stewart preached the evening sermon.

The Chicken's Soliloquy.

"Turn backward, turn backward, oh time in your flight, make me an egg again, smooth, clean and white; I'm homesick and lonely, and life's but a dream, I'm a poor chicken, born in a hatching-machine; compelled in this cold world to roam—no mother to shelter, no place to call home—no mother to teach me to scratch or to cluck, I can hardly tell whether I'm chicken or duck."—Nor. West Farmer.

A Puzzled Farmer.

A farmer read in an agricultural journal: "A side window in a stable makes a horse's eyes weak on that side; a window in front hurts his eyes by the glare; a window behind makes him squint-eyed; a window on a diagonal line makes him shy when he travels, and a stable without windows makes him blind." The farmer has written to the editor of the agricultural paper asking what effect a window without a stable would have on his horses' eye.

The Canadian Almanac.

That repository of useful knowledge, the Canadian Almanac, for 1890, published by Messrs. Copp Clark & Co, Toronto, is to hand. As usual it contains a mass of interesting and valuable general information, including statistics of varied character. A new department is that of the Ontario Medical Register for 1890. This, however, cannot be said to be as authentic as the various other departments represented, for instance take our own physicians:—Dr. McGarvin, is located at Markham, Dr. Stacey at Cheltenham; Dr. Auld at Georgetown and Dr. Halsted at Cedarvale.

New Officers of Acton R. T. of T.

The officers of Acton Council of the Royal Templars of Temperance for the ensuing half-year were elected last Monday evening and are as follows:—

PAST COUNCILLOR—Bro. Dr. Lowry.
SENIOR COUNCILLOR—Bro. J. L. Warren.
VICE COUNCILLOR—Sister Kate Lawson.
SECRETARY—Bro. Samuel Johnston.
ASST. SEC.—Sister Maggie Matthews.
FIN. SEC.—Bro. A. T. Mann.
TREASURER—Sister Maggie Ronis.
CHAPLAIN—Bro. Rev. J. W. Rae.
HERALD—Bro. John Ramsey.
DEPUTY HERALD—Sister Sadie Turton.
GUARD—Sister Bella Johnston.
SENTINEL—Bro. C. Williams.

The installation will take place at the first meeting in January. A debate will fill the programme for the next meeting.

The Farmers and Insurance.

The meeting held in the Council Chamber on Saturday afternoon to consider the advisability of forming a Farmers' Metual Fire Insurance company was well attended. Various phases of the matter were explained by Messrs. Robt. Dredge, John Ramsey and John Warren and those present expressed themselves favorable to the organization of a local company. The meeting adjourned until 13th January. At that date all farmers in the townships of Esquesing, Eramosa, Erin, and Nassagaweya are invited to be present. The impression seemed to prevail that when organized the company should confine its business to a definite and limited territory, and the townships above named will probably be the bounds within which the proposed company will operate.

The Eloquent Dr. McIntyre.

Grace Church Y. P. A., Brampton, with commendable enterprise, have secured the great Western Orator, Dr. McIntyre for one lecture on Friday evening, of this week. Miss Strong, Toronto's contralto, and Prof. Schmidit, an organist from Germany, will also take part in the entertainment. The lecturer's subject will be, "The Wyandotte Cave; or, Thirty Hours in a Sunless World." The genial wit Bill Nye, known the world over, says:—"In the matter given by Robt. McIntyre and his original manner of presenting it, I regard his work as wonderful. He held his audience with perfect mastery. We have lecturers and lecturers, but only a favored few who can administer their lecture painlessly and without the use of anæsthetics. Robt. McIntyre is one of these. No one will regret hearing him." Admission only 25c. No reserved seats. Doors open to ticket-holders at 7; to the public at 7.15 Entertainment begins at 7.30.

—The attractive and varied Christmas stock of Mr. George Hynds this year eclipses any former collection shown by him. If you want expensive presents he can suit you, if cheaper, but still very pretty goods he can meet your wants.

—Owing to the indisposition of Rev. G. B. Cooke, who was suffering from a severe attack of asthma, there were no services in St Alban's church on Sunday. We are pleased to learn that Mr. Cooke is recovering and will take his work as usual next Sabbath.

—Rev. Mr. McCormick, lately out from England has preached in the Congregational church, Church Hill, the past two Sundays. Service was also held on Monday evening last. An effort is being made to have Mr. McCormick take charge of the churches at the Hill and Caledon.

—The Canadian Horticulturist improves every year, both in appearance, illustrations colored plates and reading matter. Every fruit grower, gardener and farmer should have it. The editor is a practical fruit grower, and the other writers are the leading practical gardeners and fruit growers in Ontario. One dollar, addressed to the editor, Grimsby, Ont., secures this monthly the interesting annual report of the Fruit Growers, and a choice of plants for testing.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

Furnished by Correspondents, Culled From Exchanges and Picked up by the Way.

GEORGETOWN.

The Village Council will ask the ratepayers on the 6th of January next for their concurrance in the raising of $2,500 for buildings and improvements in the Agricultural Park.

Martin Gibbronson, who was killed on the track here last week leaves a wife but no children.

The contest for the Reeveship is likely to be between G. H. Kennedy and Lachlan Grant.

ERIN.

Miss Milligan was a delegate to the S. S. Convention at Drayton last week.

W. Tyler, Esq., village clerk, has been very ill for some weeks.

The Public School examinations will be held from the 18th to 20th insts.

Augus Stayner, the young man who had his leg broken on Mr. Chas. Leitch's farm last summer, did not progress after the same being set, and on Wednesday last amputation was resorted to.—Advocate.

On Wednesday, Dec. 4th, the Methodist congregation of Coningsby held a very successful tea meeting in the Union church, 5th line, Erin. The church was crowded, and the proceeds were $36. After refreshments had been served Rev. Mr. Ball, the pastor took the chair and a very interesting programme was carried out.

CAMPBELLVILLE.

The Methodist Church Sabbath School have arranged to have their entertainment on Monday evening, the 23rd inst.

There is a pretty general feeling here that something should be done to help Mr. D. Vickerman to rebuild the woollen mill lately lost by fire. Something more substantial than mere sympathy should be given to help him to bear his heavy loss. He has lost his all, and is not able to build again, unless he receives aid from the township, or some other source. It would be a loss to the neighborhood, indeed to the whole township, to be deprived of the mill, when it had got to working so nicely. Who will take hold of this matter, and bring it before the public? We suggest the calling of a public meeting in Campbellville at an early date, to take up the question, and recommend some course of action that would help to keep Mr. Vickerman and the woollen mill in the township. All should be interested in this matter, for Mr. V's sake and their own.

KNATCHBULL.

In Nassagaweya on Dec. 4th at the residence of the bride's father by the Rev. Jno. Hough, Jas. Sherwood, of Nassagaweya, to Lizzie, eldest daughter of Hiram Wallace.

In Puslinch on the 5th inst., at the residence of the groom's parents, by Rev. Dr. Torrance, Peter Hume to Marion C. Cameron, of Nassagaweya.

On Wednesday, 4th inst., a social was held in the church at Crewson's Corners. The programme consisted of music by the choir, readings, recitations, solos, speeches, etc., and a good time was spent by all present.

On Monday, 2nd inst., Mrs. Jeremiah Fletcher, of Nassagaweya and another lady were driving through Rockwood in a cutter and when near the town hall the cutter was upset and the horse ran away. The cutter was pretty badly used up but the occupants escaped injury. The horse was caught by Mr. David Schultz, jr., who fixed up the cutter sufficiently to allow the ladies to proceed on their journey.

Mr Jos. Anderson, of the firm of Anderson & Bros, wagon-makers, Eden Mills, is leaving the village, and going to West Lorne, Elgin Co., where he has secured a good position with Wm. Ford of that place.

The recent rains and mild weather have knocked the bottom out of the sleighing.

MILTON

W. J. Stearn, who had been in goal for over a week, awaiting his trial under the Charlton act, was tried and convicted on Friday and sentenced to eighteen months in the Central Prison.

The ministers of the town unite in advising parents to keep their children of the streets at night.

The municipal pot in Milton is just beginning to simmer, and the chances are it will never reach the boiling point, at least for this year. It is generally conceded that Mr. Dice has proved himself a model Mayor and is entitled to fill the big chair for another term. The Reeveship is safe in Dr. Robertson's hands, and it is to be hoped no change will be made in that direction. We presume the present councillors will again be candidates for re-election, but whether they will all "get there" next January remains to be seen.—Reformer.

Misses M. M. Panton and E. Rixon, of Billings, Mont., are here on a visit.

The County Court has been in session this week.

A meeting was held on Monday evening in the Methodist church in reference to the proposed new church. The meeting was almost unanimous in the desire to go on with the work next summer.

Our Town Council passed a by-law at their last meeting to hold the nominations for Mayor, Reeve and Councillors on the evening of Dec. 30th, at the town hall.

ROCKWOOD.

On Monday afternoon after a lingering illness Miss Maggie Stout, daughter of Mr. Eli Stout, departed this life, aged 21 years 9 months. Miss Stout was a consistent christian, an earnest worker in the church and Sunday School, and much beloved and respected by her many friends who unitedly regret her early demise. The remains were interred in the fourth line cemetery on Wednesday afternoon.

On Thursday Mr. John Hill fell from the hay mow in Wm. Willoughby's barn breaking one of his ribs.

Last Thursday Mrs. Barber fell at the corner of Guelph St. and broke her wrist.

Rev. Mr. Ball, of Toronto, will preach in the Methodist church next Sunday morning and evening.

W. J. Fields will lecture in the Town Hall on the 19th inst.

There were no services in the St. John's church last Sunday Rev. G. B. Cooke being ill.

Mr. D. Strachan, B.A., has been elected president of the Alma Mater Society of Queens University, Kingston. Mr. Strachan is a son of Rev. D. Strachan, of Rockwood, and his many friends will congratulate him on this high honor at the hands of his fellow students.

About four weeks ago Mr. Geo. Dryden, of Eramosa, lost a brood sow. Diligent search was made for her in the neighborhood, but she could not be found. Last week Mr. Dryden heard a noise in a straw stack, and on digging out a quantity of straw he found the missing animal, and strange to say the animal was alive, and after being out a short time was as active as ever, although not so fleshy as when she disappeared. Query—What did she subsist on?

NASSAGAWEYA.

Rev. Wm Harvey, of the Rockwood Circuit preached on Sabbath last at Ebenezer Bethel and Campbellville in place of Rev. Mr. Williams, who was called to preach at the re-opening services of the Methodist church in Berlin. Mr. D. D. Birks supplied Mr. Harvey's appointment on the Rockwood Circuit.

Miss Emily Grummett, of the 2nd concession, is very low at the present time with consumption. She cannot be expected to last very long.

Mr. Jeremiah Fletcher and Mr. Jonathan Adamson are both confined to their homes by sickness.

A merry load went from Ebenezer to Guelph on Saturday last and bought presents to be put on the Christmas tree for the scholars of the Methodist Sabbath School.

HAMILTON.

The coming municipal elections are livening affairs greatly. Candidates for aldermanic honors are coming forward in abundance. The quantity is more noticeable than the quality. It seems impossible to get men of influence and talents to run for aldermen, and the carters, coal oil peddlers and loafers see their opportunity and take it.

The mayoralty race is becoming interesting if the Catholics desert McLellan (Reform) for Moore (Catholic) then Kenrick (Conservative) will get in. If they do not then McLellan will go in and so it stands; the Catholics holding the balance of power. McLellan has been running after this power too much to suit his Protestant friends and had much better leave them alone.

Railway matters are at a stand still. The T. H. & B. Co. has not presented its credentials yet and until it does nothing is to be done.

The Y.M.C.A. have opened their fine new building and every one is delighted with it. The gymnasium is attracting large numbers of young men and is splendidly furnished and run.

The Free Library building is being pushed forward and the staff is hard at work arranging the books.

The weather here this week is as mild as spring, not a vestige of snow.

OAKVILLE.

Last Saturday evening about 11 o'clock the A. M. E. church was consumed by fire. It is supposed to be the work of an incendiary. Mr. Kettlewell on Sunday evening offered up a very touching prayer on behalf of the brothers and sisters of the colored church.

Rev. Wm. Meikle, pastor of the Presbyterian church, returned home last week from Mobile, Ala., after an absence of two months. Mr. Meikle looks and feels better for his trip; and we are glad to learn that Mrs. Meikle is recovering from her long period of illness, and expects to return in the spring fully restored to health. Mr. Meikle delivired two able sermons in his church on Sunday last; in the morning he preached from the words "How long shall ye halt between two opinions" in the evening he dwelt upon the words "Show me wherefore thou contendest with me."

The R. T. of T. Council sent a letter of condolence to Messrs. A. and H. Chisholm, who are both members of the Council, sympathizing with them in their recent bereavement.

Mr. W. Kerns, M. P. P., attended the funeral of the late W. B. Chisholm.

J. Waldie, M. P., visited our town last week.

Messrs. Jas. McGill and Chas. Patterson, of Toronto, spent Sunday under the parental roof.

Christmas is coming and so are the municipal elections, I wonder which will bring the greater enjoyment to a certain class of men.

FOR EVERYBODY.

One feature of our Xmas stock is that there is something for everybody. Something for everybody's taste. Something for everybody's purse. Almost everybody has to practice a little economy in Xmas buying to make the gifts go round, and we are here to help everybody to do just that thing. Come and look through our stock and remember that next to selling it's our great pleasure to show goods.
