NOTES AND COMMENTS.

It is now said that Mr. J. H. Metcalfe, who aspires to Sir John's vacant seat in Kingston, will be shelved in the postmastership, and that Sir Charles Tupper will be offered the seat.

The Toronto Anglican Synod last week resolved in favor of compulsory education, the passing of municipal by law prohibiting children from running about the streets after dark, precautions concerning the admission into the country of juvenile immigrants, the establishment of a reformatory on the most approved system and the cottage system of industrial schools.

From the county license inspector we learn that the following sums have been distributed from the license fund to the different municipalities of Halton: Georgetown $272, Acton $222, Milton $216, Trafalgar $68, Oakville $260, Burlington $252, Nelson $170, Nassagaweya $24 Nelson $34. The Ontario Government received from the license fund of this county $1,804.

There are signs of an impending insurrection in Morocco, and the Spaniards contemplate taking the country under their protection in case the Moorish sultan becomes unable to preserve order in his dominions. France has gobbled up Algeria and Tunis, and Spain thinks Morocco should be her share of the African goose. The unfortunate Moors would be better off under almost any sort of rule than they are at present.

Some interesting figures regarding the railway system of the City of London are given by The London Railway News. The city covers about 4.73 square miles, and in this area there are 404¼ miles of railway, forming two great circles, with a network of connecting lines and 759 stations, giving each station credit for every company using it. For purposes of comparison The New York Railway Age mentions that in New York City the elevated system covers about 30 miles, is composed of four lines, and has about 165 stations. Londoners, when they forsake the level, travel underground, New Yorkers overhead.

The official mail from Chili brings exciting news. The House of Deputies has passed a bill authorizing the President to levy a forced loan of $20,000,000 to carry on the war. Under an order from the Executive carriages are not permitted to drive on the streets of Santiago after midnight. Groups of more than three persons cannot stand together in the streets, squares or public places of Santiago. All the theatres are closed until futher notice. Under the authority of Congress all the gold and silver in the treasury of Chili, composing what is known as the metallic reserve, was sold at auction on May 15.

The corner stone of the future home of Victoria University has at last been laid in Toronto, and the ceremony which characterized the event with circumstance and interest sufficient to attract to the Queen's park on Monday the guiding forces of university federation must have duly impressed the Methodist body in Canada. Wide and numerous differences of opinion have been voiced in conferences past and expressed in connectional and secular journals by Methodists, both clerical and lay, as to the wisdom of affiliating with the state university, but it is evident that the anxiety of the friends of consolidation on the outside to attach the powerful Methodist college has never flagged through years of hot and strong debate and discussion. This, we think, is a compliment to Methodism; a compliment in whatever light it may be regarded. The educational battle has ceased. That is the next point, and it is conceded on all hands that, everything considered, the battle was fought to the bitter end, and fought creditably at that. Sixty years of independent and successful effort on behalf of higher education might have been expected to stiffen with a sense of pride the back bone of every graduate of Victoria, but we have only to think of the almost equally long period in which federation sentiment has had time to grow in order to appreciate the hold it has gained upon the Methodist connection. There were also other influences which the independent party found hard to break, and which could be mentioned to their credit now when they have sunk their differences in respect to the spirit of their discipline. However, it is unnecessary to do so. The corner stone of the new building has been laid we believe in independence, within the principle of unity which cannot deprive the university of her history, and Victoria has gained much by coming to Toronto. We give our congratulations to the Methodists of the Dominion.—Empire.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE.

Brander Matthews, in an interesting and piquant article on "Briticisms and Americanisms," to appear in the July number of Harper's Magazine, shows that the "well of English undefiled" is no more the exclusive possession of Englishmen than of Americans. He asserts that "of Briticisms there are as many and as worthy of collection and collocation as were the most of the Americanisms the all-embracing Bartlett gathered into his dictionary. Indeed, if a Scot or a Yankee were to prepare a glossary of Briticisms on the ample scale adopted by Mr. Bartlett, and with the same generous hospitality, the result would surprise no one more than the Englishman. We should find in its pages many a word and phrase and turn of speech common enough in England and quite foreign to the best usage of those who speak English—Briticisms as worthy of reproof as the worst specimen of the mongrel speech adopted by some humorists in America."

THE NEW CANADIAN MAGAZINE

THE CABINET'S POLICY

Will be Upon The Old Lines.—The Budget Brought Down.—Liquor Duties Raised.—Sugar Reduced.

A LENGTHY BUDGET DEBATE

OTTAWA, June 24.—The question as to the policy of the new Cabinet was one causing considerable concern until last Thursday, when it was presented in the House by Sir Hector Langevin, in the following terms:—"The Government proposes to carry out the policy which has hitherto guided the Liberal-Conservative party. The outlines of measures which will come before the House this session are indicated in the Speech from the Throne. The trade and financial policy will be declared in the budget speech."

The matter had been previously discussed in caucus and there it was decided to continue on the old lines. Mr. Laurier made a brief reference to the announcement and promised to give it his attention later on.

THE BUDGET SPEECH.

Mr. Foster made his Budget Speech yesterday afternoon. His speech was well arranged, well delivered and greeted with loud and frequent applause. After reviewing the general condition of the country he said he had the pleasure of announcing a surplus of $2,136,000, and Mr. Foster dealt with the condition of the country, which, viewing it through his spectacles, he found to be in every respect satisfactory. Not one dark spot on the horizon could be discerned by the Minister. Business was good, crops in the North-West promised well, and revenue was buoyant. Even the McKinley Act, with its restrictions, was not a cloud.

Sir Richard Cartwright occupied about three hours in criticising the changes and expressing his preference for unrestricted reciprocity. The proposed changes surprised the Opposition, but Sir Richard Cartwright met them with an amendment, declaring that there should be a reduction all round, particularly upon articles of prime necessity to the producers, and that in the coming negotiations the widest reciprocity with the United States should be sought.

THE TARIFF CHANGES.

Under the old tariff the duty on raw sugar was almost equivalent to 2 cents per lb. This has been wiped out. The old duty on refined sugar was 1¼ cents per lb., and 35 per cent. ad. valorem; this has now been reduced to 8/10 cents per lb. In order to encourage the cultivation of beet sugar, a 5 per cent. bounty has been placed on beet sugar importations; hitherto they were admitted free. There has been a considerable increase in tobacco duties. Cut tobacco has been increased to 45 cents per lb. and 12½ cents ad valorem, snuff and other manufactured tobacco have been increased to five cents per lb. Ale, beer and porter in casks has been increased five cents per imperial gallon and in bottles three per gallon. There was also large increases in spirits of all kinds. The duty on salt has been reduced one half, owing to the fact that combines have fattened as the result of the excessive taxation.

RECIPROCITY NEGOTIATIONS.

Another batch of the correspondence relative to the reciprocity negotiations was submitted to Parliament on Monday. The correspondence begins with a telegram from Lord Knutsford to Lord Stanley, enclosing a synopsis of the despatch received by the Marquis of Salisbury from the British Minister at Washington, announcing the introduction of Mr. Robert Bond, the Newfoundland delegate, to Secretary Blaine, and the fact that negotiations were on foot between the United States and Newfoundland, as well as suggesting that the Government of Canada might be informed, as they might wish to negotiate on the same lines.

The correspondence concludes with four telegrams from Sir Julian Pauncefote to Lord Stanley, the purport of which has been heretofore published, relating to the visit of the Canadian delegates to Washington and the fixing the date for the resumption of the conference for the 12th October.

A DIVORCE COURT.

Senator Macdonold introduced a bill yesterday to establish divorce courts in the different provinces of Canada expect in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, which have them already, and in Quebec, which does not want any. It provides that the Supreme Court of any of the other provinces shall have the same authority with reference to actions to dissolve marriage and to obtain judicial separation as with reference to civil actions within the jurisdiction of these courts. The causes for divorce are adultery by either party or desertion by the husband without reasonable cause for a period of not less than five years. An appeal may be made to the Supreme Court of Canada.

SENATORS' PERQUISITES.

There are 90 Senators in all, yet among their "contingencies" last year unearthed by Mr. McMullen there was bought for them 339 inkstands, costing $468; 416 knives, $373; 3,048 pencils, $323; 228 pairs of scissors, $136, and 144 scrapbooks, $93. The cost of the Senate for salaries and expenses is no inconsiderable item.

THE WILL OF THE LATE PREMIER.

OTTAWA, June 17.—The will of the late Sir John Macdonald will be filed for probate in a few days. The executors are Messrs. Hugh John Macdonald M.P., Joseph Pope, the late Premier's private secretary; Fred White, Comptroller of the North-west Mounted Police; and Edgar Dewdney, Minister of the Interior. Sir John held two life policies of the Standard Insurance Company, of London, England, for two thousand pounds each, one of which is left to Lady Macdonald, and the other to Hugh John Macdonald. Mr. Pope, it is understood, will write a life of Sir John Macdonald. No one else should be better fitted for this great task, and there can be little doubt that he will make that work a worthy memorial and monument of the late Premier's life.

KILLED AT THE PLOUGH.

A Bathurst Township Farmer Killed by Lightning.

A Kingston despatch says: The death of David Herlehy, of Bathurst, by a lightning stroke, was a lamentable occurrence. Deceased was ploughing in a field when the bolt struck him. The flash was very vivid. The bolt struck one of the horses first, then ran along to Mr. Herlehy, taking a bit out of the plough handle, and then killed the other horse. A thin, black mark on the bodies told of its course. All three lay near together the two horses facing each others. At dinner time Mrs. Herlehy sent a five-year-old child to bring the father to the mid day meal, but the little one brought back the news that her father was asleep on the ground and the horses were asleep too. At this the poor mother apprehended the fatal occurrence, and running to the field saw her husband lying dead in the midst of his honest toil.

LOADED WITH LUSCIOUS FRUIT.

The Enormus Peach Crop Makes Necessary the Proping of Trees.

READING, Pa., June 21.—The peach crop of Pennsylvania promises to be a very large one this year. Almost every tree is loaded down with fruit, and although it is yet so early in the season, many trees have to be propped to prevent limbs from breaking. People have tried the plan of shaking the trees, but the fruit is so perfect that very few of the peaches drop off, so the weight of the tree is lightened very little by this method.

BLENHEIM'S SAD TRAGEDY.

Inquest on the Body of Mrs. Clark and Her Murdered Babes.

BLENHEIM, Ont., June 21.—An inquest was held here yesterday by Dr. Bray, of Chatham, assisted by Dr. Langford, of Blenheim, on the bodies of Mrs. David Clark and her two children, found drowned in the Eau near the railway dock on Friday morning. The jury brought in a verdict that Mrs. Margaret Clark, while temporarily insane, drowned her two children and herself. Strong sympathy is expressed towards the poor wife and her people. Her insanity was due altogether to the absence of her husband and the continued annoyance and worry over their financial troubles. The funeral of all took place today and was the largest ever seen in this district, there being 164 carriages. The cortege was nearly two miles long.

THE TRADERS' BANK OF CANADA.

Proceedings of the Sixth Annual General Meeting of Shareholders, Held at its Banking-House in Toronto, on Tuesday, the 16th of June, 1891.

The President having taken the chair, Messrs. H. L. Hime and John Stark were appointed scrutineers, and Mr. Strathy secretary of the meeting.

REPORT.

Your Directors beg to submit to the shareholders the Sixth Annual Report, showing the position of the Bank as on the 31st of May, 1891.

|---|---|---|
| Balance at credit of Profit and Loss 31st May, 1890 | | $1,294 94 |
| Net profits for the year, after deducting the charges of management, making full provision for all bad and doubtful debts, reserving accrued interest on outstanding deposit receipts, and crediting interest to date on all interest-bearing accounts | | 54,037 30 |
| | | $55,332 24 |
| Appropriated as follows: | | |
| Dividend No. 10, Three per cent., payable 1st December, 1890 | $16,756 87 | |
| Dividend No. 11, Three per cent., payable 1st June, 1891 | 17,786 89 | |
| | | $ 34,543 76 |
| Added to Rest Account | 15,000 00 | |
| Written off Office Furniture Account | 1,094 36 | |
| Balance carried forward | 5,192 12 | |
| | | $21,976 48 |
| | | $55,332 24 |

At the last annual meeting the Directors intimated their intention of subscribing for sufficient stock to increase the paid-up capital of the Bank to $600,000. As will be seen by the accompanying statement, this has been done. The net profits on the average paid-up capital were 9¼ per cent. These could be considerably increased with a larger paid-up capital, which it is expected the Bank will have within a reasonable time.

The deposits of the Bank have increased over 35 per cent. during the past year, and the average rate of interest allowed on deposits is lower than that of former years.

Two vacancies have occurred on the Board by the resignations of H. H. Cook, Esq., and Dr. Snelling, Q.C. Your Directors have not felt it necessary to fill the vacancies so created, and recommend that a by-law be passed reducing the number of Directors to five, which, in the opinion of your Directors, is ample for the present requirements of the Bank.

The losses during the year have been trifling in amount, and have been fully provided for.

The offices, including Head Office, have all been inspected once or oftener during the year, and continue to receive the careful attention of your Directors. The officers have performed their respective duties to the satisfaction of the Board.

ALEX. MANNING,
President.

Makes the Weak Strong

The marked benefit which people in run down or weakened state of health derive from Hood's Sarsaparilla, conclusively proves the claim that this medicine "makes the weak strong." It does not act like a stimulant, imparting fictitious strength from which there must follow a reaction of greater weakness than before, but in the most natural way Hood's Sarsaparilla overcomes creates an appetite, purifies the blood, and, in short, gives great bodily, nerve, mental and digestive strength.

"I derived very much benefit from Hood's Sarsaparilla, which I took for general debility. It built me right up, and gave me an excellent appetite." ED. JENKINS, Md. Savage, Md.

Fagged Out

"Last spring I was completely fagged out. My strength left me and I felt sick and miserable all the time, so that I could hardly attend to my business. I took one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it cured me. There is nothing like it." R. C. BEGOLE, Editor Enterprise, Belleville, Mich.

Worn Out

"Hood's Sarsaparilla restored me to good health. Indeed, I might say truthfully it saved my life. To one feeling tired and worn out I would earnestly recommend a trial of Hood's Sarsaparilla." MRS. PHEBE MOSHER, 90 Brooks Street, East Boston, Mass.
