LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLETS

Which Caught the Eyes or Ears of Free Press Reporters this Week.

—Dominion Day next Wednesday.

—Nearly every week the municipal pound is occupied.

—It is about time the grass and weeds were being cut on the streets.

—Mr. Adam Stewart has removed into his new dwelling in Cook's survey.

—All the public schools close next Tuesday afternoon for summer vacation.

—Methodist Church re-opening on Sunday and Monday, 12th and 13th July.

—Several weddings will be consummated among our citizens before another moon.

—A meeting of the Board of Education will be held next Monday evening at 7 o'clock.

—Show your visitors Acton's advantages and attractions when in town next Wednesday.

—Mr. John B. Cameron is making preparations for the erection of a new house on Church Street.

—Mount Forest ratepayers will contribute 21 mills on the dollar on their assessment this year.

—Rev. D. B. Marsh was inducted as pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Eramosa, on Tuesday.

—The Tecumseh Lacrosse Club of Toronto, will play the Young Canadians in Acton on Dominion Day.

—Dogs delight to bark and bite, and little birds to sing, but all the festive fly can do is to walk o'er everything.

—A garden party will be held at the residence of James M. Bussell, Esq., Ninth Line, Trafalgar, on Thursday evening, July 9th.

—The semi-annual examinations of Acton Public School will be held next Tuesday in all the departments. The public is invited.

—Mr. J. E. McGarvin, of Toronto, last week removed the remains of his little daughter from Fairview Cemetery to the family plot at Orangeville.

—Mrs. Jennie B. Cameron's residence, Rose Cottage, has been rendered very cozy and attractive indeed by the improvements effected the past month or so.

—The annual meeting of the Epworth League for the election of officers, etc., will be held next Tuesday evening in the school room of the Methodist Church.

—The chairman of the committee of the Patrons of Industry writes that Acton will be visited on Saturday with a view to making contracts with merchants for the supply of goods to members of the order.

—At the annual meeting of the Bank of Hamilton last week a most satisfactory report was presented. Eight per cent. dividend was paid and a very considerable amount carried to reserve fund.

—The park should soon be in good shape. It is costing a good deal of money. Some thinking citizens say that more than is warranted is being expended on the race course, when it is well known that Acton is not a "racing" town.

—Mr. John Arthurs' horse which was so badly injured a month or so ago and was for some time expected to die, has almost entirely recovered, and is being driven every day now. Mr. J. Lawson, V.S. deserves credit for this triumph of veterinary skill.

—The weekly match of the Gun Club was held on their range on Tuesday evening. The competition for the silver medal offered by a Toronto marksman, creates considerable enthusiasm. It will extend over a couple of months. Mr J. J. Pearson heads score thus far.

—Mr. F. E. Deitch, agent Singer Sewing Machine Company has arranged to have the Company's Art Exhibition at his office, Willow St., next week. A very complete and attractive display of fancy work executed on the Singer machine will be made. The public is invited to call and inspect.

—The present issue concludes another volume of the FREE PRESS. Subscribers will please notice that subscriptions are payable in advance at $1 a year. Look at your paper and see the address label. It indicates when you have paid to. If the date is in the past we respectfully request a settlement.

—A gang of telegraph linemen have been at work putting in new poles here the past week. They no doubt did a good job for the telegraph company but such an exhibition of slanting posts and unsightly supports would be hard to imagine. There is certainly nothing æsthetic about the telegraph company. A good many citizens wonder that the Council do not interfere when such liberties are taken with our public streets.

THE NEWS AT HOME.

Mostly of a Local Character and Every Item Interesting.

Garden Party at St. Albans.

A garden party and strawberry festival will be given at St. Alban's Parsonage on Friday evening, when an enjoyable time is anticipated. The former entertainments at the residence of Pastor and Mrs. Cooke have invariably been full of pleasure, and if the weather is fine this will be no exception. Acton Cornet Band will be present.

Death of Benjamin Haslett.

The news of the death of Mr. B. Haslett, formerly of Acton, has just reached the FREE PRESS. Mr. Haslett has been residing in Detroit Mich., for some time and died at his home there on the 16th June, from consumption, after months of great suffering. He was buried in Elmwood Cemetery in above city. The many friends and former acquaintances of the bereaved family in Acton and vicinity will extend heartfelt sympathy to them in their affliction.

The Traders' Bank of Canada.

In another column is given an interesting report of the proceedings of the sixth annual meeting of the shareholders of the Traders' Bank, held at Toronto last week, when a very good exhibit was made. The net profits for the year were $51,437.30 equal to a net profit on paid up capital of 9¼ per cent. A six per cent. dividend was paid the shareholders and $15,000.00 added to the rest account. The paid-up capital of the bank has been increased to $600,000 and will in all probably be increased before long. The deposits have increased over one-third during the year. Losses have been extremely light and have all been fully provided for. Farmers and others would do well to peruse the report of this bank.

The Cole vs. Cooke Case.

Readers of the FREE PRESS will remember that about a year ago Mr. Henry Cole's horse ran away on Church st., and that he was thrown out of his buggy, had his collar bone broken and sustained other injuries. It was claimed that the horse was frightened by a dog belonging to Rev. G. B. Cooke. Mr. Cooke stated that he had no knowledge that the animal was a dangerous one, but rather than have any trouble over the matter agreed to pay the doctor's bill for attending Mr. Cole's injuries. This, however, was not accepted and a law suit was entered in Wellington County Court, a claim of $200 for damages being made. The case came up for hearing at Guelph last Thursday. The evidence was not sufficient, in the Judge's opinion, to show that the defendant was aware the dog was a vicious one, and he dismissed the case with costs. Judgement having been given in his favor Mr. Cooke generously agreed to pay his own witnesses' fees.

Re-opening Services—Methodist church.

The work which has been in progress under the superintendence of Mr. Thomas Eltage, carpenter, and Mr. C. W. Reynolds painter and decorator, Guelph, in the Methodist church, is nearing completion. The re-opening services will be held on Sunday and Monday, 12th and 13th July, and the occasion promises to be one of rare interest to the members of the church and congregation and their friends. It was at first intended to have the re-opening services next Sunday—in fact, such an announcement was made from the pulpit—but it has since been found that to give the work of the painters justice, more time is required and the date for re-opening has consequently been fixed as above. The work has progressed sufficiently to show that contractor Reynolds will succeed in executing a very satisfactory job and that when completed the church will be one of the most cheerful and attractive edifices in the country.

Dominion Day Celebration

The committee announce all things in readiness for the big Dominion Day Celebration here next Wednesday. Considerable interest is being manifest in surrounding places in the proceedings and indications point to a very large gathering. The park is in excellent condition and an attractive time is looked for. The events of the day will be concluded with a grand concert in the town hall under the auspices of Acton Union Agricultural Society. The following varied array of talent has been secured: Miss Haggart, elocutionist, Brampton, of whom the press speaks in highest terms; Miss Mortimer, one of Toronto's leading vocalists; Mr. and Mrs. Williams, of Brampton, who enjoy a provincial reputation and Miss Annie McLean, accompanist. The dancer and piper will also be present as usual in the persons of Mr. D. S. Johnston, Toronto, whose breast will show medals won in many a contest, and pipe major Sharpe. If the programme of the day is of a character to suit you, come to Acton and you will find it carried out to the very best ability of the Committees.

Owing to the re-opening services then announced for next Sunday Rev. Dr. Gifford preached his farewell sermon, as pastor of the Methodist Church here, last Sunday. During his pastorate Dr. Gifford's sermons throughout have been superior, but those of last Sunday were more than unusually eloquent and interesting. Feeling reference was made in the evening discourse to the termination of his three years' pastorate, and his remarks were based upon St. Paul's words to the Ephesians in Acts 20: 31—"Therefore watch and remember, that by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears." After reviewing St. Paul's labors and triumphs with the church at Ephesus, the experience of the church and pastor here, with the trials and successes of the past three years, was referred to. His parting counsel was full of love and a fervently expressed hope that God's blessing would continually rest upon the church and congregation. The members of the church were exhorted to greater spiritual effort and a closer union with Christ, while sinners were earnestly invited to surrender themselves to Him who had died to redeem them. A considerable number have embraced Christ during his ministry in Acton, and some of those have been called from the church militant to the church triumphant. Concluding he said the old, old story which Paul preached is as precious now as ever and would always be new to those who accept God through Jesus Christ.

—The annual meeting of the National Editorial Association will be held in St. Paul, Minn., July 14-17. The Canadian Press Association is sending two delegates, but as many members as can make it convenient to do so may attend. Special arrangements have been made with the Grand Trunk Railway to take members and their wives to St. Paul and return.

—The Wingham Times has put in a Prouty cylinder press of the latest pattern. Under the management of Mr. R. Elliott, the Times has been an influential journal and with the addition of the power press to his plant his work will be much facilitated, the capacity of his office increased and the typographical appearance of the Times greatly improved.

The happy couple left for the east to spend a few days 'mid the boyhood scenes of the groom.

Turnips are being sown around here, but rain is much needed if they are to be a paying crop. Hay is short, and spring crops are not doing well. Garden seeds in many places did not come up at all and the prospect for fruit and indeed all crops, is not very promising.

The Ebenezer Methodist Congregation held a garden party on the beautiful lawn of Mr. J. Canute, opposite the church, and between two and three hundred people spent a very pleasant evening together on Monday, 15th inst. The weather was delightful, and Mr. Canute and family and all concerned spared no pains to make the party a success. Provisions were abundant and tasty and the grounds were well lighted up with Chinese lanterns. The Rockwood Band discoursed sweet music interspersed by pieces on the clarionet and violin by Messrs. Barber and Milne, solos by Mr. McPhail and Miss Worswick, and several duetts by some young ladies from Everton who greatly delighted the audience. The pastor, Rev. J. Hough, presided, and addresses were delivered by Revs. Blair, Caldwell and Johnston. The financial results were good; and every one seemed well pleased. It was held under the auspices of the Epworth League which is prospering and likely to be a great benefit to the church and neighborhood.

Our Lacrosse team met with a sort of defeat on Saturday at the hands of thirteen Toronto players. The first game was taken by the Athletics in about a minute. Then McBrearty for the Ætnas did the needful in seven minutes. Then came the struggle of the day. Time and again did our home perforate the Toronto flags but vain the attempt, for as often did that "thirteenth" man, the umpire, say "no game." At last the crowd could stand no more and for fifteen minutes pandemonium reigned between the crowd and the players. The game was continued under protest and ended 2 to 1 in favor of Toronto.

Mr. Jas. Gray raised a fine large barn last week. Sides were captained by Messrs W. Sharpe and Sam Loree, Loree's side winning easily. After the raising the young people present were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Gray and enjoyed themselves at dancing and other amusements for a few hours. One slight accident occurred. Mr. Wm. Dickieson, of Eramosa, had his hand crushed by a piece of timber, which will oblige him to carry it in a sling for a few weeks.

We hear a combination has been formed to impound all hogs and other live stock running at large contrary to law, on the roads in the village and sincerely hope it will materalize as we have no end of nuisances in that line. If a person plants a tree on or near the street he expects the top to be eaten off by some half-starved cow, or if there is a decent piece of grass to be seen there he will find a flock of geese or a drove of hogs pre-empting it.

The Rockwood Band will not make much money out of the excursion to Burlington Beach on Friday. Some of its members talk of getting up a monster pic-nic on that day and extinguish the Sunday School children's holiday. It is really too bad the treatment the band receives from the people around here. It should have at least its board, washing, clothes and tuition paid for out of the public purse, and receive any conceivable benefits from that tuition with the exception of two or three tunes played on the street once a month.

Mr. Biggar's address is the Fraser Building, Montreal.

QUEER STORIES OF INQUESTS.

The latest coroner's jury to render a so-called "smart" verdict met recently at Sumner, Ga., to enquire regarding the death of Brakeman Ward. While standing on top of a freight car Ward engaged in conversation with two girls walking by the side of the track. He fell off, rolled beneath the wheels and was killed. The jury declared that he "died of flirting." Another tale of "crowner's quest" comes from the southwest. As the story goes, a man found drowned was carried to the coroner's rooms, the jury summoned and the body examined. In the hip pocket of his overcoat was found a Colt's six shooter and in another pocket a twenty dollar gold piece. The justice, who was also the coroner, fined the corpse $20 for carrying a concealed weapon, and then went on with the inquest.

A Modern Little Moses.

A curious story is told by a Texas man. He said that last Wednesday a coloured woman living along the river bank lost her 2-year-child, a boy just able to walk, and the mother gave it up for lost. Further that some fishermen, while returning from an excursion, found the the babe, alive and well, perched on some driftwood drifting pacidly towards the Gulf, about twenty miles down the river; that it took the fishermen two days to discover the mother and restore the babe to its home.—Rochester Democrat.

A courteous English editor pays a graceful compliment to woman workers, of whom he has employed many. "I would rather," he said, "deal with twenty women than one man. Woman are more reliable, more painstaking, more accurate, more courteous, and far cleverer than men. One young lady who has just left me to be married has been with me sixteen years, and during the whole time only one task has been traced to her."

Don't trifle with the barber; he is generally able to hold his hone.

The pains endured by the early Christian martyrs were no doubt excruciating, but not so prolonged or scarcely more dreadful than those experienced by the sufferers from inflammatory rheumatism—a disease which is easily curable at the outset with Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil—a sovereign remedy for pain—a reliable curative of kidney, liver and other complaints, and a medicine of the purest as well as the most salutary kind.
