LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLETS

Which Caught the Eyes or Ears of Free Press Reporters this Week.

—Vacation days.

—Haying is in full blast now.

—The farmers' busy days are here.

—The pic-nic season is at its height.

Raspberries are now on the market.

—"Girls of all Nations" entertainments are the latest freak.

—The fall wheat will be ready to cut in many places next week.

—It is said that six of the newspapers in Essex county are for sale.

—Mount Forest rate of taxation this year has been fixed at 22 mills.

—Streetsville's brass band is being reorganized and a leader will be engaged.

—A much needed new sidewalk is to be laid on John Street, between Mill and Church.

—James Vanwyck, the new butcher, commenced business on Tuesday with a good stock.

—Messrs. Greenless Bros., of Campbellville, are delivering pine plank in town for new sidewalks.

—The masons are at work on Peter Gibbons, new bank barn in the second concession, near Speyside.

—Statute labor is being done in some places at present. The way to get good roads is to make them.

—Wouldn't it be a good idea to harvest the crop of hay and burdocks which predominate on some streets in town?

—The farmers may now be seen with a bundle of binder twine in the rear of the waggon as they return home from town.

—The Acton FREE PRESS is eighteen years old, has safely cut its wisdom teeth and has a healthy and promising future before it.—Guelph Daily Herald.

—Messrs. Robt Brown & Son of Crewsons Corners, on Monday raised a 36 by 60 addition to their bank barn. They have now a fine building about 60 by 100.

—A cricket match between Acton Cricket Club and a team from Toronto was arranged for last Saturday, but the Toronto men failed to put in an appearance.

—A Fergus constable broke up a charivari party the other night by firing a couple of revolver shots. The Record says it was the greatest achievement of the cop's official career.

—There was quite a lively scattering at Charles & Co's grocery the other day when a lively tarantula crawled from a bunch of bananas to investigate its northern surroundings.

—The Juniors of Acton and Georgetown had a match in the park here on Saturday afternoon. It resulted in a whitewash for the home team, in a score of three goals to none.

Wouldn't it be a good plan to arrange a decoration day for Acton. With the many societies in town it could be made a marked success and the cemetery would be beautified by such concerted action.

—In writing to a friend Rev E. Medd, of Harrow, a native of Hullett, says "I have graduated, taking the degree of Pa. A brand new girl arrived the day I came home from Conference. Clinton New Era.

About a dozen of the members of Acton Lodge A. O. U. W. attended service in the Presbyterian Church, Rockwood, on Sunday evening. Rev R. J. Beattie, of Guelph, preached the anniversary sermon.

—Ripe cherries glistening in the leafy trees are a pretty sight to see among the prettiest, indeed, of the conspicuous gifts of the fruitful year. Such a sight has been rare for a considerable number of late years owing to the ravages of the black knot. Many thrifty young cherry trees are growing here now, however.

—Wives and daughters of the household find more sultriness in baking for the picnic than coolness on the scene of that festive event. As for the small boy for whose benefit the picnic is generally arranged, he is always cool except when over-exertion at meal time induces a healthy perspiration.

—In our issue of last week it is stated that a "call" had been given to one of our Acton ministers. Technically we were mistaken. The action indicated was the result of an informal meeting called to test the will of the congregation. The facts were correct; but the wording astray, so far as the use of the word "call" is concerned.

—Dr. Ernest Hall, of Victoria B.C., specialist for the eye, ear, nose and throat will visit Acton by request on Wednesday 19th inst. Any wishing to consult him may do so at the residence of Mr. H. P. Moore, corner Bower Avenue and Frederick Street.

THE NEWS AT HOME.

Mostly of a Local Character, and Every Item Interesting.

Death of Nicholas Forbes, Sr.

Death ended the sufferings of Nicholas Forbes, Sr., on Monday morning. He had been confined to his bed for several months and was at times a great sufferer. Mr. Forbes was born at "The Boyne," in Trafalgar township in 1823. Twenty-eight years ago he removed to Eramosa and settled on the farm at Cawood's Corners where he resided until a couple of years ago when he came to Acton. His wife and six sons and four daughters survive him.

Scarcely of the New Postal Card.

Complaints have been made by merchants and others throughout Ontario, of the alleged inability of their post-offices to furnish the new large sized postal cards has elicited the information from the post-office department at Ottawa that the government contractor was forcing out the new cards with all possible despatch, but the enormous demand all over the Dominion was still ahead of his ability to meet it, while the public refused to purchase the old cards.

"Business on Business Principles."

The Guelph Daily Mercury pays the following compliment:—The Acton FREE PRESS has just entered upon its 19th year of publication. There is no more valued country exchange comes to this office than the FREE PRESS. Mr. H. P. Moore, editor and proprietor, deserves the thanks of his numerous readers for the able manner in which he has conducted the paper. He does business on business principles. January last the "subscriptions in advance" plan was adopted and the FREE PRESS has found it entirely satisfactory.

A Successful Lawn Social.

A delightful evening; a brilliantly illuminated lawn; tastefully arranged refreshment tables and attentive waiters; Acton Cornet Band and its sweet strains of music and a large and pleasant company contributed to ensure the lawn social at the Methodist Parsonage on Monday evening a decided success. The affair was in all respects enjoyable and while the members of the Ladies' Aid and their corps of more youthful assistants buried themselves to the comfort of all. The larger share of credit for the success of the event is due to Rev. and Mrs. Edge whose exertions were untiring throughout. The proceeds were a trifle over $11.

Dwelling Burned.

On Sunday last fire destroyed the small house occupied by Stephen Rosell and family near Speyside just as the mid day meal was being prepared. With the exception of one or two small articles the contents of the house were completely destroyed. The circumstances surrounding the family are particularly unfortunate, Mrs. Rosell being carried from a sick bed just in time to save her life from the fire. Neighbors have kindly come to the assistance of the sufferers who are left in a destitute condition. Donations of clothing, household utensils etc., will be thankfully received in their behalf by Rev G. R. Cooke, before Friday evening.

A Brace of Accidents.

Last Thursday while loading cattle at the G. T. R. yards, Mr. Robert Holmes was caught in the gangway leading the car by a run of the cattle and so severely squeezed that several ribs were fractured and he was badly bruised. Last Wednesday a more serious accident befel Mr. Albert Gibbons of the third line. In company with Mr Albert Murray of this place he was engaged in putting up a rack lifter in the barn of Mr. J. Linday, Limehouse. The scaffolding fell and he was thrown to the floor beneath, a distance of about twenty five feet. His left arm was fractured at the wrist and several ribs were forced inwards. His injuries are quite painful but he is doing well.

A Sermon to Old People.

The Old People's service in the Methodist Church last Sunday morning was of unusual interest, especially as a service of its particular character is somewhat of a novelty. There was a large congregation and the honored gray hairs were well represented. Rev. Mr. Edge made Psalms 71: 9, "Cast me not off in the time of old age, forsake me not when my strength faileth," the basis of an able sermon. The experience of old age was dwelt upon, its dignity and honor were pointed out, old age is not calculated to dwarf the grandeur of christian life and character, and when the aged one is filled with God he is thrilled with joy and lives in a time of marvellous hopes. It is a time of peculiar memories and of many anxieties. The wonderful promises of God are accepted freely and the aged christian can say as a comfort to the younger ones: "I have been young, but now am old, yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken nor his seed begging bread."

KNATCHBULL.

On Thursday, June 27th, Mr. Benjamin Boles, of Grand Rapids, Mich., son of Mr. Joseph Boles, Nassagaweya, was going through the desk and table factory where he was employed, he fell down an elevator shaft, a distance of thirty feet, lighting on his head and fracturing his skull. Heonly lived a few hours. He partly regained consciousness and repeated many times that "they shoved me down," but whether he fell or was pushed down is unknown. Mr. Boles leaves a wife and nine children to mourn their loss. On the evening of his funeral the youngest child had the misfortune to break its leg. The family have the sympathy of this community in their sad bereavement and affliction.

A colt belonging to Robinson Anderson of Nassagaweya, had a stick run into its breast about a foot. There are fears of lock jaw setting in.

ROCKWOOD.

The train left Rockwood at 8:30 a.m., and on reaching Toronto the large steamer May flower, took the party for a sail around the island, landing them at Island Park at 12 o'clock. The day was very enjoyable to the excursion party, but absence of children was quite noticeable. The excursion seemed to have developed into an outing for the older people, the children being left at home. The committee took every pains to make the excursion successful and pleasant. The train reached Rockwood at 9 o'clock p.m.

Rockwood Lodge No. 265, A. O. U. W., to the number of seventy, with a number of visiting brethren, marched to the Presbyterian Church on Sunday evening at 6:30. Major Mutrie, Marshall of the Order had charge of the procession, which was led by D. D. G. M. Stradhan and P. M. Francis, of Acton. Rev Mr Beattie, of Knox Church, Guelph, preached an able and instructive sermon from the text 1 Thes. 4. 9. It was an interesting exposition of brotherly love in all walks of life and placed the principle of the order prominently before the congregation. The church was crowded.

For the Good of Others

Rev. Mr. Williams Heartily Endorses Hood's Sarsaparilla.

We are pleased to present this from Rev. A. A. Williams, of the Hillsbee street Christian Church, Lynn, Mass.:

"I see no reason why a clergyman, more than a layman, who knows whereof he speaks, should hesitate to approve an

Article of Merit

and worth, from which he or his family have been signally benefited, and whose commendation may serve to extend those benefits to others by increasing their confidence. My wife has for many years been a sufferer from severe

Nervous Headache

for which she found little help. She has tried many things that promised well but performed little. Last fall a friend gave her a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. It seems surprising what simply one bottle could and did do for her. The attacks of headache decreased in number and were less violent in their intensity, while her general health has been improved. Her appetite has also been better. From our experience with

Hood's Sarsaparilla

I have no hesitation in endorsing its merits."
