NOTES AND COMMENTS.

Mr. John Dryden, Minister of Agriculture was renominated by South Ontario Liberals for the local legislature at a convention in Whitby on Saturday. In his speech in reply he expressed the intention of establishing fruit experimental stations throughout the province.

Last year the United States exported 392,000,000 lbs. of bacon, 82,000,000 lbs. of ham, 53,000,000 lbs. of salt pork and 366,000,000 lbs. of lard. The American hog is a very important factor in the production of wealth in the United States. He differs from the tariff hog in that instead of eating the earnings of others he is eaten by others.

About two years ago three persons in Campbellville became involved in a suit over an account of $73. They were determined to fight and they fought, and they paid for it. It is said on good authority that the law costs of one amounts to $620, another has forked over $200, while a third has benefited the lawyers to the tune of $180. One thousand dollars to recover $73.

During the session of the British House of Commons of 1893-94 the closure was moved 168 times—60 times in the House and 108 times in committee. In 95 instances, however, the Speaker or Chair refused to put the motion, so that the actual number of times that discussion was stopped was 73. A Liberal journal remarks that considering the extraordinary length of the session, and the persistency with which the Government bills were obstructed, the application of the closure does not seem excessive is not, in fact, much above the average of sessions.

A statement of the mineral production of Canada, just issued, shows the value of the production for 1893 to have been $19,250,000, or $250,000 less than that of 1892. Nickel heads the list of metallic products, the output having been 3,932,982 tons, value1 at $2,076,351. The value of gold was $927,241; copper, $875,861; silver, $121,423. Three million seven hundred tons of coal were raised, valued at $8,422,259. The production quantity of iron ore mined is placed at 121,702 tons, valued at $298,018, of this quantity 121,053 tons were converted into pig iron, producing 55,947 tons, valued at the furnaces at $790,283. The production of petroleum is placed at 598,406 barrels, valued at $834,334.

Prohibition has become a greater and greater necessity as a national safeguard as the franchise has been extending to nearly every man over 21 years of age. An intemperate elector is a source of national danger at the ballot box. Prof. Mc[illegible]ch, a splendid authority, has just been saying "Ballots in the hands of drunkards, who have the balance of power in many precincts, turn our elections often into a farce, sometimes into a tragedy. The average drunkard will sell his vote, the average saloon keeper will buy it, the average politician will buy both." These very dangers must all be faced at the pending Ontario Provincial elections and as long as the liquor traffic is sanctioned by law. Every lover of a pure and well guarded ballot box should do his duty in this great matter. London Citizen.

A Washington dispatch says.—The Canadian Government is dissatisfied with the agreement reached by Secretaries Carlyle and Gresham, representing the United States, and Sir Julian Pauncefote and Mr. Dawson, representing Great Britain, regarding the Behring Sea regulations and and license form. The regulations, etc were telegraphed to the Canadian Government, and word was received here that the Canadian authorities disapproved of them. This places Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British ambassador who is understood to have agreed to them as framed, in an embarrassing position. The gravamen of the Canadian objections is directed against that section of the regulations that permits sealing vessels armed with sealing equipment to be seized, even though they are not caught in open violation of the law or have no sealskins on board.

THE MUNICIPAL COUNCIL

The Assessment Roll Returned and Court of Revision Announced.

The regular meeting of the municipal council on Monday evening met promptly at eight o'clock, all the members were in their places, the reeve in the chair.

The committee on Finance presented their seventh report and the following accounts were ordered to be paid:

Abram Stauffer work on streets	[illegible]
Edward Matthews work on streets	[illegible]
John Chisholm st work on cemetery	5 00
Geo. Hynds stationary	1 [illegible]
Total	$ [illegible]

There was but one tender for the park for Dominion Day. This was accepted after a lively chat re park affairs.

Moved by Geo. Havill, seconded by Jas. Anderson, that the tender of Messrs. J. H. Matthews, John Lawson, V. S., and Jas. Firstbrook for the use of park for July 2nd for twenty five dollars, be accepted.—Carried.

Court of Revision will be held May 28th, 1894. Be ready for it.

The census columns of the Assessment Roll show that the children between five and twenty one form one fourth of the population of the town, and if those under the age of five were taken into consideration the youthful population is one half of the whole. The increase in the population during the year was 27.

The financial totals of the assessment just completed shows a gratifying increase. For the first time in the history of the corporation we have gone over the quarter million mark. The total assessment aggregates $270,215, an increase over last year of $21,615.

Council adjourned at ten o'clock.

THE CAPITAL THIS WEEK

A Quiet Week Among the Legislators The Social Events Predominate.

THE TWO CENT POSTAGE.

OTTAWA, May 1. The distinctive feature of the past week in Ottawa was more social than political. On Friday night the ladies of the Russell House gave what may be considered the closing ball of the season, which was attended by most of the Cabinet Ministers, Members of Parliament, and the Senate, and their wives and daughters, and a large number of the leading society people of Ottawa. Over five hundred were present. On Saturday evening, the much talked of and long expected Drawing Room was held, in the Senate Chamber, and attended by about six hundred and fifty ladies and gentlemen, many of whom came from Montreal, Toronto, and other cities specially for the occasion. This was the first Drawing Room held by Lord and Lady Aberdeen, and before the opening of the Session it was talked of as to be the great social event of the season. The Drawing Room was certainly a very great success, both in quantity and quality.

THE BANK DIVIDENDS.

Saturday's Gazette contains the usual notices of semi annual dividends declared by a large number of banks, which do not indicate that any decrease of profits has been experienced by those institutions, and may be taken as an indication that the business of the country continues in a fairly satisfactory condition. The dividends are as follows: Traders, six per cent., Toronto five, Merchants', Standard, Ottawa, Hamilton, Imperial four, Jacques Cartier, Commerce, Ontario, Quebec three and a half, Union, Hochelaga and Villa Marie three.

TWO CENT POSTAGE.

Mr. Coatsworth moved that it is expedient to reduce the general rate of postage from three to two cents. Mr. Coatsworth proposed that the newspaper proprietors should make up for a part of this by the abolishing of free mailing. It was intended that the money saved by free mailing should go into the pockets of the public, but experience showed that the newspaper proprietors had been benefitted. The privilege was used to distribute advertising matter and bonus pictures and magazines. He did not see why newspapers should go through the mail free while ordinary correspondents had to pay a higher rate than was in force in other countries. Sir A. Caron, Postmaster General in reply, said he had not introduced the policy of free newspaper postage, but he would not like to reverse it. It might mean a loss of revenue, but it meant the conveyance at the public expense of news and of expressions of opinion which were of utmost importance to the people of Canada. Applause. He wished if it were possible to reduce the letter rate to two cents, but Canada was a young country with a big territory and engaged in great public works which involved heavy expenditure. He should be glad to make the reduction, but it would be absurd to hold out any hope of it under existing circumstances. The loss of revenue would be not $650,000, but $900,000.

CAPITAL CHIT-CHAT.

4,408 civil servants contribute to the Superannuation fund.

The alleged slander of the Speaker by the the Ottawa Free Press created quite a stir.

Major Ibbotson, of the 5th Royal Scots of Montreal, has been appointed Commandant of the Bisley team.

The C. P. R. agrees with the people of Prescott and Russell within 18 months to spend $100,000 on extending the road westward from Point Fortune and another hundred thousand dollars within two and a half years, both amounts to be exclusive of all bonuses.

The creamery meeting was not an unqualified success. The gathering was the outcome of the efforts of some American gentlemen who have been inducing the farmers of the neighborhood to subscribe $5,500 to build and equip a creamery. Mr. Reid, of Guelph, pointed out to the meeting that the enterprise could be carried to a successful completion for $3,500, and gave some of the American promoters some pretty hard raps for their alleged unselfishness in promoting the interests of the creamery industry. The result of the meeting has been to create a counter agitation and if the American scheme has not already gone too far it will be defeated. It is hoped, however, the creamery scheme will not be shelved.

LIFE ON A RAILROAD

THE EXPERIENCE OF A GRAND TRUND EMPLOYEE.

Full Ill-Effects from Exposure Pronounced Incurable and Paid the Total Disability Insurance Allowed, by the Company. Once More on the Road to Health. He Tells How It Came About.

From the Deseronto Tribune.

During the past few weeks a fruitful subject of conversation among the people at Deseronto Junction has been the wonderful recovery of Mr. William Henry Wager, who has been looked upon as a hopeless invalid. A representative of this paper was sent to interview Mr. Wagner and gain all information possible in order to satisfy the public concerning the truth of the wonderful cure. Making his way to Deseronto Junction the reporter informed Mr. Ravin, the station master of the object of his mission. That courteous official having assured the reporter that he would find the case one of more than ordinary interest, kindly pointed out the nearest route to Mr. Wager's residence. The Wager family is one of the oldest in the Bay district, and Mr. Wager and his people are well known throughout a wide radius of country. Arrived at the house the reporter knocked at the door and was quickly admitted by Mr. Wagner himself, who it may be remarked, is in his thirty fifth year, and was formerly employed as a section man on the Grand Trunk Railway, his section extending east and west of Deseronto Junction. He was a good workman and faithful servant to the company. On the 28th of April, 1893, he was compelled, on account of ill health, to give up work completely. The doctor pronounced his trouble to be nervous palpitation of the heart. The district surgeon of the Grand Trunk Railway attended him and did all that medical skill could suggest in order to give him relief, but at the same time frankly told him that he could prescribe nothing that would effect a permanent cure. Mr. Wager was a member of the Grand Trunk Insurance and Provident Society, and during his illness received the usual pecuniary allowance given for a certain number of weeks to sick members. The society also paid his way to Montreal that he might consult an eminent medical man who acts as referee in such cases. This specialist at once pronounced his case as hopeless, cure was impossible. He returned home greatly dejected, and the Insurance Society paid him the whole amount granted to its members in cases of total disability. Mr. Wager has since that time resided at his home on the Gravel road, unable to work, seldom going from home except to make an occasional trip to Deseronto and Napanee. About three months ago Mr. John Ketchen, the well known section master on the Grand Trunk, who resides at Deseronto Junction, told Mr. Wager of the Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and recommended him to give them a trial. He accordingly procured a quantity of the famous pills in order to give them a trial. Now mark the result. He soon felt the good effects of this great medicine. His appetite improved. The flittering sensations about his heart appeared to be less pronounced. He continued taking the pills and his health steadily improved. The change became apparent to friends and neighbors and a matter of public interest. He gained in weight. As he remarked, last summer he was little more than a walking ghost, now as the reporter could easily see, he was a substantial specimen of humanity. Mr. Wagar informed the reporter that before he commenced taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills his heart used to beat rapidly and continue palpitating violently for some time if he attempted to cut even one stick of wood, now he can cut the daily supply of wood for the house without any disagreeable sensations. He feels himself a different man and his neighbors are all congratulating him upon the great change so plainly manifest. He expects as soon as navigation opens to commence work again.

Mrs. Wagar was present during the interview and corroborated her husband's narrative. They consider it a duty to publish abroad the virtues of this famous medicine which has brought such hope and comfort to their household. Mr. Wagar also told of a leading farmer in the neighborhood who had been troubled with a chronic headache, who, at his suggestion had also tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and had experienced relief in a very short time. Other cases in Deseronto and vicinity are known to the Tribune in which Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have been productive of much good. These pills are a perfect blood builder and nerve restorer curing such diseases as rheumatism, neuralgia, partial paralysis, locomotor ataxia, St. Vitus dance, nervous headache, all nervous troubles, palpitation of the heart, the after effects of la grippe, diseases depending on humors in the blood such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc. Pink Pills give a healthy glow to pale and sallow complexions, and have a specific for troubles peculiar to the female system, and in case of men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, or overwork. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills may be had of all druggists or direct by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., or Schenectady, N. Y., at 50c. a box, or six for $2.50. So that the company's registered trade mark is on the wrapper of every box, all imitations or substitutes alleged to be "just as good." Remember no other remedy has been discovered that can successfully do the work of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.
