LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLETS

Which Caught the Eyes or Ears of Free Press Reporters this Week.

—Last night was Hallowe'en.

—November—11th month of the year of 1894.

—John Matthews is about to retire from his flour and feed store.

—Mr. J. C. Hill has greatly improved the appearance of his store lately.

—The fine Indian Summer weather of the past week has been generally enjoyed.

—Three weeks more to fatten the turkeys —Thanksgiving, Thursday, 22nd November.

—Oakville gave all ratepayers who paid their taxes before 1st October a discount of ten per cent.

—Early to bed, also to rise, may make a man both healthy and wise: but if of wealth he'd gain the prize, he mustn't forget to advertise.

—Take a postal card once a month or so, send us the news from your locality. Fix it up any way and we will put it in shape for the printer.

—Lost—On Saturday last, a gentlemen's gold seal ring with lady's head on seal. Finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving at Grindell & Wright's Machine Shop.

—The Milton Champion is so rushed with orders for printing that it has found it expedient to put in power. A water motor has been introduced to run its presses.

—Oh o Tommy Nut, in your jacket brown, why do you hang in the beech nut tree? Oh, I'm waiting for brave Jack Frost, you see, he will come very soon to cut me down.

—Laing Bros., of Acton, gave a phonograph concert in the lecture room of the Methodist church on Tuesday night. The audience thoroughly appreciated the entertainment.—Oakville Star.

—It is rumored that an Orangeville hotelkeeper was about selling out last week and in order to rush the sale provided a number of the boys with quarters to boom the trade while the would-be purchaser was around. Sun.

The Parry Sound Star has just celebrated its twenty-second birthday. The Star is constantly on the alert to advance the interests of its town and the Parry Sound district generally, and its contemporaries rejoice in its prosperity.

—Have you brothers and sisters away from home? How could you please them better than to send the FREE PRESS for a dollar a year? It will keep alive the interests in the old home and family and will be the most eagerly looked for paper they receive.

The temperance evening at the Epworth League Tuesday night was profitably arranged by the Social Work Committee. The addresses of the President and Rev. Mr. Howell were practical and to the point. The hymns, quartettes and readings were all appropriate.

Mr. N. P. McLam has purchased the property of Mr. John Ahern on Main street. This is a fine residence and has always been regarded as one of the most homelike and attractive places in town. Mr. McLam appreciates it all the more because it is within a few yards of his birthplace.

The Criminal Code provides a penalty of $50 for dealers who sell pistols or air guns, or ammunition for the same, to persons under sixteen years of age. Dealers who sell such articles to any one, without making a record of the purchaser's name and some mark by which the weapons can be identified, are liable to a fine of $25.

—The receipt of notes of the following character are very encouraging to the FREE PRESS when all honest effort has been made to excel. "Box of stationery received and contents entirely satisfactory. We cannot get anything done here that is anywhere near your work for style and quality." ——Manager Traders' Bank.

—We have still a few pairs of those celebrated Mens' Long Boots at $1.00, also a grand line at $1.50. See them: it will pay you. All other shoes correspondingly low.—L. B. NELSON & CO.

THE NEWS AT HOME.

Mostly of a Local Character, and Every Item Interesting.

Killed While Coupling Cars.

Charles F. Davis, of Palmerston, who was employed on the staff of the FREE PRESS about ten years ago, met an untimely death at the Palmerston station by being crushed while coupling cars last week. Several years ago he left the printing business and was employed on the G. T. Railway. Deceased was 27 years old and leaves a wife and family of small children. His father was a faithful employee of the G. T. R., at Palmerston for about twenty years.

The Grenville P. Kleiser Recital.

The lovers of Dickens had a most enjoyable evening, Monday, at the town hall. The presentation of "David Copperfield," Dickens' favorite story, by Mr. Grenville P. Kleiser, was not only a literary treat but rendered more realistic this exciting tale to those who have only read the printed page. The impersonation of the characters, Wilkins Micawber, Fisherman Peggoty, Uriah Heep, and Mrs. Micawber, was very cleverly done. Mr. Kleiser is a young man of ability. The members of the A. O. U. W. have the satisfaction of knowing that they provided a very worthy entertainment.

Brick Church E. L. of C. E.

The efforts of Rev. Henry Caldwell S. T. L. on the Everton Circuit are bearing good fruit, especially among the young people. A week or so ago an Epworth League of Christian Endeavor was organized with the following officers and a fair list of members:—

HON. PRESIDENT—Rev. H. Caldwell, S. T. L.
PRESIDENT—Miss Amy Leslie.
VICE-PRES.—W. G. Gamble and John Snyder.
SEC-RETARY—Miss Ella Snyder.
TREASURER—Richard Johnson.

The society will meet regularly on Monday evening. A special Epworth League and Sunday School meeting is being arranged for Sunday evening, 11th November.

Death of a Well-Known Farmer.

The news of the death of Mr. James Aitken, of lot 7, Con. 2, Erin, on Sunday morning, was received with much regret by all who knew him. He had been afflicted with cancer for some time which rapidly developed during the past five or six weeks. Mr. Aitken was a native of Halton County and removed to Erin about forty years ago. His wife was the daughter of Mr. J. Sibbald, now residing in Toronto, and with five children survives him. Mr. Aitken was in every respect an upright, honorable man and enjoyed the esteem of all who were favored with his acquaintance. The funeral on Tuesday afternoon to Everton Cemetery was very largely attended.

J. E. Howell, M. A., will preach morning and evening.

Rev. G. B. Cooke Improving.

The many friends of Rev. G. B. Cooke will be pleased to know that he is gradually recovering his health, as the following note written on Monday, indicates:

DEAR MR. EDITOR—In your last issue of the FREE PRESS I noticed a kind allusion to my distressing and afflicted condition, but I fear the reference is somewhat misleading as to the nature of things, through lack of definite information. I might mention my trouble is acute fermentation of the juices of the stomach with excessive secretions of mucus. Troubles arising from exhitation and nervous debility. So far my diet has been only a little peptonized milk, but in another week my attendants hope my condition will be improved sufficiently to indulge me in something more substantial. I am still very weak and much reduced. With my warm regards to all kind friends, believe me, ever the same, yours, GEO. B. COOKE

Chicago, Oct. 26th, 1894.

The unanimous prayer of Mr. Cooke's many friends is that he may be speedily restored to his family and his parish here.

An Enjoyable Fraternal Visit.

A highly interesting time was spent last Friday evening at the meeting of Acton Temperance Union. The event was a visit from the Good Templar Lodge of Ballinafad. An excellent programme was carried out by members of the Ballinafad Lodge. Master Joe and Miss Emma Adams sang several pieces in a pleasing manner. Another feature of the evening was an interesting and instructive temperance address by Rev. T. H. Adams. At the conclusion of the programme refreshments were served by members of Acton Union and the meeting was closed by singing the National Anthem. All went away feeling that they had received much benefit in spending an evening in social intercourse and more interested in and more determined to aid the temperance cause. The Acton Lodge is growing rapidly as scarcely an evening passes without enrolling a number of new members.

Mr. Colling, Mr. Springer, Mr. Alton, sen., Mr. Anderson, of Hamilton, and other guests, and then the newly married couple left for Rochester, followed by the showers of rice and good wishes of a large crowd of friends assembled to see them off. The wedding presents were both numerous and valuable.

Miss Rosie Dick, accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. William Hunter, of Brampton, spent Saturday and Sunday at home.

Mr. Peter Milroy, who was a brother of Mrs. Henry Huffman, died on Thursday evening. A cold, which settled on the lungs, was the cause of his death. He was about 55 years of age, and this was the first time he was ever known to be ill. The remains were interred at Norval on Sunday forenoon.

The football club played a losing game at Ballinafad on Saturday afternoon. The score was 3 goals to none. However, the boys do not feel very bad over their defeat as their opponents were a much heavier team.

KNATCHBULL.

One of Nassagaweya's local sportsmen, going to mill a few days ago, took his gun along to try his luck at duck shooting on the mill pond. He secured a boat from the miller and got a young lad in the boat with him and set out to look for the ducks. Presently he saw one and took aim and fired at the duck which he killed, while he got the duckling, caused by the gun kicking him with such force as to upset him out of the boat into the water. The "wood" be sportsman had to swim to the shore. He had to go home in a "grey" suit of clothes. Fortunately he was no worse for his bath.

Miss Mary Taylor, of Nassagaweya, left on Thursday last for a visit to friends in Port Huron.

Mrs. Jas. Anderson, of Eden Mills, and Miss Clara Adamson, of Nassagaweya, are spending a few days with relatives and friends in Muskoka.

The farmers have been taking advantage of the fine weather and have been hurrying in their turnips, which are a very good crop this year.

The quarterly communion services of the Nassagaweya circuit will be held in the Ebenezer Church next Sunday at 10:30 a. m. The Rev. Mr. Amy will conduct the service.

Mr. W. J. Rudd, of Eden Mills, pulled a turnip-stone turnip that weighed 27 lbs. and measured 39 inches in circumference last week.

Mr. S. Barbaree, of Nassagaweya, is having a new barn erected in place of the one destroyed early in the summer by lightning.

ROCKWOOD.

On Monday there were two cases heard by Square Strange. The first was over a slight difficulty between W. Bennett and John and Joseph Crewson concerning a dog. It seems the dog has a bad habit of barking at passers by and some of the children are inclined to tease it. A few nights ago the two Crewson boys were passing Bennett's gate and the dog as usual barked and ran out at them. Bennett went out and caught one of the boys and gave him rather a severe shaking. For this assault Bennett was fine $1 and costs in all amounting to $4.25. He refused to pay it and his "committal" was written out. After this he forwarded the $4.25 but it was refused and he had to pay $4.75. He was then informed that if the "committal" had gone to the constable the extra charge would be $2.00.

In the other case a local spinster was fined $1 and costs, which amounted to $3.85, for disturbing the peace by entering one of the stores here and raising a row with the proprietors.

The turnip-shipping season is now on and the shipments, even at this season, are considerable. Last season Mr. Jos. Stewart, one of the dealers here, shipped about sixty cars. The other dealers of the village did equally well in their shipping.

Mr. J. Mutrie, son of Major Mutrie, M. P. P., has been engaged as teacher for '95 by the school section in which his father resides.

D. L. Scarrow has returned to Erafusa from Nebraska, where he has been living for the last fifteen years. He tells of the greatest suffering experienced by the inhabitants of that region through poverty and want. There are, he says, great numbers leaving the country and many more who wish to leave but have not enough money to take them out of the wretched place.

Great changes are being made in the business houses on the corner of Main and Guelph streets. The barber shop managed by A. J. Murray will occupy the place left by the tearing down of Mr. McCarthy's driving shed. Mr. J. Young has been engaged to transfer the barber shop from the present to its future site, and it is the intention to keep open on the regular nights as usual.

For some time he seemed to improve, but latterly has suffered much and his general health was very poor. Death ended his sufferings last Wednesday. Mr. C. V. Stafford has been with his brother ever since the operation.

BALLINAFAD.

Our hamlet is moving along about as usual. Every one is trying to mind their own business.

A rather painful accident happened last Friday. Mr. Dan Reid, one of our black smiths, had the misfortune to have one of his legs broken. He went to assist in raising a horse of Mrs. James Campbell that had got cast in a furrow in the field and the horse, in trying to get up, fell back and struck Mr. Reid on the leg below the knee, breaking the larger bone. He is doing nicely under the treatment of Dr. Martin, of Erin.

Cheap Effects

Are sometimes produced at the sacrifice of quality and real value. People are often lead into believing that they are buying cheaply when the goods, though low priced are really dear, not having quality to justify even a low price. By a "Bargain" we always mean goods that are under regular prices for equal quality—be they high or low. That's the principle of our buying. That's what's ensured us your confidence. That's why this store is always looked to for reliable goods. When we advertise "Bargains" they are genuine and not make-beliefs. Note the following specialties in Guelph's most attractive stock of
