Luxury condo possible for downtown Georgetown

By LISA TALLYN
Staff Writer

A Georgetown company is eyeing the McGibbon Hotel property for a mid-rise luxury condominium development.

Silcon Developments, a subsidiary of Georgetown-based SilverCreek Commercial Builders Inc., has an option to purchase the Main St. S., Georgetown property and is currently doing its due diligence to determine if the site would work for a proposed 88-unit condominium development. No application has been filed with the Town yet.

Under the proposal, the historic hotel structure would remain, and be a key component of the plan that is in the very early stages.

Don Jackson, V.P. and general manager of SilverCreek Commercial Builders Inc., said they are in information gathering mode for the project they call The X-CHANGE.

"We are very early in the process," said Jackson. "We're starting to gather opinions from the Town and interest groups to help us solidify ideas about the viability and potential design of the project."
