NOTES AND COMMENTS.

A. F. Campbell, ex M.P. P., for East Algoma, was the choice of the Conservative convention of Peel as a candidate in the coming Dominion election. Mr. Campbell is a man of wide experience in political matters.

The Herald nominates Mr. William McLeod, of Georgetown, as candidate in the Liberal interests in the coming House of Commons election. The people of the County generally are becoming anxious to know who the standard bearers of the respective parties are likely to be.

The salt men of Western Ontario have failed to enter into the combine which they have been agitating for the past few months. It is said the reason the proposition has not materialized, is that some of the large manufacturers wanted too large a portion of the proceeds. Salt will, so far as the recent negotiations are concerned, remain at the old figure.

The Newfoundland Government, it is stated, is daily holding caucuses for the purpose of considering a plan of confederation with Canada. There is considerable opposition among the party to confederation, but it is thought that confederation is the only feasible outcome. It is expected that a delegation will arrive by the next steamer to solicit terms from the Dominion.

In the Texas Legislature a bill has been introduced providing for the levying of a $50 annual tax upon all unmarried men of 30 years of age who under oath swear that they have not exerted due diligence in trying to get married. To be exempt from this act, however, if he remains single, he must produce the affidavit of some reputable woman that at least once a year he has made a proposal of marriage to her.

The Supreme Court of the United States has decided that the date of issue, and not the date of application for an American patent, determines whether or not it expires co-incidentally with a foreign patent granted for the same invention. The decision affects adversely many patents, notably in connection with the use of the telephone, the electric light and other valuable inventions, all told, it is estimated, representing six hundred millions of capital, which are by the decision held to have expired.

A KINDLY FAREWELL

Miss Lottie Hemstreet Accepts a Position in a Church Choir at Gloversville, N. Y.

Miss Lottie Hemstreet, daughter of William Hemstreet, Esq. accepted a situation as leading soprano in one of the churches in Gloversville, N. Y., last week. She is well qualified for the position, having taken a course in the Conservatory of Music at Toronto, and occupied the position of leading soprano in the Methodist Church Choir here for some time with great acceptance.

Her removal is regarded with genuine regret by the members of the choir and congregation here, but all unite in wishing her every success in her new home, and in all her efforts to render effectively the praise of God in sacred song. Miss Hemstreet left on Tuesday morning morning for Gloversville.

On Monday evening the members of the choir called upon her in a body, in company with Rev Mr Howell, the pastor, and after a few words of greeting Miss Lottie E Speight read the following address, at the conclusion of which Mr. J C Hill handed her a well filled purse:

MISS LOTTIE HEMSTREET

DEAR SISTER AND FRIEND,—It is with surprise and regret that we have learned of your intended removal from us. For many years you have been so intimately associated with us in church fellowship we can scarcely convince ourselves that the separation is to be really made. We will indeed miss your presence and voice in our services, and will often wish for your assistance in our public entertainments and social gatherings. We all recognize the fact that much of the success attending any church depends upon the efficiency of the service of song. To any success we have had in that line we have pleasure in assuring you that you have contributed very much. Therefore, as members of the congregation and choir, we desire at this time to unite in tendering you our heartfelt thanks for your efficient services and request your acceptance of this purse as a slight expression of our appreciation. We do not feel that it is any way compensates you for your services, but wish you to carry away some little token of our love and esteem.

We pray that God may continue his richest blessings upon you, that you may long be spared to use the voice he has given you to sing and help others sing, His praises: that joy, peace and prosperity may attend you through all the coming years.

Signed in behalf of the congregation and choir.

J. E HOWELL, Pastor.
JOHN C HILL, Leader.

Acton, March 11th 1895.

Miss Hemstreet replied very feelingly, after which complimentary references were made by the pastor, the leader of the choir and various others present. After an affectionate farewell the choir withdrew.

THE WESTON ACCIDENT

Due to Rules Leaving Too Much Discretion to Employees.

WESTON, Ont, March 11. The inquest into the railway accident which took place here on Feb. 8 was concluded late Friday night. The jury returned a verdict to the effect that the accident was caused by the rules and regulations of the Grand Trunk Railway not definitely enforcing the block system, the present system leaving too much discretion to despatchers, agents and operators, and that the danger signals now in force are not sufficient, especially when snow-scrapers are being used.

WOMEN AND MISSIONS.

Interesting Annual Meeting of the W.F.M.S. of Guelph Presbytery.

INDIAN MISSIONS REVIEWED.

The eleventh annual meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of this Presbytery was held in Knox Church last Thursday. About one hundred delegates were present, nearly every auxiliary being represented, as the following list will prove:—

ALMA—Mrs. T A Watson.

CAMPBELLVILLE—Miss Kate M. Reid.

ERAMOSA—Miss Mary R. Armstrong.

ELORA—Mrs H. Wissler, Mrs Thompson, Miss Vida Nairn.

FERGUS—Mrs Cole, Mrs Nelson, Misses Brooks, Aggie Clark, Drainie, Armstrong, Ewing, Samson, Mabel Clark, Maggie Green.

GALT—Mrs. A. Jackson, Mrs. W. Graham, Misses Deans, Minnie Clay, Vida Nairn, Agnes Veitch, Eliza Cant.

GUELPH—Mrs. S. Hodgskin, Mrs G. W. Field, Mrs R. J. Beattie, Mrs. A. McCallum, Mrs. J. C. Smith, Mrs R. H. Bryden, Mrs. Geo. Beattie, Mrs Lamie, Mrs. Moffat, Mrs Henry Loch, Mrs. James Galbraith, Mrs G. D. Pringle, Mrs. James Watt, Mrs. James Patterson, Mrs. Hugh Walker, Mrs Cowan, Mrs. Auld, Mrs. Lowry, Misses G. E. Smith, M. Macdonald, Little, E. Harvey, Ida Walker, B. McLean, C. Forbes, M. McCrae.

HESPELER—Mrs. Jane Snodgrass, Mabel Bolduc, Emma Richardson.

INNIS—Rev. J. Fraser Campbell.

LIMEHOUSE—Mrs. John Moore, Misses Lindsay, Jennie and Jessie Kennedy.

WATERLOO—Mrs. Brock, Mrs. McNair, Mrs. Bricker, Mrs. Scheuerman, Mrs. A. G. Habbick.

The majority of the ladies returned home the evening of the meeting, though some twenty five were billeted with friends here. Of course this list does not include the Acton delegates.

Mrs. Graham, of Galt, conducted a short devotional meeting in the morning, and at 11 a.m., the society met for business, Mrs. McCrae of Guelph, presiding.

Much regret was felt and expressed at the absence of Mrs. Mullan, of Fergus, President of the society, owing to ill health, and of Miss Kerr, of Galt, the Secretary, who was detained as the result of a serious accident. Her duties were shared by Miss Cant, of Galt, and Miss McCrae, of Guelph.

The president was assisted in the devotional exercises of the day by Mrs. Rae, Acton; Mrs Nelson, Fergus; Mrs. Graham, Galt, and Mrs. J. C. Smith, Mrs. Watt, and Miss Jarvis McLean, of Guelph.

The report of the Presbyterial Secretary speaks of interest being general, even though some auxiliaries report decreased membership by removal and death. One auxiliary and four mission bands have disbanded, reasons ascribed chiefly that "homes are so scattered that it is difficult to keep up meetings" or "removal of officers on whom they depend." Others report both membership and offerings larger. Taken as a whole there is a little advance on last year. Joy in the work, and pleasure in the meetings and willingness to assist were freely expressed. Missionary visits and thank offering meetings have special mention.

The Treasurer's report shows a total contribution as follows:

From Auxiliaries	[illegible]
Mission Bands	96 05
Collections at Acton	14 81
	[illegible] 91
Less expenses of Society	17 91
Total	[illegible] 25

This is an advance of $1[illegible] on last year.

The Secretary of supplies reports 12,000 lbs. of goods and clothing sent to Rev. A. W. Lewis, Mistawasis Reserve, valued at $470 and prepaid freight charges of $49. Galt will be the shipping place for next year as before. Mr. William Murray's kind assistance was thankfully mentioned.

The Leaflet Secretary reported that 951 copies of the Leaflet had been taken and paid for. Only three auxiliaries reported as not taking this useful missionary intelligencer. $114.12 had been sent to Mrs. Telfer.

Owing to lack of time only the reports of Mission Bands were heard in detail. They were read by the youthful Secretaries with great clearness.

The officers elected for 1895 were:

PRESIDENT—Mrs K. MacLean, Guelph.

VICE PRESIDENTS—Mrs. D. McCrae, Guelph, Mrs. J W Rae, Acton, Mrs. Horne, Elora, Mrs Watt, Guelph.

SECRETARY—Miss Kerr, Galt.

LEAFLET SEC.—Miss McCrae, Guelph.

TREASURER—Miss Helen Cant, Galt.

The speaker of the day was Mrs Harvie, of Toronto, Foreign Secretary of the W. F. M. S. Mrs Harvie needs no introduction to a meeting of this kind as her name is a household word. She has not been heard in this Presbytery since the formation of the Presbyterial Society 11 years ago and was warmly welcomed. Her topic was Northwest work carried on by this Society. She, with Mrs Jeffrey, Secretary of Supplies, were sent out last year for seven weeks to go over the field and investigate the whole condition of affairs. It would be impossible to give any idea of the graphic description she placed before the meeting during the two hours she spoke. Her eloquence, facts and appeals made a deep impression. It was very clearly shown that the clothing was an absolute necessity to the mission work. Without it schools would require to be closed. Instances of encouragement showing how the gospel is spreading, and the touching account of privations among the teachers and missionaries were given.

A most agreeable feature of the afternoon session was the recitation of Sullivan's "Lost Chord," with organ accompaniment, by Miss Belle Armstrong of Fergus, and a sacred solo by Miss Stella Drainie, of the same place, Miss Smith of Guelph accompanying them. These were well rendered, and very evidently enjoyed.

The evening meeting was addressed by Rev. J. Fraser Campbell, Missionary to India, and was largely attended. Rev. J. W. Rae was in the chair and Rev. Mr. Bryers and others took part. Mr. Campbell spoke most forcibly and earnestly for an hour and a half on his chosen field. The choir of the church led the musical part of the service.

The next annual meeting will be held in Waterloo.

The thoughtful arrangements and delightful hospitality of the ladies of Acton were much appreciated by the visitors.

HALTON SPRING ASSIZES.

... Master of the Glenwilliams Assault Case Acquitted. A Small Docket.

Halton spring assizes opened on Tuesday, Mr Justice Falconbridge presiding. There was nothing special in the presentment of the grand jury who reported having found the jail as usual in the best of order. True bills were found against Joseph Alexander McMaster of Glenwilliams, assault to do actual bodily harm and Frederick John Cross, Oakville, theft.

QUEEN v. McMASTER.

In this case a number of witnesses were called, all young men and women and according to the evidence the alleged assault by the prisoner on young Turner was a row between two boys as to which of them would escort a girl home. Verdict, not guilty. Counsel for prisoner, Mr. Shilton.

QUEEN v. CROSS.

The prisoner was charged with stealing a quantity of pump fittings belonging to Mrs. Graham from the old foundry at Oakville. He had bought the foundry with its contents, but had not received a deed. The question at issue was the ownership of the alleged stolen property and it was decided in the prisoner's favor, the jury returning a verdict of not guilty without leaving the box. Wallace Nesbitt, Q. C., counsel for prisoner.

G. WINN & SONS v. TOWN OF MILTON.

Suit for recovery of $600, instalment of bonus. Judgement reserved. To be argued at Toronto. A. B. Aylesworth, Q. C., and T. King for plaintiffs. Mr. Bicknell and J. W. Elliott for defendants.

LOCOMOTOR ATAXIA.

A DISEASE LONG HELD BY PHYSICIANS TO BE INCURABLE.

Its Horrors are Those of a Living Death. The Victim Helpless, His Torture Intense—Loses Control of Bowels and Bladder and is a Source of Constant Worry to Family and Friends. A Remedy for the Disease Discovered.

Mr. James McLean, a resident of Lefroy, Simcoe County, Ont., is known to every man, woman and child for miles around the vicinity of his home, and all know of the long years during which his condition has been that of a living death. Mr. McLean tells of his injury, his years of torture, and his subsequent release from the agonies of locomotor ataxia, in the following vivid language:—

"In the year 1880 I was thrown from a scaffold, falling on my back on a stone pile. I was badly hurt, and narrowly escaped death. Plasters and liniments were applied and I seemed to get somewhat better. But the apparent improvement was short lived. My feet began to get unusually cold, and nothing that could be done would warm them. The trouble then spread to my legs and from the waist down I was attacked with shooting pains flying along the nerves in thousands, and causing the most terrible torture for days and nights at a time. I could get no relief save from the injections of morphine. Six physicians treated me at different times, but appeared only to faintly understand my trouble, and could do nothing for my relief. Some of the doctors declared my trouble was rheumatism, but two of them said it was a disease of the spinal chord, that the trouble would get worse and that sooner or later my arms would become affected. This prediction proved true. My left hand dropped at the wrist joint and hung dead and cold, and I had no more control of it than if the hand were not on me. Fly blisters and electricity were resorted to without avail. My stomach was next attacked with a burning, aching, nauseating pain, causing the most distressing vomiting and I often thought I would not see morning. I have vomited almost continually for thirty six hours, and nothing but morphine or chloroform could deaden the anguish I suffered. But worse trouble was in store for me. I lost control of my bowels and water and my condition became most horrible, necessitating constantly the greatest care and watchfulness. I was now suffering from the top of my head to the point of my toes. I saw double and had to keep my eyes fixed steadily on the ground to make a step at all, and the moment I lifted my eyes I would stagger and fall if I were not grasping something. I could not take a single step in the dark. For nine long years I suffered all the horrors of a living death. In 1889 I was admitted to the Toronto General Hospital, where I was treated for four months. I was told that my trouble was locomotor ataxia and incurable and I returned home no better. After returning home I had further medical treatment, but with no better results than before. Finally I was given the following certificate of incurability:

Cre[illegible] July 24th 1893

THIS IS TO CERTIFY that James McLean has a disease of the spinal cord (incurable) that renders him unfit to obtain a living.

A. T. LITTLE, M. D.

About this time I was strongly urged to try Dr Williams Pink Pills, and oh how I wish I had known of this great remedy years ago! What anguish and torture I would have been spared! Soon after beginning the use of Pink Pills I found my self improving. The pains left me and I was able to discontinue the use of morphine. I regained control of both bowels and bladder and gradually a feeling of life returned to my legs and arms. I can now walk without the aid of either crutches or sticks and can take long strides. My stomach trouble has all left me and I can eat as heartily as ever in my life. My friends who never expected to see me about again are astonished at the wonder Dr. Williams Pink Pills have wrought in me. When I began the use of the pills my weight was reduced to 116 pounds and it has now increased to 1[illegible]. I am a new man and it is not possible for me to say enough in praise of your marvellous medicine. My wife also joins me in thanks, and says it was a happy day for her when I began the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as since then she has been able to get rest at night which she had not done for so many long years before. I hope Heaven may direct this into the hands of some other poor sufferer, who may find as I did release from a living death through your great life-saving remedy. Yours very gratefully,

JAMES MCLEAN.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a certain cure for all diseases such as St. Vitus dance, locomotor ataxia, rheumatism, paralysis, sciatica, the after effects of la grippe, loss of appetite, headache, dizziness, chronic erysipelas, scrofula, etc. They are an unfailing specific for the troubles peculiar to the female system, correcting irregularities, suppressions and all forms of female weakness, building anew the blood and restoring the glow of health to pale and sallow cheeks. With men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork or excess of any nature. Sold only in boxes bearing the firm's trade mark and wrapper (printed in red ink) and may be had of all druggists or direct by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont., or Schenectady, N. Y., at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2 50.

ROCKWOOD.

T[illegible], 12th Mar.—The many friends of Mr. Wm. Sharp will regret to learn of his death which occurred in Eramosa on Wednesday. He had been in poor health for about three years suffering from an internal trouble. It was not, however, until Sunday a week ago, that it assumed a serious form and although everything was done that medical skill could devise it was ineffectual.

Deceased was a native of [illegible], Aberdeenshire Scotland. He was engaged in farming in that country till about thirteen years ago when he and the family came to Canada. Shortly after coming to this country he resumed farming which he carried on very successfully with the aid of his sons. He was a widely known stock raiser. His reputation as a first class ploughman followed him to Canada and for a number of years in fact until he retired from competition he invariably carried off the first prizes.

He was a genial, whole souled companion, a warm friend, honest in all his transactions, and a firm adherent to what he considered right principles. He will be much missed in the township where he was so well known and respected.

He leaves behind to mourn his loss his widow, three sons and two daughters.

Mrs. W. H. Hutchins, of Parkhill, was the guest of Mrs. Dr. Dryden during the week.

HALTON FARMERS' INSTITUTE.

An Interesting and Well-Attended Meeting at Burlington.

The Farmers' Institute of Halton held two sessions at Burlington last Wednesday. The meetings were presided over by Mr. A. W. Peart, President, and among other prominent fruit growers present were: Messrs. Geo. E. Fisher, O. T. Springer, J. S. Freeman, Geo. N. Peer, Chas. Dynes, W. F. W. Fisher, secretary of the Institute and many others. In the afternoon about one hundred were present, and in the evening the large hall, holding about 400 people, was packed to the doors. The keenest interest and liveliest discussions were excited by the addresses by Prof. Fletcher, Dominion entomologist and botanist, who spoke on injurious insects and the character of the work carried on at the experimental farm at Ottawa, and Prof. Craig, the horticulturist, who gave addresses on fungus diseases and the fertilization of fruit blossoms. Mr. Holtermann, of Brantford, also was present, and gave a short, but interesting address on bees in relation to the fertilization of flowers.

CREWSONS CORNERS.

TUESDAY, March 12th.—The sale on the farm of the late John Bennett last Thursday was largely attended, and passed off successfully.

The young people are taking advantage of the bright nights in sleigh riding and coasting.

A certain young man takes extended excursions about a score of miles from here every two or three weeks. It looks rather suspicious.
