A Useful Life Ended.

The sad news of the death of Mr. George Williams at his home in Toronto Junction reached his Acton friends on Monday. Mr. Williams had been suffering for some time with affection of the lungs and his death was not unexpected. He was in the prime of manhood and was esteemed by all who knew him. During his residence in Acton he was superintendent of the Disciples' Sunday School. A wife and three children survive him. The funeral to the family plot at Everton on Tuesday was largely attended.

News of the Churches.

Mr. Cowan, a graduate of Knox College, preached in Knox Church last Sunday. His sermons gave evidence of careful preparation and were listened to with interest by the congregation. Mr. Cowan also conducted the prayer meeting on Tuesday evening. Rev. J. E. Howell gave an interesting review of the personnel and proceedings of the U. S. General Conference last Sunday morning. In the evening the anniversary service of the Epworth League was repeated from the programme carried out at Cleveland as far as possible. Mr. Howell's visit to Cleveland was much enjoyed. Rev. Mr. Black, a graduate of Queen's College, Kingston, will preach in Knox Church next Sunday.

Acton Leads the Ball Players.

On Saturday and Monday afternoons local lovers of the base ball game were given very good exhibitions in the park here. On Saturday the Argyles, champions of Toronto City League, played with the Actons. The game was closely contested, the teams being very evenly matched. The score was, however, in the home team's favor from the outset and stood at the close 7 to 14. On Monday afternoon a large crowd assembled to witness the match between the Spur Liners, of the Guelph City League, and the Actons. In the first innings it looked as if Acton would be bound to go down before the visitors and did so up to the fourth innings, when their fortune turned and at the close stood 14 to 21 in favor of Acton with an innings to spare. Mr. I. Francis acted as umpire on Saturday and Mr. W. A. Storey on Monday.

Pretty Wedding at Beamsville.

The Beamsville Reporter of last week gave the following information which will interest many FREE PRESS readers:—"The home of Mr and Mrs. John I. Charles, Rosedale Farm, was the scene of a pretty wedding at one o'clock on Wednesday, the 13th May, when his eldest daughter, Hattie Bernarda, was married to Mr. Albert E. Eddy, of Scotland, Ontario. The bride looked charming in cashmere trimmed with satin ribbon and silk lace, and carried a bunch of jacqueminot roses. She was supported by her sister, Miss Edith Charles, who wore cream cashmere and silk. Mr. Charles Eddy acted as groomsman. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. W. Cosens, in the presence of a large number of invited guests, after which a dainty dinner was served in the dining room. The presents were numerous and handsome. The happy couple left on the 6 o'clock train amid showers of rice and congratulations for Toronto and points east."

The New Bishop of This Diocese

Respecting Canon Dumoulin, the newly elected Bishop of the Diocese of Niagara, many complimentary remarks are being made. The Evangelical Churchman in its last issue says:—"If the Diocese of Niagara grudged their bishop to Ottawa, it may be said with at least equal emphasis that not only the parishioners of St. James, but the inhabitants of Toronto, will lament the departure of Canon Dumoulin. The Canon has been a most important factor in the ecclesiastical life of Toronto, and has quietly and steadily won his way to the first rank and the highest place. The Canon by his sober, steadfast and brilliant discharge of his duties, has quietly taken his place as one of the foremost if not one of the most prominent men in the Synod, and now he is regularly returned at very nearly the head of the list. And this testimony is the more remarkable since his voice is seldom heard in the Synod debates. When men who have comparatively no right to be heard, are wearying the ears and wasting the time of the Synod, this great orator is sitting quiet with a kind of cui bono look on his expressive countenance now and then rising to speak some weighty words, weighty and well weighed in their meaning and commonly eloquent in their expression. All the world knows that Canon Dumoulin is a great preacher, and the power of speech will certainly be no disqualification for the discharge of the duties of a bishop."

Another Acton Boy a Gold Mine Owner.

Reference was made in these columns a few weeks ago to the success of Mr. D. D. Mann, son of Mr. Hugh Mann, Acton, in his gold mining investments in British Columbia. The following from the Denver, Col., Republican refers to a gold mine of which Mr. W. Sidney Smith, son of Mrs. C. S. Smith, of Fairview Place, is general manager "Six prominent capitalists, of Cleveland, O., got into the city yesterday afternoon from Idaho Springs, thoroughly satisfied with themselves and a mining venture they made recently in that district. They are John W. Britton, president of the Britton Rolling Mills Company, of Cleveland, John U. May, of Stuart, Howe & May, manufacturers of "S H & M" velvet goods, with factories in London, Eng., and Cleveland, O., C. G. Barkwill, treasurer of the Columbia bank of Cleveland, A. A. Jackson, capitalist, Sidney Smith, capitalist and mining expert, and George G. Bowdon, attorney at law. These gentlemen have just invested $200,000 in the Sun and Moon group of mines on the Idaho Springs side of Seaton mountain, and have already enjoyed the satisfaction of seeing two tons of ore taken out of one of the six mines in the group run $998 net in gold. This ore came from a particularly rich streak 10 feet from the surface, says Sidney Smith, the general manager of the Sun and Moon Mining & Milling Company, and stuff like it will not, of course, be found every day in the week. It pleased the Cleveland men mightily, though, and they have numerous yellow nuggets to show their friends when they get back to Ohio, as a pledge of the dividends to come later."
