The Acton Free Press

THURSDAY, JUNE 18, 1896.

LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLETS

Which Caught the Eyes of Ears of Free Press Reporters this week.

Yes, there's an election next Tuesday.

—June roses have been profuse this year.

—A good advertisement is worth all it costs.

—Our boys play ball this season as though they meant it.

—The FREE PRESS will be twenty one years old next Thursday.

—The country presents a charming appearance everywhere now.

—Acton Temperance Union will give their annual park social shortly.

—The patrons' pic nic at Dublin yesterday was a most enjoyable event.

—An "ad" is like a pointer dog. It hunts up the game and brings it to its owner.

—The Georgetown Lacrosse Club defeated the home team in a friendly match here last Friday evening.

—In the world's broad field of battle, in the conflict of real life, advertising is the secret of achievement in the strife.

—Take an holiday yourself and do not forget to give your clerk one. It will pay. The clerk that it will not pay to give a holiday is unprofitable at any price.

—"Early to bed and early to rise, may make a man healthy and make a man wise, but as to "wealthy" it's enterprise, they have got to "hustle" and "advertise."

—Elgin street from Church to [illegible] has been turnpiked and the Council is now engaged in improving Church street with a view to utilizing that street for the traffic of the tanneries.

—The Ladies Aid of the Methodist Church will hold a Lawn Fete on the spacious grounds of Mr Arch. McNabb, on Monday evening, 29th inst., Acton Cornet Band will be present.

—A little more attention to the enforcement of the by-law relating to animals running at large would be appreciated by citizens. Several gardens have been devastated on recent nights.

—The G. T. R. authorities have effected a much needed improvement on their premises the past week. The closets which have so long been undesirably close to the platform have been rebuilt at the rear of the lot.

—Mr. James Barrie, who recently removed to Acton from Newmarket, has purchased from Dr. Lowry the fine block of twenty-five acres adjoining the corporation, east of the G. T. R. station. The price paid was $3,500.

—The FREE PRESS received yesterday from Mr. William Smyth, Midford, Muskoka, a stalk of rhubarb measuring 27½ inches from root to leaf, 4½ inches in circumference and weighing 18 ounces. Who says Muskoka is backward?

The Brick Church will hold its Sunday School anniversary on Sunday next, when the pastor, Rev. R. J. McIntyre, will preach at 2.30 p.m. On Wednesday, 24th inst., a pic nic will be held in McDougall's grove. An interesting programme has been arranged. Tea served from 6 to 7.30.

The barn of Mr. D. Douglas, a tenant on the Geo. McFarlane farm, 1st line, Esquesing, was destroyed by fire with its contents on Tuesday night. The young man lost nearly all his implements, his harness and pigs. $400 insurance on barn and $200 on contents. Cause of fire unknown.

—Mr. Asa Hall, who is the oldest scholar in the Methodist Sunday School here, had a place of honor on the platform, on Sunday afternoon. It was the first Sunday of his eighty seventh year. He spoke very feelingly of his connection with the church and school here from the time of their organization and wished them continued success.

The season of 1896 has commenced at Grimsby Park. A brilliant galaxy of names is embraced in the season's programme. In addition to many prominent Canadian speakers, the following popular and well known divines from the United States are on the list: Revs. Dr. Talmage, Dr. McIntyre, Dr. Hard, Dr. Ashley, Dr. Crofts, and others.

LOST—A bunch of keys. Finder will be rewarded by leaving them at the office of W. H. Storey & Son.

—Wall Paper Remnants at half price. Window shades complete 25c., Curtain poles all colors complete, 25c. at the drug store.

—Folks read ads now-a-days because they have found that the time thus spent is of more direct profit to them than any other part of a newspaper. This has simplified advertising, made it easy to do and certain of good results.

THE NEWS AT HOME.

Mostly of a Local Character, and every Item Interesting.

Minister of Education Visits the School.

Last Thursday morning during his stay in town the Hon. G. W. Ross, Minister of Education of Ontario, favored the Public School with an informal visit. He expressed himself much pleased with the school, the buildings and surroundings, and added many kindly words to teachers and scholars. The visit was much appreciated and will be long remembered by the principal, staff and the pupils.

Mr. Henderson's Home Meeting.

Mr. Henderson has been holding meetings throughout the county for several weeks, but his first public meeting in Acton will be held to morrow evening. A general invitation to the public has been extended by poster and this was reposted at Sir Charles Tupper's meeting at the G. T. R. station on Monday. The meeting will be addressed by Mr. Henderson and others. Chair taken at eight o'clock sharp.

The Actons' Again Victorious.

The match between the Actons' and Brampton last Saturday at the latter town resulted in another victory for the Acton's. The Brampton team was weaker both in battery and in fielding than their visitors and the game was very uneven throughout. The score stood 18 to 8 in Actons' favor. W. A. Storey acted as umpire. The Spur Liners, of Guelph, play here on Saturday. J. McGonegal will act as pitcher. This will be a fine game.

Prof. Welch's Visit.

Prof. Welch, phrenologist, of Toronto, spent last week in reading the bumps of numerous citizens of this community, small and great, old and young. His readings were invariably remarkable and true to the known peculiarities of the subjects treated. Prof. Welch proved himself a solon in the science of phrenology and won many friends. He is of most gentlemanly bearing and has testimonials as to his ability and character which are highly complimentary.

Prefer to Remain in Acton.

During the past two or three months Messrs. Arnold Bros. have been approached by no less than three municipalities with a view to the removal of their factory thereto. Blyth, Godrich and Brampton are the towns which are doing the courting. Each place offered attractive inducements to allure this industry from Acton. Mr. Arnold informs the FREE PRESS that these bids have little or no effect upon him and that he prefers to continue the manufacture of gloves, etc. in Acton.

St. Joseph's Church Pic-nic.

The annual union pic-nic of St. Joseph's Church, Acton, will be held in the park here next Monday. An attractive programme of sports is arranged and will include: Lacrosse match between the seniors of Fergus and Georgetown; a base ball match, Actons and Actinas of Guelph; bicycle races for ladies and gentlemen; running, jumping, putting shot, tug of war, Georgetown vs. Acton, etc. Hillsburg band and a good orchestra will supply music. A number of members of Parliament are expected to deliver addresses. Rev. Father Haley has the arrangements in hand and is determined to make the pic nic a success.

The Epworth League.

The annual meeting and election of officers of the Epworth League of the Methodist Church here was held on Tues evening. The following is the officiary elected for the current year:

Hon Pres Rev J E Howell M A
President Geo Vincent
Vice Pres C.E Dept Miss Walker
Vice Pres Missionary Dept. Mrs O. [illegible]
Vice Pres. Literary Dept T J Edmiston
Vice Pres Social Dept.—R J Gurney
Secretary C H Moore
Treasurer Clara Ramshaw
Organists—Annie Stephenson, Lizzie Aitchison

The League is in a prosperous condition, its meetings are invariably interesting and well attended. A new programme for the ensuing half year is now in preparation.

Twelfth of July Demonstration.

As stated some time ago the members of the L. O. Lodges of this county will hold their annual 12th July demonstration in the park here. The management has completed arrangements for a day of numerous attractive features. At one o'clock the procession will move through town to the park and the brethren and their friends will be addressed by Col. Kerns, M. P. P., Revs. J. W. Rae, Toronto Junction, P. T. Mignot, Milton; R. J. McIntyre, J. K. Godden, M. A., Wm. Bryers, Acton, and others. In addition to a long list of games and sports, a base ball match in the Halton Peel League series will take place between Acton and Milton. Other items of interest will also be included in the programme. Acton Cornet Band will be in attendance. A large number of visiting Orangemen are expected.

The Triangular Man.

The lecture by Rev. R. Hobbs, of Brantford, on the above subject in the Methodist Church last Monday evening was interesting and was highly enjoyed by those who were present. There was considerable interest and curiosity manifested as to the meaning of the title given to the lecture. The lecturer explained at the outset that his ideal of a triangular man was one well developed physically, intellectually and spiritually. In the development of these three features Mr Hobbs ably treated his subject, bringing out points of genuine interest and profit to his hearers. His lecture abounded in well told anecdote and illustration, was impressive, and had many eloquent periods. At the close a cordial vote of thanks was moved by H. P. Moore and Rev Mr. McPherson. The Ladies Aid, under whose auspices the lecture was delivered, appreciate very much the visit of Rev Mr Hobbs.

The Pastors and the Churches.

Rev J. E. Howell, M. A., was in his place on Sunday morning and preached an impressive sermon, touching the work of the third year of his pastorate just commenced. His text was well suited to the occasion being selected from 2 Cor 13 1, "This is the third time I am come to you."

Knox Church pulpit was filled last Sabbath by Rev Mr McPherson, of Galt, whose sermons last winter during the absence of the pastor were so much appreciated. Mr McPherson is an excellent speaker, full voiced, of pleasing manner, and commanding personnel. His sermons give evidence of careful study and are scholarly and impressive. Mr McPherson will spend a couple of weeks with the congregation preaching again next Sabbath. Rev. Mr. McIrvine, of Drumbo, occupied the pulpits of the Everton circuit very acceptably last Sunday. Rev. O. G. Langford, B. A., attended the meeting of the Baptist Association at Tavistock last week. Prof. Welch, preached a very acceptable sermon in the Methodist Church last Sunday evening.

—WOOL WANTED. The highest price in Cash or Trade for good clean wool. Can get an Trade, Factory Blankets, Yarns, Tweeds, and General Dry Goods. Wm McLean, Georgetown.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

News Items Supplied by Correspondents and Exchanges.

CIMEHOUSE.

Albert H. Moore, son of Mr. John Moore, has distinguished himself by contributing an interesting two-column article to the Montreal Witness last week on "How to make an Induction coil." A series of well executed drawings accompanied the article.

The garden party at the home of Mr. C. Meredith Tuesday evening was quite a success. Acton Cornet Band enlivened the proceedings with music. Messrs. Nickell and Smith also gave several selections. Rev. L. Perrin, Georgetown, delivered a brief address. The evening was pleasantly spent by all.

EVERTON.

Robert Talbot has sold his carriage horse to a firm in Montreal for $175.

A large number from here attended the Sunday School Convention at Rockwood last Thursday.

Spores of the Liberals from this section attended Laurier's meeting in Guelph last Wednesday evening and as many Conservatives went to hear Sir Charles Tupper on Monday.

The Epworth League held a very successful pic-nic in Mr. John Currie's grove Friday afternoon and evening. After the game in the afternoon the people sat down to a sumptuous repast provided by the ladies. After which addresses were delivered by Rev. Mr McIntyre, Mr. McEachern and others. Music was furnished by the Springe Choir and other talent. A very enjoyable time was spent by all.

ERIN.

A most successful convention of the Christian Endeavor societies in the Presbytery of Orangeville was held in St. Andrew's Church, Hillsburg, last week. There was a large number of delegates present from Erin, Ballinafad, Orangeville, Shelbourne, Corbetton, and other points. Some very interesting papers were read, and much interest was manifested in the work. The number in attendance at all sessions was large.

The Grits and Tories of Erin vied with each other in doing honor to their respective chiefs at Guelph on Wednesday and Monday. Horseback processions were the order.

When young gentlemen start from Acton to visit friends here their expectant hosts would like them to learn the way before hand and not load their way and disappoint them.

ROCKWOOD.

The Methodist Church, Rockwood, having been closed for some time undergoing extensive repairs, will be re-opened on next Sunday. Special sermons at 10.30 a. m. and 7 p. m. by Rev Thos W Jackson, of Fergus and special collections to assist in meeting expenses. On the Monday evening following, Rev. W. H. Harvey, B. A., of Clifford, will deliver his popular lecture entitled, "Here and There in the Eternal City."

A number attended the reception given Sir Charles Tupper in Guelph on Monday.

Some of the young people of Acton spent Saturday afternoon on the rocks here, driving home in the evening.

Miss Nicklin, of Acton, wheeled to Rockwood on Saturday.

Jack Cummings spent Sunday in Georgetown.

The Sunday School Convention in the Presbyterian Church last Thursday was largely attended. The programme was excellent and the president, Mr John W Byrne, made an excellent presiding officer. The tea provided by the ladies in the town hall was in every respect superior.

NASSAGAWEYA

Mr John Kitching and Miss Adah Easton were united in marriage last Wednesday evening at the residence of the bride's father, Mr Abram Easton, Rev. G. H. Cobbledick, assisted by Rev Wesley Kitching, performed the ceremony in the presence of a large company of intimate friends from Philadelphia, Guelph, Acton, Rockwood, Glencoe, Nelson, and surrounding country. As the bridal party came out on the lawn Miss May Scroggie, of Guelph, played the wedding march. The bride was handsomely dressed in cream henrietta, with silk and chiffon lace trimmings. She was supported by Miss Matt Scroggie, who looked charming in a gown of blue mousseline, and Reta Cobbledick, in white dot muslin, made a sweet little maid of honor. The groomsman was Mr. C. Kitching, brother of the groom. After the ceremony the company sat down to a recherche supper at which a most pleasant time was spent. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful presents, and hosts of friends wish their joy in their new relations.

The Nassagaweya Council have let several contracts through the township. Messrs. Robt Gee and Angus McTavish have several contracts to fulfil, one of gravelling the crossroad below Knatchbull which was let on Monday evening for a very low figure.

Nomination day (Tuesday) and the great judgement day one week later. There will be some anxious persons during the week.

The old maids seem to be making good use of this leap year for several have got off the old maid list to that of the matrimonial.

Mr. John Taylor, of Nassagaweya, raised the frame of a stable a week ago. Thomas R. Taylor did the stone work.

The Provincial Statutes for 1896.

The Sessional Statutes of Ontario for 1896 have been issued and are now being distributed by the "Printer to the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, Mr. L. K. Cameron." The volume contains 657 pages as against 804 of 1895.

The Paper's Never Read. Isn't It?

Ask some men for an advertisement inviting customers to their place of business and they will say they don't believe in advertising a paper is never read. Let one of them be caught kissing his neighbor's wife, or trying to hold up the side of a building sometime, and if the printing office is in the garret of a seventeen storey building he will climb to the top and beg the editor to keep quiet not to publish it in the paper. The paper is not read 'cept when the editor has those experiences with "some" men quite frequently.

Miss Augusta Cooke's Success.

The Toronto World says: "Last night a very large audience gathered in the large hall of the Bishop Strachan School, in College street to hear the piano and song recital given by Miss Augusta Cooke and Miss Ruby Jellett. It would be difficult to speak too highly of Miss Cooke's playing. No. 5 on the programme, entitled "Impromptu, C sharp minor," was simply exquisitely rendered and deserved all the applause so freely bestowed upon it." Miss Cooke is a daughter of the late Rev. G. B. Cooke, of this town.

A boy named John Buck was drowned Sunday while bathing in the Don.
