Acton Horticultural Society hosts its popular Plant Sale, 8 a.m. at the Bethel Church on Queen St. (Hwy. 7) in Acton.

Shrub, Planter and Coffee Sale in the Glen: 8 a.m. at St. John's United Church, 533 Main St., Glen Williams, supported by Sheridan Nurseries and hosted by the Glen Williams Town Hall Board and the people of St. John's United Church. This is a perfect opportunity to get great spring deals on quality shrubs, hanging baskets, patio planters and enjoy an early morning coffee and muffin too! But, you've got to come early! Info: 905-877-2531, www.stjohnsuc.ca.

5th BioDiversity Festival: free, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Georgetown Market Place. Come take part in World BioDiversity Day celebration. Halton Peel BioDiversity Network, our animal ambassadors and friends, will be sharing information on all things related to BioDiversity, including deepening your understanding of what BioDiversity encompasses (genes, species, ecosystems and the goods and services they provide). Information on the United Nations Decade on Biodiversity, and the International and Provincial strategies and action plans, interactive activities and crafts, what actions you can take to stop BioDiversity loss, and signing up for the GreenWave (and taking home your free native plant) are part of what will be hap-
