LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLETS

Which Caught the Eyes or Ears of Free Press Reporters this week.

—The scholars are enjoying the Easter vacation.

—Tenders are asked up to Saturday for the excavation for the new block on Mill Street.

—The first half of April was remarkably devoid of rain, showers seem now likely to be frequent.

—Relief concert in the town hall Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. Good programme, everybody invited.

—Conrad Hoff, of Milton, formerly of Acton, has rented the Stewartown tannery and a dwelling from W. H. Cross and will take possession shortly.

—"April showers bring May flowers," but you can't get your posies without planting your seeds. Sweet peas, verbenas, asters, sweet alyssum, phlox and balsams are all due in the ground now.

—Rev. J. A. McLachlan M. A., preached and able sermon on Sunday evening having special reference to the difficulty between the workmen and the employers at the tanneries. His position was very logical, scriptural and encouraging to the working-man.

OUR BOYS IN SOUTH AFRICA.

"D" Battery's First Engagement With the Boers, at Victoria West.

The following from Gunner W. J. Moore, dated Victoria West, Cape Colony, March 7th, will be read with interest:

We are just starting west from this point and in a few hours will be under fire from the Cape rebels. Our advance guard has just had a brush and killed 4, wounded 10 and captured 4, with no loss. The enemy took to their trenches in the mountains and before sunset will be shelled by "D" battery. We are now 490 miles from the Cape.

I wrote you last mail from Victoria West station, 8 miles from the town where we are now. We were met by the patriotic residents of the town and invited to a concert and supper and I am now writing this at the supper table in the town hall. The New Zealand boys escorted us and we met no resistance, but are in a rebellious settlement and will have to fight before to-morrow.

—Those who contemplate purchasing monumental or work of any discription for their cemetery plots should order direct from the old reliable granite and marble dealer J. H. Hamilton, Guelph, Ont. All expenses allowed to purchasers. All work and material warranted, competition defied.

NOTICE.

Miss Leslie regrets that her "Rhymes of the Kings and Queens of Scotland" will not be ready for some time, but as soon as they are out they will be distributed.

AT THE NEW STORE.

Just in—New Sailor Hats and Flowers, Kid Gloves, Black Crepons, Blister Effects. Also a line of Men's New Spring Hats and Fancy Ties at Special prices. HAYELMAN & KORMAN, Acton.

Mr. M. V. McInnes, Canadian Government Agent has just shipped one hundred and eight settlers and ten cars of stock and effects from Michigan.

James Clark, deputy returning officer at Hamilton for the vote on the waterworks by-law, was sent to jail for six months on Monday for stuffing the ballot box.

Five car loads of settlers and settlers' effects, valued at $15,000, arrived at Port Arthur from Illinois. These people are taking up land in the State River Valley.

THE NEWS AT HOME.

Mostly of a Local Character, and every Item Interesting.

Popular Relief Concert.

The citizens relief committee have arranged for a popular concert to be held in the town hall on Saturday evening; the proceeds to be utilized in affording relief to the tanners or their families, at present out of employment, who may require assistance. The community is invited at present.

Bright Easter Day.

Easter Sunday dawned with all the brightness and glory of full, warm sunshine characteristic of an ideal Easter morn. This glorious Christian festival was observed here with reverence and joy. The attendance at all the churches was good, and the special character of the services of the day impressed very forcibly the event commemorated. The warm spring weather attracted many out of doors who thoroughly enjoyed the first really warm Sunday of the year.

Knox Church Last Sunday.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed last Sabbath morning. There was a splendid attendance. Thirteen new members united with the church. In the evening an unusually large congregation assembled to hear a sermon on the present difficulty in the tanneries. Without any attempt to incite men against one another an earnest plea was made for that mutual recognition of rights that ought to be found between employers and employees.

Removing to Cheltenham.

Mr. James Clark, who recently leased the flouring mills at Cheltenham, has been in town this week removing his household effects to that place. The removal of so estimable a family from town is very much regretted. They were highly esteemed and valuable citizens. Mr. Clark himself served the corporation faithfully and in its best interests for two years, while Miss Clark and Miss Lexie Clark were ready at all times to use their musical talent in the interests and for the benefit of church and social circles whenever called. Socially the family occupied a high position. The best wishes of all go with them to their new home.

An Incipient Fire.

St. Alban's parsonage was the scene of a fire which might have been attended with serious consequences, but for the prompt and heroic actions of Rev. and Mrs. Goddard. About nine o'clock on Monday morning their baby boy, Percy, was playing in the parlor and it is supposed that he had found and lighted a match, which ignited the lace curtains and in a instant the room seemed to be filled with smoke and flame. The screams of the children brought the parents at once to the room and with the use of heavy materials the flames were soon subdued, but not before the carpet, paper on wall and ceiling and woodwork of the windows were badly burned. The loss was not large and will no doubt be satisfactorily adjusted by the insurance company.

Another Honor Won by the Crescents.

The championship won last season by the Crescent Lacrosse Club carried with it a prestige for the club and a manifestation of the popularity of its President, Mr. John H. Matthews, into the courts of the Association this year. The annual meeting of the Association was held in Toronto on Good Friday and the Crescents were represented by Messrs. J. H. Matthews, D. M. Henderson and R. J. McNabb. In the election of the Council of the Association for 1900 Mr. Matthews was not only elected one of the ten members for the province, but received the third highest vote among the thirty-one candidates for the coveted positions. Mr. Matthews and the Crescents are to be congratulated upon this evidence of popularity and knowledge of lacrosse by Mr. Matthews.

Sixty or Seventy Years in the Family.

Away back in the thirties the late Graham Lawson, sr., came to Canada from the Highlands of Scotland, secured from the Crown the farm and water-privilege, lot 24, con. 4, Esquesing, a mile below Acton, and gave the place the name by which it has ever since been known, Glen Lawson. At his death his son, William Graham Lawson, secured the property, and after his death it came into the hands of his son, Graham Lawson, Jr., who has since had possession, the last twelve years. For the first time the property has gone out of the hands of the family. Mr. Lawson disposing of it a few days ago to Mr. Robert Sprowl, whose property adjoins it on the north. Auctioneer Hemstreet conducted a sale of implements and effects for Mr. Lawson last week, and everything was disposed of at very satisfactory prices. Mr. Lawson, with his family, will shortly remove to Acton.

Death of a Former Esteemed Resident.

Last Wednesday, Mr. Daniel W. Campbell, died suddenly from an attack on inflammation at his residence, lot 13, Con. 3, Esquesing. The many friends of Mr. Campbell in Acton and vicinity are pained at this sad news. From the spring of 1874 until October 1888, he was a useful and respected resident of Acton. Mr. Campbell ran the planing mill now owned by Mr. John Cameron, for a number of years. For several terms he served as a member of the municipal Council and there proved himself ready to sacrifice personal interests while serving his fellow-citizens in a public capacity. Mr. Campbell removed to Guelph in 1888, and several years ago went farming on the property where he died. His wife and the following family survive: Mrs. J. A. Schroder, Elmira, Ont.; John, at Brantford; William H. at Milton; Florence, nurse at Buffalo State Hospital; Helen at home, and Margaret in the Public Library at Buffalo. The funeral on Good Friday afternoon was very largely attended.

St. Alban's Church.

It is a pleasure to report that the services for Easter Sunday came quite up to what they were announced to be. The church itself was neatly and appropriately decorated, and the music was well rendered by the choir, and the ever-faithful organist Miss Stone was apt and ready, and the whole service including the communion service gave evidence of great joy and rejoicing for the blessings conveyed to mankind through the Resurrection. At the evening service the combined choirs of St. Alban's and St. John's, Rockwood, numbering about 15 voices, gave an excellent service of music, bringing out in full volume the beautiful anthem "Head Out Thy Light" as well as the special hymns and other music, chants, etc, chosen for the occasion, the organ being ably presided over by Mr. J. R. Wallace. The sermons were appropriate to the day, and both services were listened to by large congregations. After service, both choirs repaired to the parsonage for light refreshments, where heartfelt thanks was tendered to all by the Rector, for their assistance throughout the day.

THE BIG STRIKE STILL ON.

The Tannery Firms and the Employees Both Determined not to Surrender.

Never in the history of Acton has the community been so stirred as during the past week over the strike in connection with the tanneries and warehouses controlled by Beardmore and Co., and the Acton Tanning Co. If a memorial tablet be erected in Westminster Abbey, as has been suggested in England, to the President of the South African Republic on account of his actions resulting in uniting the British Empire, so on Acton Town Hall a similar one might be placed in honor of those controlling the firms above mentioned, because of the united feeling of sympathy produced in the community for the men who went out on strike, because they felt they could not live and do justice to their families on $1.10 per day.

In our last issue we outlined the steps taken on Tuesday when we fixed higher wages, and the grounds held by the men and the firms for their respective attitudes. The men look at the prosperous times in the country in general, and the firms claim that the keen competition prevailing prevents their compliance with the request of the men.

During the week the men have met daily and have kept together in a remarkably united matter, considering the fact that they are only bound by the ties of mutual honor. Another remarkable and commendatory phase of the situation is the fact of the very peaceful and honorable demeanor observed toward the firm, their property and the few individuals who refuse to leave work. In this they are holding the high esteem of the community.

The strong and practical sympathy of leading citizens, professional and business men and others, public and private, have largely helped to mould this quiet, inoffensive attitude. All honor to the men.

Last Thursday a committee of the men elected a strong and influential delegation of citizens to present the matter from the citizens' standpoint. After various attempts to obtain an interview with the proper officials, an audience was at last granted on Tuesday afternoon with Mr. W. D. Beardmore, of Toronto, the recognized head of the institution, at 5 p m.

The members of the committee placed the matter in every conceivable phase before Mr. Beardmore and his local managers, Messrs. McCrail and Dunn, but had to report to the strikers at 6 p m, as Mr. Beardmore's ultimatum that "We will accede to no request from men on strike. It is a matter of principle with our firm not to be coerced." This decision was reached after advancing arguments as to competition, cost of bark, etc., on one side, and the low wages offered compared with those generally being paid on the other.

The men having heard the report of the committee decided to abstain from arriving at a final decision until after a meeting called for 9.30 yesterday morning. When, after obtaining the personal views of every man of the large gathering in the hall, the unanimous decision was to hold out. Thus, at this writing, the matter stands.

Many are already obtaining better positions elsewhere, and the citizens are providing in a liberal manner to aid any who may feel a pinch in the situation. A large relief committee was appointed at a grand mass meeting on Monday night, when clergy, physicians, business men and other prominent men gave hearty sympathy with the men. The men are keeping well behaved. The firm offers to reinstate them at old wages if they return, but the man say "No."

Among the strikers who have already left town are: George Osburn, Dufferin Bingham, Arch. Green and Frank Kelley to Sault Ste. Marie; Robt. Moore and John Hitcock to Toronto; James Dunbar to Guelph, and Herman Eulenstein, to his home west of Berlin, and a large number of others, especially among the unmarried men, declare their intention of leaving town in the course of a day or two.

WIDENING MILL STREET.

This Matter Comes Before the Council and Must be Decided.

Council met in regular session Monday evening. Members all present except Reeve Pearson and Councillor Clarke. Councillor Williams was moved to the chair.

The Committee on Finance presented their sixth report and recommended payment of the following accounts:

Robert Perryman, work on streets	$ 50
T. T. Moore, postage	1 00
Bell Telephone Co.	0 30
John Harvey, freight, etc.	6 05
Elias Rogers, coal for fire engine	7 10
	$16 95

Moved by John A. Henderson, seconded by Robert Wallace, that the sixth report of the Committee on Finance just read be adopted.—Carried.

A communication was received from R. D. Warren relative to the Council's intention with reference to the proposed widening of Mill street from John to Main, and offering to agree to the widening at the point covered by the lot recently purchased by him, where the survey comes seven feet six inches on to his lot for $125.

Owing to the small attendance at the meeting no action was taken.

Council adjourned at nine o'clock.

This Store's Advertising.

You have noticed perhaps the general absence of bargain hysteria in this column. Every week almost, we direct attention to certain goods retailing at special prices. Such statements are always accepted literally. We have yet to note a case where things so advertised failed to command trade, and results would probably be more substantial in proportion as we gave larger space to details.

But it answers our purpose best to appeal directly to the intelligence of shoppers something published prices never do. Who shall determine the excellence of this thing at 50 cents, or that at $1.00, unless the goods are first seen and examined? What shall prevent irresponsible dealers from trading upon the credulity of the public by printing stuff that has no basis in fact.

A critical comparison of qualities side by side with the prices is necessary in deciding whether the purchase would be a money-saving or a money-losing transaction to the purchaser.

The province of this store now, then, is to suggest. It tells of a store that is particularly wide awake in the customers' interests, that tolerates no double dealing nor sliding up of prices in order to bring them down again.
