DELAYED FOR ELECTION RETURNS.

In order to present our readers with as full a report as possible of the result of the elections yesterday, the issue of the FREE PRESS to-day has been delayed a few hours.

LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLETS

Which Caught the Eyes or Ears of Free Press Reporters this week.

—Farmers are busy getting in their turnip crop.

—The brick work of Dr. Kelly's new surgery is about completed.

—Esquesing Township Council will next meet on Monday, 26th inst.

—Sacramental services were held in the Methodist Church last Sunday.

—The election is over and everything is assuming normal conditions again.

—Dr. McKeague has had electric light installed in his residence on Frederick Street.

—Mr. W. Hawthorne has kindly handed the FREE PRESS copies of Collingwood papers.

—The first flurry of snow of the season came on Monday afternoon. It was accompanied by a fierce gale.

—Rev. J. M. Hager, M. A., Acton, and Rev. John Saunders, M. A., Georgetown, will exchange pulpits next Sunday.

—A meeting of the Trustees of Acton Public School will be held in the Free Library next Monday evening at eight o'clock.

—The brick layers are at work on the third store in the Warren Block. They are likely to have cold fingers before they get through.

—In the absence of Rev. H. A. Macpherson, who is in Muskoka, Rev. R. Pogue, of Hespeler, will preach in Knox Church next Sunday.

—Rev. H. A. Macpherson preached anniversary sermons in West Essa on Saturday. Rev. Mr. Smith, of Bradford, preached in Knox Church.

—Sixty-three tickets were sold at Acton station on Monday to citizens who went down to Toronto to witness the city's wonderful welcome to the soldier boys from South Africa.

—Owing to increasing business Messrs. Cooper & Atkins, merchant tailors, will remove next week to the store on Mill Street now occupied by Mr. Geo. Hovel, boot & shoe merchant.

—The Milton Reformer entered upon its sixteenth volume last week. The Reformer is a very worthy local weekly and its editor and publisher, Mr. R. White, is one of the most hardworking news paper men in the province. May success continue to reward his efforts.

—While driving into Postmaster Matthew's yard with a load of hay Monday evening Peter McIsaac had the misfortune to have the reach give way and the team with the front wheels of the wagon walked off, leaving the load across the willow Street sidewalk where it remained until next day.

—Messrs. Humphries & Hawke have received the following letter which indicates very clearly the high class their flour takes: "I was awarded your special prize at Nassagaweya Fair. I also baked with your flour for prizes awarded at a number of other fairs and secured numerous prizes on bread and buns, and you may be sure I shall advertise your flour well for you."—CLARA BELL, Stewarttown.

—When Sir Wilfrid's train was at the station on Monday a well known yeoman from Erin ran into the train as it was about to start and grasped the Premier's hand.

"Your name, my friend?" said Sir Wilfrid, with a bright smile.

"Donald McLean."

"A good name that."

"Aye, sir, and a good Grit, too!"

THE NEWS AT HOME.

Mostly of a Local Character, and every Item Interesting.

Settles in Dauphin, Man.

Mr. John L. Kribbs, who went out to Brandon, Man., a year or two ago, writes that he has purchased a farm in Dauphin and will move up to it this week. The farm is about fourteen miles from Dauphin and six from Hilton, and the locality is settled with Ontario people. He is two miles from Lake Dauphin and two miles from the postoffice. His Ontario friends will wish him every success in his new home.

Canada's Premier at Acton.

Although the time-table for the Premier's special tour through the province on Monday did not include Acton in its schedule, the special train stopped here for a few minutes and Sir Wilfrid Laurier was greeted by a considerable number of his admirers and supporters. Sir Wilfrid came out upon the steps at the rear of his car and was presented to a large number of citizens. The ladies who were fortunate enough to be at the depot are quite proud of having received an introduction. As the train was moving out three lusty cheers were given for the Premier, and Sir Wilfrid then proposed "Three cheers for Mr. McKinnon, the future member for Halton," which was most heartily responded to. A large number from this vicinity went to Rockwood to hear the Premier there.

Death of a Halton Pioneer.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Wm. Rorke, who died suddenly on Wednesday, 31st Oct., took place on Friday morning from her late residence on Front Street, Guelph, by G. P. R. to Milton, thence by hearse to the family plot in Palermo cemetery. There the remains were laid to rest beside her husband, who predeceased her twenty-three years ago on the 1st November. The service at the house was conducted by the Rev. Canon Dixon. She had reached the ripe age of eighty-seven years. She leaves to mourn her loss six of a family, viz: Mrs. Donald McDonald, Acton; James, South Bay City, Michigan; Mark, Oxford Street, Guelph; and Mary, Marcella and Maria at home. The deceased with her late husband, settled in Trafalgar, near Palermo, about fifty years ago. The family sold the homestead and removed to Guelph nineteen years ago this fall, where they have resided ever since.

An Esquesing Pioneer's Death.

Probably the largest funeral ever seen in the neighborhood of Glenwilliams was that of the late John Leslie on Monday afternoon of last week. The procession was so long that the last vehicle had scarcely left the Leslie Farm when the hearse had reached the Glenwilliams cemetery, about a mile away, where the interment took place. Services were conducted at the residence by Rev. L. Perrin, of the Georgetown Presbyterian Church and Rev. W. McKay, of the Presbterian Church of Norval. The pall-bearers were nephews of deceased. The late Mr. Leslie, whose death occurred on Friday afternoon, 26th Oct., after an illness of about a week, was in his 89th year, having been born on March 1st, 1812, in County Tyrone, Ireland. When a boy of about five years of age he came to Canada with his parents, who settled in Esquesing Township, in 1819. There the deceased remained for the balance of his active life, with the exception of about two years spent in New York State. He was one of the most respected pioneers of Halton. He was over forty years an elder in the Presbyterian Church at Union, and assisted in building three churches, the first one being of logs, the second of frame and the present one a handsome stone edifice. The deceased was married on Sept. 25th, 1834, to Miss Jane Starrett, also a native of Ireland, who with nine children survive.

The Political Meetings Here.

The candidates in the contest which concluded last evening may congratulate themselves upon the success, the large attendance and the general good character of their meetings here. Mr. McKinnon's meeting last Friday evening was attended by an audience which crowded the hall. Able speeches were delivered by Hon. Richard Harcourt, Minister of Education, and Hon. Thomas Bain, late Speaker of the House of Commons, which the audience listened to with much interest. Mr. McKinnon presented his claims for support and made an excellent impression. Mr. John R. Barber, M. P. P. also spoke a few words in praise of Mr. McKinnon, and ex-Warden John Warren occupied the chair. The proceedings were enlivened with patriotic songs capitally rendered by Mr. Charlie Spalding.....Mr. Henderson's meeting on Monday evening was also well attended and, like that of his opponent, was graced with a large number of ladies. Ex-Reeve Nicklin was voted to the chair, and Mr. Henderson in an exhaustive speech showed the alleged failures and mistakes of the Government and made an impassioned appeal for the support of his fellow-citizens. His speech was a very able and eloquent effort. His boyhood's friend, Wm. Laidlaw, Q. C., Toronto, spoke in his behalf, emphasized the points presented by Mr. Henderson, and bespoke the support of the electors for him. J. C. Hill's orchestra played a number of selections. The hall was gaily decorated on each occasion.

Sudden Death of Miss Maggie Wilson.

For several months Miss Maggie, eldest daughter of Mr. James Wilson, Main Street, has been in poor health. In the summer she spent a month with friends at Forest but returned home without improvement. She was able to be about most of the time and last week spent a day or so at her old occupation in the Canada Glove Work. She walked down street on Thursday, but on Friday, not feeling as well as usual, was not out. She got up on Saturday morning, but during the forenoon was stricken with a severe affection of the heart, and before noon became unconscious. She lingered until the evening when her spirit took its flight. Miss Wilson was in the prime of her bright, young womanhood, just past her twenty-first year. She was a favorite with all the young people; an active Christian, and a worker in Epworth League, Sunday School and Temperance Society. Her death makes a sad break again in the family which was so sorely bereaved in March of last year through the accidental death of the eldest son, Robert, but the heartfelt sympathy of the community is with them. Among the floral tributes placed upon the casket were one by the Epworth League and another by her shopmates. A unique and feeling incident in connection with the funeral service on Monday afternoon, which was very largely attended, was that the duties of pall-bearers were tenderly performed by six of Miss Wilson's classmates belonging to Mrs. Francis' Sunday School class—Misses Amelia Husband, Annie Bingham, Alberta Brown, Maud Dills, Ada Johnson, and Mabel Nelson. Rev. Jos. M. Hager, M. A., conducted the funeral services.

John McTaggart, V. S., Campbellville, is ailing from typhoid fever.

Mr. S. F. McKinnon's last meeting in the county was held at Brookville on Monday evening. Mr. John R. Barber, M. P. P., H. W. Cook, and Mr. McKinnon addressed a large and enthusiastic audience.

The Rev. A. Blair, B. A., preached in Chalmers' Church, Guelph, last Sunday. His pulpits here were supplied by Rev. Frank Gillespie, of Knox College.

EVERTON.

Miss Ramsey, from near Hamilton, Mrs. Brand's sister, is spending a month or so at the parsonage at the Stone Church.

Mrs. J. Weatherston went to visit two weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Hugh Eveleigh.

Dr. G. A. Abbott spent a few days of last week in Rockwood.

Miss Congdon and Mr. H. Turner, of Campbellville, and Miss Congdon, of Guelph, spent Sunday with B. Congdon's here.

Mrs. McLean left Tuesday morning to spend a few weeks with friends in Guelph and Hamilton.

On account of the election on Wednesday the Epworth League held their weekly meeting Sunday evening when Mr. Hogg conducted the service giving an excellent paper on the subject for that date "Are you doing your best?" After which the secretary called the roll, it being the first meeting in the month. There was a good attendance and all enjoyed the meeting.

ASHGROVE.

Mr. Charlie Dick left last week for Buffalo, where he hopes to secure a situation.

Mr. A. E. Gurney, of Acton, spent Sunday here.

Messrs. E. F. Nixon and G. F. Wrigglesworth went to Toronto on Monday to help welcome the soldiers.

Hallowe'en passed even more quietly than usual here.

Mr. A. G. Robinson writing home from Niagara Falls, N. Y., says Canadians don't know anything about election campaigns. Arches the line processions, etc., are of daily occurrence.

Mr. Andrew Anthony's sale of farm stock and implements which was postponed from Nov. 1st, will be held on Friday, 16th.

The re-opening services in the Methodist Church were quite successful. The building was not large enough to accommodate all of those who came in the evening. Rev. Mr. Brown will remain to assist the pastor in two weeks of special services. A number of young people from Milton spent the day here and attended the services.

GEORGETOWN.

Rev. J. M. Hager, M. A., of Acton, will preach anniversary sermons in the Methodist Church next Sunday.

Mrs. T. J. Wheeler, was at Orangeville last week attending the funeral of her sister, Mrs. B. McGuire, sr., mother of Mr. B. McGuire, editor of the Banner of that town.

Messrs. Speight & Brady are building an automobile.

R. J. Creelman is putting in a new Polson engine which will double the power of the machine shop.

A school children's concert will be held at Stewarttown this evening.

Norval Presbyterian Sunday School has engaged the services of Mr. Frank Yeigh, of Toronto, for a selopticon exhibition tomorrow evening.

Election excitement will soon be a thing of the past.

Rev. E. A. Vesey has accepted the incumbency of St. James' Church, Guelph, and is expected to take charge there next Sunday. His removal from St. George's is regretted by the congregation.

On Monday morning Sir. Wilfrid Laurier was given an enthusiastic reception as his special train reached the G. T. R. station. A tremendous crowd thronged the station platform and overflowed the railway tracks. Resounding cheers went up when Sir Wilfrid stepped out to the rear of the car. Mr. John Harriman, the well known manufacturer, of Toronto, introduced the Premier, and made a brief speech. Frantic cheers went up when Sir Wilfrid came forward. A lovely bouquet was placed in his hands, and he hesitated this he spoken few words in simple and eloquent language to the crowd.

Sent Down for Being D. & D.

Alfred Budd was charged by Landlord Guyette last Saturday with being drunk and disorderly and using threatening and abusive language. The case was heard before justices Havill and Pearson, the charge proven, and Budd was sent to gaol for two months. Budd was liberated last week from the county gaol after serving a couple of months on a previous charge.
