THE NEWS AT HOME.

Montly of a Local Character, and every item interesting.

Death of a Former Citizen.

Mr. Charles Willson, who was manager for Messrs. Beardmore & Co., here, a couple of years, some sixteen or eighteen years ago, died suddenly from heart disease last Thursday morning. For a number of years Mr. Willson has been a member of the well-known firm, McDonald & Willson, dealers in gas and electric fixtures, Yonge St., Toronto. He leaves a widow, a son and a daughter.

Our Local Marksmen.

A shooting match at live pigeons in the park last Thursday afternoon was enjoyed by a number of our local nimrods. The score was as follows:

J. Evans	7 out of 8.
Edw. Nicklin	6 out of 7.
Jas. Smith	7 out of 8.
A. J. Gentles	5 out of 7.
T. Cameron	7 out of 9.

An effort is being made by those interested to hold matches every other week.

A County Farmer's Profitable Load.

Mr. H. W. Cook, ninth line, Trafalgar, who is known as a live progressive farmer, has struck it rich this time. The other day he took a load of Alsike clover to Milton from which he realized the handsome sum of $437.50. Seven dollars per bushel was the price paid, and Mr. Bruce, of Hamilton, was the buyer. The load was the product of fourteen acres, and Mr. Cook still retains five bushels for home use.—Oakville Star.

A Worthy Citizen Removes.

Mr. John T. Elliott, who settled in Acton several years ago, when he retired from farming, has removed to the Scotch Block and will reside with his son, John, there. Miss Elliott, the daughter who was keeping house for him, after successfully passing the examination for entrance, at Hamilton City Hospital, was admitted to take a course as trained nurse a month or so ago. Mr. Elliott has since been living alone here. He has been a highly esteemed citizen, and his many friends regret his removal from amongst us. He has rented his residence and other property here.

Died at No. 2 Model Hospital, Pretoria.

A letter from Sergt. Dill McKerrihan of the Royal Canadian Regiment, brother of Mr. Bert McKerrihen, Toronto, written on the 30th October at Pretoria, and forwarded by Toronto friends to Mr. T. T. Moore on Monday, said that he had heard from a member of "D" Battery that Gunner Moore was ill. He visited him at No. 2 Model Hospital on the 30th and found him suffering from the fever but quite hopeful that he would be able to leave for home with "D" Battery at Christmas. Sergt. McKerrihen left for home about the first of November and consequently did not hear of Gunner Moore's death before embarking. No doubt letters will arrive giving full particulars in a week or ten days.

Annual Meeting—Knox Sunday School.

The annual meeting of Knox Church Sunday School was held on Monday evening. Encouraging reports of the work of the past year were presented by the officers. The election of officers and teachers for the coming year resulted as follows:—

Superintendent—Wm. McPhail.
Asst. Sup.—John J. Lawson.
Secretary—Miss Hazle Wallace.
Asst. Sec.—Ed. Ryder.
Treasurer—John H. Kennedy.
Librarian—Miss Maggie Wallace.
Organist—Miss Jennie Smith.
Asst. Organist—Miss Russell.
Leader of song—J. J. Lawson.
Teachers—Rev. H. A. Macpherson, Mrs. C. H. Smith, George Hynds, Mrs. Polster, Miss C. McPhail, Miss Anderson, Mrs. John H. Matthews, Miss M. Lambert, Miss Russell, Miss Annie Hynds, Misses Mary and Sarah McClure.

Laing Bros.' Motion Pictures.

Last Thursday's Port Hope Guide reports the entertainment given in that town last week by Laing Bros., who give the Christmas entertainment for the Methodist Sunday School here, as follows: "The audience thoroughly enjoyed the entertainment given by Laing Bros. at the Grand last evening, and pronounced it first-class in every respect. The pictures were exceedingly clear, bright and no doubt the steadiest ever seen in Port Hope. Among the most pleasing features of the evening were, the entire list of war scenes, "Astronomer's Dream or Man in the Moon," "High Diving, Milan," the backward motion of which caused much amusement. "The Storm at Sea" was extremely realistic and received well merited applause. Probably the most amusing scene of all was "Frightened by Spiritualists" and served as a "rib-tickler" for the most solemn person present. Taking the whole entertainment into consideration, it was the best of the class ever given here, and those who were not there missed a treat."

Methodist Ladies' Aid Parlor Concert.

This event which has been a topic of considerable interest to the ladies the past month reached a very successful and enjoyable consummation on Monday evening. "Moorecroft," the spacious residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Moore, was thrown open to the friends of the Ladies' Aid who bestowed their patronage. The attendance was large and the proceeds very satisfactory. The programme was ideal for an entertainment of this character and was manifestly enjoyed throughout. Mrs. Rews, of Milton, sang with great acceptance. Her selections were "Hosanna in Excelsis," "The Swallows" and "The Heavenly Dream," to which were added a couple of encores. Mrs. Rews was in splendid voice and she excelled all past efforts here on this occasion. Her kind acceptance of the invitation to sing in her old home was very much appreciated. Miss Allie Laing, who has a rich contralto voice, sang with excellent effect "Mission of a Rose." Mr. J. B. Wallace, Manager Merchants Bank, rendered several piano selections both of the classical and popular classes, in a manner which proved him to be a most skillful pianist and afforded much pleasure to the audience. Mr. Wallace also accompanied Mrs. Rews and Mr. Ed. Moore. Mr. Harry Jeans brought down the house with "Beanlan's Swing Song," which was ably sung in his rich tenor voice. His encore was also most acceptable. Mr. Ed. J. Moore, the son of the house, sang very creditably a Spanish serenade, "Nita Gitana," and by request "Her Majesty," to which very generous applause was accorded. The piano and violin duetts by Miss Hill and Mr. J. C. Hill were most happy in their character and well suited to the occasion. No item on the programme called forth more favorable comment than the cornet and piano numbers by the little twin daughters of Mr. Wm. Mason, Lottie and Hazel. The purity of tone and skillful fingering of the little lady cornetist was remarked on all sides. The Sunday School Orchestra filled an important and appreciated part in the programme. Misses Speight and Smith played their accompaniments in their usual acceptable manner. Mr. H. P. Moore read a memorable selection, "The Deacon's White Turkey," and Rev. J. M. Hagar, M. A., made a model presiding officer.

Farmers' Institute Meetings in Halton.

The Ontario Department of Agriculture has arranged for meetings in Halton as follows: Nelson, January 12th; Hornby, January 14th; Brookville, February 5th; Kilbride, February 6th; Palermo, February 7th, and at Oakville on February 9th. The deputation for these meetings will be J. E. Orr, of Fruitland and T. H. Mason, of Staffordshire. Mr. Orr will take up the fruit interests and the insects and fungi which attack fruit and trees and Mr. Mason will speak on a variety of farming topics. Halton County last year had 404 members and 2545 persons attended the seven meetings held under the auspices of the county institute.

A Very Narrow Escape.

Last Saturday morning at seven o'clock Mr. Ed. Kingsbury met with an accident at the G. T. R. crossing on Mill street which narrowly escaped being attended with fatal results. He was crossing the tracks with his team and coal waggon and was waiting on the main line for a freight on the north switch to cut to allow him to pass through. It was just at dawn and above the crossing there was standing the engine of another freight blowing off steam, and in the dim light and steam and noise Mr. Kingsbury failed to notice the rapidly approaching Chicago express due half an hour before. It thundered along and crashed into the rear of the waggon. The waggon was smashed to atoms; Mr. Kingsbury was thrown out and dazed for a moment or two, but the horses escaped with a small scratch on one of them. Mr. Kingsbury attributes his escape from death or serious injury to the fact that when the engine struck the waggon he desperately clutched the lines and hung to them. The waggon was a new one. The rear axle, all the wheels and the box were badly smashed. The escape with these results was fortunate indeed.

Knox Church Parlor Concert.

In the interests of the Ladies' Aid Society of Knox Church, Rev. and Mrs. Macpherson extended the privileges of the Manse for a parlor concert on Friday night of last week. This society has done remarkable service to the church during the year about to close, but they were a few dollars short of the amount arrived at in the beginning of the year and decided on the above plans of closing the year's work as they wished. We are pleased to say that through the kindly response of the congregation and others the amount is more than realized. A splendid programme was rendered during the evening and all present expressed themselves as delighted with the entertainment. Following are the names of those who helped to entertain the company: Miss Clark, Rev. W. H. McAlpine, B. A.; the Arthure family, Miss Pauline McPherson, Mr. D. M. Henderson, Misses McPhail and McClure, Mr. John Hill and Miss Hill. Of the above named ladies and gentlemen Miss Pauline McPherson, of Hamilton, was a stranger to an Acton audience. She is a young lady of more than average ability as a reader and we bespeak for her a promising future. The Ladies' Aid and Rev. and Mrs. Macpherson wish to thank all who took part and also those who by their presence helped to make the concert a success.
