THE NEWS AT HOME.

Mostly of a Local Character, and every Item Interesting.

Three Months in Gaol.

Arthur Frank, alias George Smith, aged 17, who recently stole articles from his employer at Hallinsfad, was committed to gaol, and pleaded guilty before Judge Hamilton, to the charge of stealing a watch from W. Wyley, Hallinsfad. The boy's sentence was three months at hard labor. He is an English importation and was brought out by Lyle's Home, Toronto, a year or so ago.

A Premature Rumor.

There was a rumor in town last week that Mr. James White, drover, Erin, had died from the effects of a serious accident which befell him while boarding a train at Erin with a car of cattle. Messrs. J. H. Matthews and F. McMillan went to Erin on Sunday to attend the funeral, but they learned that Mr. White was living and, though his injuries are serious, he is in a fair way to recovery.

Her Late Majesty—In Memoriam.

The death of our late beloved Queen was a leading topic in all the churches on Sunday. Fitting references were made to Her Majesty's life and attainments, and glowing tributes were paid to her superior character and successful reign. Gratitude to God was expressed for having spared her to the empire for so many years, and for the important advances in moral and spiritual matters, as a result of her godly conduct and rule.

Saturday A Public Holiday, 2 to 4 p. m.

In concert with the towns and cities of the empire Reeve Williams has proclaimed Saturday a public holiday and day for mourning, and has requested all business places to remain closed between the hours of 1 and 4 p. m. This is out of respect to the memory of our late beloved Queen Victoria. A union memorial service will be held in the town hall at 2 30 at which brief addresses will be delivered by the local ministers. Citizens generally are requested to attend this service.

Georgetown Sunday School Visits Acton

Half-a-dozen sleigh loads of officers, teachers and scholars of Georgetown Methodist Sunday School braved the force west wind and the stinging cold on Tuesday afternoon and visited Acton. They drove into town with flags flying and horns tooting and joyous shouting about three o'clock. The Methodist school room was warmed and the officers and teachers gave them a cordial reception. Words of welcome were spoken by the pastor, superintendant and Ave Hall, Esq., after which the ladies of the school regaled the visitors with coffee and sandwiches. Mr. H. W. Kennedy, B. A., the enterprising superintendent, expressed thanks for the greetings and the lunch and hoped Acton school would again visit Georgetown. It is needless to say that the day was most enjoyable to the scholars, and the older people seemed to enjoy themselves just as fully. Before leaving for home a tour of the town was made. Our citizens will be pleased to see the joyous throng come again.

The 44th Annual Convention.

The forty-fourth annual convention of Halton County Sunday School Association will be held in Knox Church, Burlington, next Thursday and Friday, 7th and 8th February. The citizens of Burlington extend a very cordial invitation to Sunday School workers generally to be present and enjoy the convention and their hospitality.

A Godly Woman Laid To Rest.

After a couple of months of serious illness from an affection of the liver, Elizabeth Leslie, wife of Isaac Snyder, lot 6., con. 3., Erin, fell peacefully asleep. The funeral was held on Monday afternoon to Silcom Methodist Church, where she had been a constant attendant since the erection forty years ago—and was one of the largest assemblages ever seen in the vicinity. A brief service was conducted at the home by Rev. W. B. Holden and Rev. R. Powlis, Erin. At the church Rev. Mr. Holden preached an impressive sermon from the words, "To die is gain," Phil. 1: 21. Mrs. Snyder's consistent and helpful Christian character and influence and her loyalty to the church were tenderly referred to. Rev. J. M. Hager, M. A., Acton, and Rev. Dr. Hindley assisted in the service. The pulpit was neatly draped with black. Mrs. Snyder was the daughter of James and Lydia Leslie and was born at Glenwilliams on Sept. 10th, 1832. When about five years of age her parents moved to the farm at present owned by Mr. Joel Leslie. On February 7th, 1855, she was married to her sorrowing husband, and early in March of the same year they settled on the homestead where she died. She was a godly woman and was one of the first and most faithful members of the Silcom Church, Mr. Snyder being the last one left of the original members. Ten children, six sons and four daughters blessed their union, of whom the following survive: James E., of Churchill; Mrs. Fred Stewart, Elfrida; and David, George and Ella. Her children and the community rise up and call her blessed. The bearers at the funeral were Messrs. Adam Snyder, Mt. Forest; Wm. Snyder, Elora, Benajah Leslie, Thamesford; Robt. Leslie, Chingucousy; and George and Joel Leslie. A large number of friends from a distance attended the funeral, all the brothers and sisters of the deceased being present.

"The Missionary Outlook for the Twentieth Century" is described by Dr. Arthur Pierson; an illustrated account is given of a famous English prison, the Old Bailey, with its many tragic memories, and numerous other interesting articles make up a noteworthy number. Now is the time to subscribe. Toronto: William Briggs. Montreal: C. W. Coates. Halifax: S. F. Huestis. $2.00 a year; $1.00 for six months.

Premature speculation is but the remembrance of sorrow.

OUR MUNICIPAL LEGISLATURE.

The Business of An Important Session Last Monday Evening.

Council met on Monday evening in regular session. Members all present. Promptly at eight o'clock Reeve Williams took the chair and proceedings were opened.

The Committee on Finance presented their second report and recommended payment of the following accounts:

R. W. Chisholm & Co., coal	$129 55
G. T. R., freight and duty on coal	87 21
McColl Bros., cylinder and dynamo oil	33 50
United Electric Co., repairing transformers	10 35
Edward Kingsbury, teaming	14 25
The Acton Free Press, job and adv.	11 00
John Harvey, freight and hartage	5 50
C. C. Speight, rent of polling booth	2 00
T. T. Moore, supplies	2 02
C. C. Speight, constable polling day	1 00
	$321 53

Moved by H. Swackhammer, seconded by H. Jeans, that the second report of the Finance Committee, just read, be adopted.—Carried.

Moved by John A. Henderson, seconded by George Hynds, that the petitions to His Honor, the Lieutenant Governor, and to the Legislative Assembly, for the passing of an act to authorize the issue of Debentures for the sumof $60,000 to pay the floating debt of the Village of Acton, be signed by the Reeve and the Clerk, and that the official seal of the corporation be affixed thereto.—Carried.

Ex-Chief Harvey presented the annual report of Acton Fire Brigade—published in the FREE PRESS several weeks ago—and introduced Chief Gamble, elected as his successor.

Moved by John A. Henderson, seconded by Harry Jeans, that the report of Acton Fire Brigade for the year 1900 be received, and in doing so the Council desires to extend its thanks to Mr. Harvey and members of the brigade for their services during the past year.—Carried.

Moved by George Hynds, seconded by H. Swackhammer, that Mr. Thomas Gamble be appointed Chief of the Fire Brigade, as per election of the brigade at the annual meeting, and that J. J. Lawson, V. S., be appointed Fire Warden for the year 1901.—Carried.

Moved by H. Swackhamer, seconded by H. Jeans, that H. P. Moore be re-elected a member of the Free Library Board, for the ensuing three years, as one of the Council's representatives.—Carried.

The matter of the tariff for the electric light current was given considerable consultation, and will be looked into in all its details. The meire system is being considered.

The question of the legality of the Transient Traders' By-law, at present in force, was spoken of in view of the fact that when last put into effect the County Judge quashed its penalty. The members of the council thought the by-law was no hardship to business men who are likely to be bonafide citizens, and who have permanent residence in view, especially as the $50 licence fee is recouped in taxes due on stock and premises, in due time.

The constable was instructed to enforce the by-law.

Council adjourned at 9.45.

LOCAL BRIEFLETS.

—February—tomorrow.

—Good steady winter weather and good sleighing this week.

—The 24th of May is to be perpetuated as a permanent national holiday.

—The skating rink is being well patronized now by both skaters and hockey players.

—Mr. D. Henderson, M. P. was on Monday elected a Director of the Dominion Fence Company, of Toronto.

—A number of the members of the Acton Council Royal Templars of Temperance will go to Milton this evening to pay Milton Council a fraternal visit.

—Knox Church, Guelph, which has been closed for the past six months, was re-opened on Sunday. The total cost of the improvements is about $21,100.

—Messrs. W. Parnell, James Barry, Jos. Lynd and James Hall have applied to the military authorities for positions on the South African Constabulary Forces.

—By Reeve Williams' proclamation all business is requested to be suspended during the hours of the funeral services of our late beloved Queen, Saturday afternoon from one to four.

—W. J. Lee, merchant tailor, is adding the department of ladies, tailoring to his business and to this end is taking special lessons from Mr. Jos. Atkinson, of Toronto, late of New York.

—According to reports Mr. William Mullin heads the list with a most successful brood of spring chickens. On the 31st January he had eleven healthy chicks hatched from a setting of twelve eggs.

—The Gunner Moore Memorial Fund continues to grow. The following sums were received since last issue: Pupils Acton Public School $1.75; Capt. M. Beattie, Campbellville, $1.00. Total to date $169.80.

—The Young People's Societies of Guelph Presbytery have agreed to raise $100 for the Century Common Fund. The Acton Society will contribute that amount alone through the regular channel.—Presbyterian Review.

—The Methodist Church was very artistically draped in black and had a large oil portrait of Her Majesty also draped, for the memorial service to Queen Victoria on Sunday. Messrs. Gurney Bros. deserve credit for their artistic effort in this matter.

—Mr. Washington Lorne, lot 14, con. 1, Erin, an old resident of that township, passed away at 11 o'clock Sunday night. He was stricken with paralysis last summer and was similarly attacked that evening, the attack terminating fatally about two hours later.

—In the absence of Rev. H. A. Macpherson at Collingwood last Sunday, Rev. Dr. Hindley, of Churchill, preached in the morning and Rev. Mr. McKay, of Norval, in the evening. The morning service partook largely the character of a memorial service to Queen Victoria.

—At a meeting of the Executive of Acton Branch Bible Society in the office of Mr. A. T. Brown, secretary, on Monday evening it was decided to hold the annual meeting in Knox Church about the end of February. Rev. G. O. Pidgeon, B. D., of Streetsville, has been asked to deliver the address.

—The annual meeting of Halton Union Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Co., was held in the town hall on Monday afternoon. A good year's business was transacted, but the number of fires were in advance of previous years, and there was a small deficit at the end of the year. The Halton's prospects are good, however, and the company is popular.

Had I but bestowed half the pains in learning a trade that I have in learning to be a scoundrel I might have been a rich man at this day.

IN MEMORY OF OUR LATE BELOVED QUEEN.

Victoria now has breathed her last,
Her glorious reign on earth is past—
She now has gained that blissful shore,
Where earthly crowns are worn no more.

She died on earth; but living still
She reigns a Queen on Zion Hill;
Noble and Good; her work well done,
She wears the crown that Jesus won.

When s'er he died, with latest breath
He conquered satan, sin and death.
And won eternal crowns for all
God's children, ruined by the fall.

A daughter true, a faithful wife
As ever breathed the breath of life—
A loving mother; gracious Queen,
The best the world has ever seen.

She ruled by love o'er land and sea,
Home of the brave, home of the free;
No slave within her realm was found,
Nor could one stand on British ground.

Beloved by all, both near and far—
She prayed for peace, she hated war,
She lived to see her labour crowned;
By bands of love her empire bound.

She now has left her earthly throne
To dwell within her Heavenly home:
We'll often think of our dear Queen,
E'en while we sing "God save the King."

And oft our prayers to God will rise,
That He will make King Edward wise;
To walk the road Victoria trod,
And lead the nations up to God.

And now to all her kindred dear
We send our sympathy sincere,
From this, our native northern clime,
In this their sadly solemn time.

May God the Spirit, source of love,
Bring comfort to them from above—
And in the coming by and by
May we all meet with them on high.

Where Kings and Queens and subjects all,
The true, the good, both great and small,
Shall live and reign, nor part again.
"God save our King." Amen. Amen.
