W.I. presents award to 4-Her

Doris Calder, a member of Silver-Wood Women's Institute (W.I.) presented the first Ben Case Award to Matthew Williamson at the 2013 Halton 4-H Awards Night.

This new award is sponsored by the Silver-Wood W.I. to recognize a 4-H member who demonstrates a positive, determined, and consistent effort while aiming to reach their 4-H goals and who displays a keen club spirit, is mindful of others, and strives to be the best they can be.

Ben Case, a longtime resident of the Silvercreek and Wildwood communities, was a loyal supporter and friend of the Silver-Wood W.I. for many years. Upon his death, he left a bequest to the branch and it was decided a 4-H award in his memory would be a fitting tribute to Silver-Wood's only honorary male member.

The Women's Institute, formed in 1897, is a non-political, non-religious organization for women over 16 who are interested in personal growth and community action. For more information about the WI, check the provincial website: fwio.on.ca. For more information about the Silver-Wood branch, call Linda, 905-877-9579 or Donna, 905-877-0592.
