

Do you know who we are?

Do you know who we are? Local resident Rob Boleychuk is seeking information on the names in this Grade 3 class of 1965-66 at Harrison Public School. Teacher Vera MacDonald is standing to the left. If anyone can help with IDs, email Boleychuk at boleyr@hotmail.com

Event for new Seniors Centre members May 27

By FLORENCE RIEHL
Georgetown Seniors Centre

If you have volunteered in Georgetown in any capacity, you should have received your invitation to the "Thanks a Latte" Community Volunteer Event to be held at the Gellert Centre, Tuesday, June 10, from 6-8 p.m. If not please contact Terri Forbes at the centre. This year the occasion is somewhat different. First off it is being held IN THE EVENING and is sponsored by the Town of Halton Hills which they do every four years. This recognition replaces the Acton and Georgetown Senior Centres Volunteer Tea. If you plan to attend please register by June 1.

On Tuesday, May 27, we are having a "New Members Gathering," an opportunity for all new members to come together to review life at the centre and share a cup of tea and goodies. It also provides an occasion to learn more about activities offered and how you can get involved in your centre.

The Town of Halton Hills continues to seek public input for the "Vision Georgetown" Project. This is a planning process for lands that are part of the Georgetown urban boundary for expansion. How can you participate? Attend a Land Use Concept workshop being held at our centre, Wednesday, May 21, 10-11 a.m. Be a part of planning for your Town!

The Travel Desk has become a popular spot now that we have had some nicer weather. Right now we are promoting the Butternut Trail (June 17), Hamilton Harbour Cruise (July 15), A Closer Walk with Patsy Cline (Aug. 13), and Cabaret (Sept. 11).

You need to sign up at least four weeks before the event. Drop by the Desk and talk with us. Look for a new flyer very soon.
