Mostly of a Local Character, and every Item Interesting.

Re-organization Meeting of Tennis Club.

A meeting for the re-organization of the Tennis Club here will be held in the Council Chamber on Wednesday evening, April 3rd. All interested in re-organizing the club are requested to be present. The meeting will commence at 8.00 o'clock sharp.

Lasby, lot 1-1 32, con 3, Esquesing, a mile above Acton, will take place next Wednesday, 3rd April, at one o'clock. Mr. Lasby has had much success with the stock he has raised and the animals to be offered at this sale will no doubt be readily picked up by breeders of thoroughbreds.

A Popular Pastor.

The Hamilton Herald has the following to say of a well-known pastor: "Rev. T. Albert Moore is popular with the people of Zion Tabernacle, and they have unanimously invited him to remain pastor of the church for another year. At a meeting of the quarterly board last night, the following resolution was passed: "That four months having elapsed since our board invited the pastor to remain a fourth year, it appearing that our congregation unanimously agrees with the action of the board, we most heartily stand by our former resolution, and earnestly desire the Stationing Committee to accede to our requests."

Her End Was Peace.

After several months of patient suffering Mrs. Daniel Smith peacefully passed away yesterday morning at her home on Main street. Her ailment was of a cancerous nature. Mrs. Smith was a lady highly esteemed by all who knew her and during her twelve years' residence here made many friends. In her home she was happiest and she was a wife and mother beloved. She was the daughter of the late James Kirkwood, sr., Erin, and sister of Mr. James Kirkwood ex-M. P. P. and was married to her bereaved husband thirty years ago. For a time they resided in Chingucousy, then in Kilbride, and removed to Acton from Stewarttown. Her husband and family of five children survive her. Miss Annie, who has occupied a position as head milliner at Thorold for some time, James, Jennie, and the twins George and David. Mrs. Smith was a member and energetic worker in Knox Church. The funeral will be held this afternoon at three o'clock. Interment to be made at Fairview Cemetery.

Mr. Macpherson's Report to Presbytery

At the recent meeting of the Presbytery at Galt Rev Mr. Macpherson, who is convener of the committee on "Church Life and Work," presented the following report: "We are glad to say that 22 reports out of 24 were received and that the answers were very satisfactorily given. As to the home life encouraging reports were offered, but yet it was acknowledged that the home life was interfered with by secret societies, and the growing materialism of our time. The want of family religion was adduced as a chief cause of declension of religion in the home. Of young people and their interest in church life, it was said by one session that it was of the love they had for the work itself. There is great encouragement in congregational work, the attendance growing, but the prayer meeting attendance has not increased. This was deplored. The reasons of every encouragement was attributed to the work of ministers and elders, and the harmony and co-operation of the members. The support of the schemes was discussed at length. The effect of the Century Fund was spoken of as not having produced, as yet, any spiritual effect on the majority of congregations. As to temperance agitation there was none. Yet it was reported that the cause of temperance was advancing."

Death of Mrs. Robert Flanagan.

The sad news of the death at her home in Lowell, Mich., of Mrs. Robert J. Flanagan, nee Miss Hattie A. Lasby, reached the friends here on the 14th inst., and Mr. Joseph Lasby, who was over to the funeral, brought particulars of her death upon his return last Friday. Mrs. Flanagan was ill only a week with pneumonia and died on Wednesday, 14th inst. Mrs. Flanagan was a daughter of the late Oliver Lasby, sr., and was born at Acton on April 17th, 1854. On Dec 22nd, 1875, she married Mr. Flanagan. They settled in Lowell, Mich., in 1882, and here Mr. Flanagan has built up a large and successful manufacturing business. Mrs. Flanagan was the mother of two children, Charles, who died ten years ago at the age of 11, and Irma, aged eight years, who survives with her father. The Lowell Journal says: "During her residence among us Mrs. Flanagan has endeared herself to many by her admirable traits of character. Modest and retiring she was not one to be a leader, but her native charity in thought, speech and action has been the key of her character. Loving and domestic her home has been her kingdom and in her home she found her greatest happiness." The funeral was held from the home on Saturday afternoon and was attended by a large concourse of sympathizing friends. The Rev. S. T. Morris, conducted the funeral and preached a very edifying and comforting sermon, paying at its close an eloquent and deserved tribute to the deceased."

Mr. Joseph Perkins Bereaved.

The Brockville Times thus refers to Mrs. Perkins, the late wife of Mr. Joseph Perkins, formerly of Acton: "Mrs. Jos. Perkins died this morning in the Brockville General Hospital, aged thirty-three years and four months. The deceased had been in failing health since last August. At that time she was stricken with paralysis, and although she rallied for a time, the attending physician held out no hope of ultimate recovery. About a week ago Mrs. Perkins suffered another stroke, and her life gradually ebbed away until death finally put an end to her sufferings. Mrs. Perkins bore her illness with remarkable fortitude and resignation, and although unconscious at last her calm, resigned manner betokened a peaceful passing away. The deceased was a daughter of Andrew Armour, Esq., of this town. She came to Brockville with her parents from Scotland several years ago, and has since continuously resided here. On Dec. 24th, 1894, she was married to Mr. Jos. Perkins, a popular cutter in the Ontario Glove Works, who, with a family of three sons, survive, the eldest being four years and the youngest ten months. Mrs. Perkins was a faithful member of St. John's Church, and her kindly Christain character exhibited itself in her every walk of life. Among her numerous friends she was extremely popular and the bereavement which has fallen on the young husband is a heavy blow." Mr. Perkins will have the sincere sympathy of his many Acton friends.

ROCKWOOD.

Fred Smith, Rockwood, bought last week from A. & J. Campbell, Minto, a three-year-old heavy draft at $150, and a road horse from Wm. Whitmore, Minto, at $165.

GEORGETOWN.

The body of Charles Kent has been found in his house, at Elkhorn Man., with hi brains blown out. He was the only son of William Kent, of Norval, Ont., and had only been in Manitoba since last summer. He lived on a rented farm.

Last Wednesday, Mr. J. P. Hutton, of Huttonville, near Brampton, passed away at the residence of his daughter here at the age of 80 years. The deceased carried on a large business at Huttonville for many years and took an active part in municipal matters, at one time being warden of the county of Peel.

CREWSONS CORNERS.

Spring freshets, robins and maple sugar making have been ushered in by the mild weather of this week.

Mrs. Johnson, of Guelph, spent a few days during the week at Mr. Wm. Carro's.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ramshaw, of Lowville, spent Friday visiting their son, Jas. Ramshaw.

Mr. Robert Perkins, of Huntsville, is visiting friends in these parts.

Mr. John H. Crippe, who had his hand so badly cut in the saw mill here some weeks ago, is slowly improving.

Miss Maud Ramshaw, of Dorvie, is visiting her sister, Mrs. R. L. Johnston.

ERIN.

Mr. R. J. Kerr, of Maplehurst, Lot 19, first line, Erin, for the past few years has made hog raising a specialty and has been most successful as his choice pens of Improved York and Berk hogs will testify. He has made many sales of breeding stock of both sexes and breeds to all parts of Ontario, Manitoba and the North West for which he has received fancy prices, but he capped the climax last week when he sold his noted York hog, Oak Lodge Charmer, to Mr. Brethour, of Burford, for the handsome price of $75. Mr. Brethour is fitting up a collection of choice hogs for the Pan American Exhibition next summer and could not get anything to suit his purpose except this hog, which he says is the most perfect specimen of his kind in Ontario.

LIMEHOUSE.

We regret very much to report the death of one of Limehouse's oldest residents in the person of Mrs. Wm. Kennedy. She has been a patient sufferer for some time and when the end came it was not unexpected to her many friends. The remains were taken to the family plot in Erin. The family have the deepest sympathy of the community.

Mr. Arthur Ivens spent a few days at his home here last week.

Mr. J. W. Sharp and Mr. J. Marshall left on Tuesday for Sault St. Marie. General regret is felt at their departure and their many friends wish them every success in their new surroundings.

The lime kilns expect to open this week as the orders are coming in for spring work.

Mrs. A. Garvin is now able to be around again.

W. M. McDermid, Limehouse, merchant, has added to his stock one of the finest assortments of Wall Paper ever in this part of the country, from five cents a roll to thirty cents a roll. Call and inspect it before purchasing elsewhere.

MILTON.

Saturday night Sam Lansborough, who was putting up at Wallace House, took a book with him when he went to bed and fell asleep while reading it, leaving a coal oil lamp burning on a bureau. Some time towards morning the lamp exploded. The blazing oil ran down the front of the bureau, which it charred, and thence to the carpet, about a yard of which was burnt. The fire went out when the oil was consumed, probably because the door and window were closed and the room was nearly air-tight. How Sam managed to exist when there was not enough air to keep the fire going is a puzzle, but he did and did not wake until morning. He felt pretty seedy and looked more so, his face being smudged with black. He had a narrow escape and so had the hotel.

The town recently seized and sold $95 worth of tan bark for taxes at the Roedler tannery. The bark belonged to H. P. Lawson, and the town was obliged to refund the money to him.

In order to keep up with the orders, the carpet factory is obliged to keep rushing until nine o'clock every night. That speaks volumes for the class of goods turned out.

Milton has never been known to have so many funerals in her midst as it has had during the past three months. The undertakers have been busy nearly every other day in the week.—Reformer.

Louisa Draker, whose parents live at Kilbride, died on Tuesday night, after two weeks' illness, at the residence of R. L. Hemstreet, where she had been employed as a general servant for about nine months. Mr. Hemstreet speaks very highly of the young woman, for whom everything possible was done. She had a trained nurse and her mother was also with her.—Champion.

—There are several dogs in town which are creating havoc among the domestic fowls. Rev. J. K. Godden lost two chickens on Sunday morning, and Mr. S. Laird had a similar experience. Such dangerous animals should be muzzled or not allowed to be at large.

—Acton again enjoys the distinction of sending two men to take positions in Baden-Powells, South African constabulary. Will history repeat itself in their case? Will one return and the other find a soldier's grave in the lonely veldt in the Transvaal? We hope not.—Milton Reformer.

Your Nose

That is what you should breathe through—not your mouth.

But there may be times when your catarrh is so bad you can't breathe through it.

Breathing through the mouth is always bad for the lungs, and it is especially so when their delicate tissues have been weakened by the scrofulous condition of the blood on which catarrh depends.

Alfred E. Yingse, Hoernerstown, Pa., suffered from catarrh for years. His head felt bad, there was a ringing in his ears, and he could not breathe through one of his nostrils nor clear his head.

After trying several catarrh specifics from which he derived no benefit, he was completely cured, according to his own statement, by

Hood's Sarsaparilla

This great medicine radically and permanently cures catarrh by cleansing the blood and building up the whole system.

HOOD'S PILLS are the favorite cathartic. 25c.
