EDITORIAL NOTES.

The average salaries of male teachers in the public schools of the province in 1899 was $594, and females $294. The highest salary paid was $2,500 per annum.

Dr. Stirton, Guelph, who is in the city attending the young Liberals' Executive meeting, will, it is said, oppose Joseph Downey in the fight for the Local House in South Wellington. Both have been mixed up in libel suits for the past three years, and the fight will be a bitter one.

According to the last report of the Minister of Education, the total expenditure of the public schools for 1899 was $4,372,050 or $9.20 per pupil. The total expenditure in connection with the High schools was $729,238, $32.15 per pupil. The High School students numbered 22,450. 429,227 attended the public schools last year.

When the argument on the Lord's Day observance case was resumed last week in Toronto, Chief Justice Armour made the usual announcement that the Court of Appeal as a court would give no decision in the case. The questions submitted by the Government of Ontario would be answered by each of the five judges individually, as if the questions had been asked before a committee of the legislature.

The temperance party in Great Britian has succeeded in getting its "Children's Bill" through the house of Commons, and did so with an overwhelming majority. The bill provides for a penalty upon the publican who sells drink to a child under the age of sixteen. The tapsterlingman's child of tender years will no longer be allowed to go to the bar room to purchase the father's supply of liquor, and will escape the contaminating influences of these surroundings.

The new British postal card contains photographs beautifully executed, with purple and gold surroundings, of His Majesty King Edward VII, and Queen Alexandra, with the crown above, and the date of their birth and marriage and King Edward's accession to the throne are below. On the outer corner of the card is the following extract from the King's speech on his accession; "I will, with God's blessing, solemnly work for the promotion of the Great Empire over which I have now been called to reign."

Chancellor Boyd and Mr. Justice MacMahon on Tuesday morning at Osgoode Hall Toronto, handed down judgment in the Nipissing election case, which was tried at North Bay on Good Friday. The petition of the Conservative, James B. Klock, who with his friends, claimed that he was entitled to the seat, was dismissed with costs, the court declaring that the constituency was, and had been, represented since last December by Charles A. McCool, who was nominated by the Liberals.

Whilst the Pan-American Exposition people are booming the great exhibition, which is to open at Buffalo next month, there are many residents of that city who are preparing to get out of town during the progress of the show. At this moment hundreds of Buffalonians, wishing to escape the turmoil and confusion of the fair, are seeking homes in Toronto, where they will reside till the exhibition closes. The demand for houses is so great that rents have sharply advanced within the last week or so, and houses are scarcer in Toronto than they have been for years.

An arrangement has just been concluded between the United States and Canada, under which all postal moneys sent between this country and the United States will go at the domestic rate of 2.10 of 1 per cent., instead of the international rate of 1 per cent., as at present. This concession is regarded as more important to the money order business than any action taken since the inception of the system. The money orders annually sent to the United States now aggregate about $2,000,000, and in the other direction about the same. The exchange of these orders is now restricted to four thousand offices in this country, but under the new arrangement will be extended to 30,000 offices in this country, any money order office in either country, being thus authorized to issue or pay them. It is expected that the radical reduction in the rate will treble the business.

J. P. DOWNEY, CANDIDATE.

The Popular Editor of the Guelph Herald Nominated by the Conservatives.

South Wellington Conservatives assembled at Guelph on Saturday in convention to nominate a candidate to contest the riding in the election for the Legislature. President Henry Hortop called the convention to order at 3 o'clock, and after the Vice-Presidents of the various divisions had presented the credentials of the delegates, the nomination was proceeded with by ballot. On the first ballot Mr. J. P. Downey, editor of the Herald, received a majority of the votes, and on motion of Mr. Thos. Ingram, who was Mr. Downey's opponent, the nomination was made unanimous. Mr. Downey accepted the nomination and briefly thanked the convention. Mr. Ingram followed. Lieut-Col. Macdonald, C. Kloepfer, Lieut-Col. White, ex-Ald. John J. Drew and others also spoke, and the meeting closed with cheers for the candidate and the King, after passing a resolution of confidence in Mr. J. P. Whitney. Mr. Downey is a Guelph boy and, though a comparatively young man has for many years been prominently before the public in political matters. He is a speaker of considerable ability, genial in his manner, and will make a strong candidate.

CANADIANS' DASHING CHARGE.

Captured a Boer Position and Forced a Surrender Last Friday.

WANT BOTHA TO YIELD.

DURBAN, Natal, April 8.—Details which are arriving here of Gen. French's successful operations in the Eastern Transvaal show that in one engagement the Canadians charged a Boer position in Buffalo Bill style, firing as they galloped along. The Boers were in a position where they could not have been flanked, and where it was almost impossible to dislodge them, but by the forward charge of the Canadians they were forced to yield.

Scores of Boers with their families have surrendered at Malmoth, Zululand, and others are following their example at different places. The people who are coming in say they have never heard of the British proclamations in respect to those who surrender, and, furthermore, that they have been misled in regard to the Boer position.

PRETORIA, April 8.—A rumor is in circulation here that the Burghers have given Commander-in Chief Botha until April 10 to accept Gen. Kitchener's terms of surrender, and that if he does not accept on that date they will leave the commandoes and come in themselves.

LONDON, April 9.—Lord Kitchener reporting to the War Office under date of Pretoria, April 8, says: "Plumer has occupied Pietersburg with slight opposition. He captured two locomotives and 30 trucks."

The capture of Pietersburgh is regarded here as important. The place is the terminus of the railway and has been the capital of the Boer government since the evacuation of Pretoria. The whole northern railway is now in the hands of the British.

DEATH OF CHAS. T. HILL.

Acton's Oldest Merchant—Forty-five Years in Business in the Same Premises.

One after another with marked rapidity have our early residents been passing away the past few years. The last to fall asleep was Chas. T. Hill, Esq., who for forty-five years has been actively engaged in mercantile business in Acton, always being held in highest esteem by his fellow-citizens. His death occurred at noon on Good Friday.

Mr. Hill was a native of Allegheny County, New York, and his father's home was near Dansville, N. Y. He was born in 1810. When ten years of age his parents moved to Canada and settled in this county at Peru. He spent his young manhood on the farm at Peru and for some time worked in Hamilton. In August, 1846, he was joined in the bonds of wedlock to Jane Graham, daughter of the late James Graham, Streetsville. The young couple settled at Peru where they lived until the 2nd April, 1856, when they came to Acton and settled on the property ever since occupied. There was a small cottage on the property and this was moved to the east side of the lot, in the rear of the present store of Mr. J. C. Hill, and the store and dwelling occupied by the family the past forty-five years were erected that summer.

Mr. Hill was Acton's oldest merchant and continued longer in mercantile business here than any other merchant in Acton's history. He was a man of sterling honesty and uprightness of character and despised a mean action by whomsoever committed. He was actively associated with Acton's progress and earlier in life took an active interest in educational and municipal matters. He was for years a member of the Board of Public School Trustees, and when Acton was incorporated in 1873, he was one of the popular citizens selected to serve as a member of the first Council, which was composed as follows: W. H. Storey, Reeve; C. T. Hill, John Speight, Asa Hall and Dr. McGarvin.

Mr. Hill was outspoken and very frank in his utterances, but when he formed a friendship it was not of a fleeting character, but endured through life. In his early days at Peru he made friends who were always esteemed, and the same spirit characterized his long residence here. Among his friends at Peru was the well-known centenarian, Mr. Donald McLaren, who died in February of this year in his 101st year. Mr. Hill visited him last summer and a delightful day was spent in reminiscences of the long ago days.

Although always a man of the highest moral character he did not associate himself in actual membership with any church until about twenty-five years ago, when he became a member of the Disciples Church. His active interest in the church of his choice soon brought him into official relation and for twenty years he might have been seen every Sunday morning wending his way to church carrying the elements for the communion which is observed by the Disciples every Lord's Day. Owing to the increasing infirmities of age he has been unable to attend church regularly the past two years.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill were the parents of a large family, each of whom is in prosperous circumstances, and highly esteemed in the circles in which they move. Two children died in childhood. The others are: John C., Acton; Mrs. (Dr.) Lowry, Guelph; James, photo artist, Toledo, O.; Mrs. Chas. T. Millmaster, Port Rowan, Ont.; Alf. Chas. W., photo artist, Muncie, Mich.; Chester T., photo artist, Cleveland, Ohio; Henry F., photo artist, Vancouver, B. C., and Miss Bella, at home. Of these all but Chester and Henry were present at the funeral. Mrs. Hill also survives her husband.

The last rites were performed on Monday afternoon. The pastor, Rev. James McLeod, had charge of the service and was assisted by Rev. Amos Tovell, Guelph; Rev. H. A. Macpherson and Rev. J. M. Hagar, M. A. The bearers were three sons of deceased, John, James, and Charles, and three sons of his twin brother Robert, of Peru, Hiram, of Toronto, Charles, of Peru, and George, of Milton. The remains were tenderly laid to rest in Fairview Cemetery.

The following friends from a distance attended the funeral: Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Lowry, Dr. W. H. Lowry, jr., Charles, Edwin, and Misses Ada and Nellie, Guelph; Mr James Graham, Toronto; Miss Graham, Hamilton; Mr. Fred Millmaster, Toronto University; Mr. Chester Matthews, Albert College, Belleville; Mr. Earn and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hill, Peru; Misses Charlotte and Cassie Hill, Milton; Mrs. R. Craine, Toronto; Messrs. John McLaren and James McGowan, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Black and John Black, and Mr. and Mrs. John Garstang, Rockwood; Mr. George Henderson, Georgetown.

They were also presented with a locket and several other gifts from individual members.

EXPERIMENTAL FARMS.

The Uniform Co-Operative Dairy Herd Test Record.

The attention of Canadian farmers interested in the developement of Canada's greatest industrial factor, the Dairy Herd, is drawn to the following letter, recently sent to a few farmers in each province of the Dominion.

Central Experimental Farm,
Ottawa.

DEAR SIR:

Your name has been handed to me as that of a farmer who is particularly interested in the production of milk. It is a well known fact that the great majority of dairy herds, if we may judge by cash returns alone, are losing invest. It is, however, certain that this need not be the case if sufficient care and intelligence are exercised in selecting and feeding the cows intended for milk producers. So, in order to be able to work more effectively towards improvement along this line, I am desirous of obtaining some exact information as to the methods of feeding followed in different parts of Canada. I should, therefore, be much indebted to you if you would write me briefly upon the following points:—

1—Kind and quality of roughage rationed to your milking cows in winter?

2—Kind and quality of grain fed your milking cows in (a) summer (b) winter?

3—Quantity of milk yielded per cow yearly.

4—Do you use pure-bred bulls? What breed?

5—What use do you make of by-products (whey, etc.,) if you have any?

Would you care to carry on a simple dairy herd test during 1901 in conjunction with dairymen in different parts of Canada and us here? The only expense would be a spring balance for weighing the milk.

We would furnish with blanks each month for keeping the records. If Canadian dairymen are to raise the average yield of their herds and make a profit it must be by first finding out what their individual cows are doing. If the cow is not paying keep and leaving a good profit for the dairyman, either the cow is not good or the dairyman is not feeding her properly. If you are really interested in the dairy business and care to go into a co-operative test as mentioned above I should be pleased to send you further particulars re the same. In any case, I should like to hear from you on the aforementioned points.

Yours very truly,
J. H. GRAHAM,
Agriculturist.

The replies elicited by the letter were of such a character as to indicate the advisability of making the matter more public. With such an end in view, the foregoing is given for publication.

It is hoped that many of our dairy farmers may see the importance and necessity of keeping such records as are suggested, and that they may think it advisable to join in this co-operative Dairy Herd Record or Test.

Any farmer interested may obtain full particulars by addressing:—"The Agriculturist Experimental Farm, Ottawa." All letters so addressed are carried Post Free.

ADVERTISING.

What It Did For a Merchant in a Town of 500 People, Does Business of $100,000 a Year.

W. B. Penn is the proprietor of a department store at Bowerstown, Ohio. Bowerstown is a country village of 500 inhabitants. The town isn't large enough to support a newspaper. It wouldn't support Mr. Penn if he sat around his store and talked politics. But when he opened up his store, he "joined the old adage, "The pen is mightier than the sword," to his doorplate and started in to conquer all the trade in his territory. How well he succeeded is told to us in these few words: "No newspaper here—use county seat papers—doing of 500 population.

$100,000 business a year in a town of 500 population.

$2,000 per week!

Here is a world of argument for newspaper advertising.

Think of making a country village a trading centre for a progressive Ohio county!

The story of Wanamaker's success and the Royal Baking Powder's success point beside the achievement of Mr. Penn.

How does he advertise?

Triple column, full length, written and set up like a metropolitan ad. Neat black border, items classified, prices for everything, generalities readable and convincing.

What Mr. Penn has done, you can do.

But you can't do it without you advertise and stand back of every assertion.

THE SPRING FEELING.

NOT EXACTLY SICK—BUT NEITHER ARE YOU WELL.

Close Confinement During the Winter Months Has Left You Weak, Easily Depressed and "Out of Sorts."

The words "weak and depressed" express the condition of thousands of people in the spring time. It is one of nature's signs that humanity cannot spend months of indoor life in badly ventilated buildings with impunity. Sometimes you have a headache; slight exercise fatigues you; your appetite is variable; you are easily irritated or depressed; perhaps there are pimples or slight eruptions that indicate the blood needs attention. Whatever the symptom may be it should be attended to at once, else you will fall an easy prey to graver disease. Do not use a purgative in the hope that it will put you right. Any doctor will tell you that purgatives weaken, that they impair the action of the liver and create chronic constipation. A tonic is what is needed to help nature fight your battle for health, and there is only one always reliable, never-failing tonic, and that is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These pills have no purgative action. They make rich, red blood, strengthen the tired and jaded nerves, and make weak, depressed, easily tired people, whether old or young, bright, active and strong. Among those who have proved the health-bringing qualities of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is Miss Emma Chaput, of Lake Talon, Ont., who says: "I cannot thank you enough for the good I have derived though the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I honestly believe that for them I would now be in my grave. My health was completely broken down. My face was as white as chalk, and if I made the least effort to do any housework I would almost faint from the exertion, and my heart would beat violently so that I feared I would drop where I stood. I was a great sufferer from headaches and dizziness as well, and my appetite was so poor that I scarcely ate at all. I tried several medicines, but they did not help me, and then I decided to send for some of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I got six boxes and before I used them all I was as well as I had ever been, with a good healthy color, a good appetite and an entire freedom from the ailments that had made me so miserable. You may be sure that I will always have a warm regard for your invaluable medicine."

Do not experiment with other so called tonics—you are apt to and it a waste of money and your health worse than before. You will not be experimenting when you use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They have proved their value the world over, and you can rely upon it that what they have done for others they will do for you. If you cannot get the genuine pills from your dealer send direct to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., and they will be mailed post paid at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2 50.
