A Cough

"I have made a most thorough trial of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and am prepared to say that for all diseases of the lungs it never disappoints."

J. Early Finley, Ironton, O.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral won't cure rheumatism; we never said it would. It won't cure dyspepsia; we never claimed it. But it will cure coughs and colds of all kinds. We first said this sixty years ago; we've been saying it ever since.

Three sizes: 25c., enough for an ordinary cold; 50c., just right for bronchitis, hoarseness, hard colds, etc.; $1, most economical for chronic cases and to keep on hand.

A BROAD HINT.

When I came down the town to-day,
A little woman blocked the way;
I stooped to kiss her snowy brow,
She shied and whispered "No, not now,
But here's a hint to temp'rme with—
So raise the siege of Ladysmith.

"I know what's wrong, I know what's right;
My lover must not kiss, but fight.
Oh, I'm impatient—they must be
Shot at no more—they must be free.
Lo, there's a hint to tempt me with—
So raise the the seige of Ladysmith."

So spoke the dainty little miss,
And I must hunger for a kiss;
And so I'll hie me to the fight
And do my best to succor White;
I'll do a deed to tempt her with—
I'll raise the siege of Ladysmith.

TOOK HIS MONTH OFF.

"Smithkins," said that young man's employer, "you may take a month off."

"Oh, sir," replied the clerk, as soon as he could command his voice, "it is so good of you to suggest it. I have felt the need of a holiday for some time, but have hesitated to ask it, knowing how busy we are. But it will done us all of good, and I thank you most heartily for your consideration."

"Smithkins," said the employer, "are you crazy?"

"Why, sir,—Didn't you say I might take a month of?"

"Certainly, that is what I said. This is the first of the month, while last month's calendar remains over the desk. Take last month off and keep it up-to-date. That's what I meant."

The Cause of Hay Fever.

It's a microbe that floats in the air, gets into the throat and lungs, develops rapidly and excites inflammation, &c. The cause is as simple as a thistle in the finger. Extract the thistle, away goes the pain. Destroy the hay fever germ—you get well. That's why Catarrhozone sets so marvellously in hay fever. It's fragrant vapor to you brings cure, but to the microbe death. Catarrhozone is as quick to act on these microscopic organisms as lightning. Prevents as well as cures, and is always successful. Druggists, 25c. and $1.00, or Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

THE QUACKS CURE.

It is one mark of a quack, whatever school he may belong to, that he never admits his own ignorance.

A "hedge doctor," a kind of a quack in Ireland, was being examined at an inquest on his treatment of a patient who had died. "I gave him ipecacuanha," he said."

"You might just as well have given him the aurora borealis," said the coroner.

"Indade, your honor, and that's just what I should have given him next if he hadn't died."

Hagyard's Yellow Oil is prompt to relieve and sure to cure coughs, colds, sore throat, pain in the chest, hoarseness, quinsy, etc. Price 25 cents.

TELLING A HORSE'S AGE.

A man who wanted to buy a horse asked a friend how to tell a horse's age.

"By his teeth," was the reply.

The next day the man went to a horse dealer, who showed him a splendid black horse. The would-be-purchaser opened the animal's mouth, gave a glance and turned on his heel.

"I don't want him,' said he; "he's thirty-two years old."

He had counted his teeth.

THE NAUGHTY HUSBAND.

Daughter—"Oh, dear, such a time as I do have with that husband of mine. I don't have one minute's peace when he's in the house. He's always calling me to do something of the other."

Anxious mother—"What does he want, now?"

Daughter—"He wants me to go upstairs just to thread a needle for him, so that he can mend his clothes."

HER SENTIMENTS.

They were looking over the paper together. "Oh, my, how funny!" said she.

"What is it?" he asked.

"Why, here's an advertisement that says, 'No reasonable offer refused.'"

"What is there odd about that?"

"Nothing, nothing," she replied, trying to blush; "only those are my sentiments."

Another wedding shortly.

NOT COD-LIVER OIL

but Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil. They are not the same; far from it.

Scott's emulsion is cod-liver oil prepared for the stomach.

Let cod-liver oil alone if you need it. When your physician orders toast, do you breakfast on flour?

Pure cod-liver oil is hard to take and hard to digest. A man that can keep it down, can saw wood. He thinks he is sick; he is lazy.

We'll send you a little to try if you like.

Just For Fun.

"This wireless telegraphy reminds me of a groundless quarrel." "What possible connection is there between the two? It's practically having words over nothing."

"Don't keep telling people how sorry you are you can't help 'em," said Uncle Eben. "Dey has too much trouble of dey own to stop and sympathize with you."

"Who married Ann?" asked the justice of a colored citizen, who had been brought before him for some domestic trouble. "You did, sah," was the reply; "but I ain't voted for you yeaster."

Judge: "You hit the plaintiff with a chunk of coal, and your conduct presents not one extenuating circumstance." Defendant: "Beg pardon, sah; jes' one sah. It was soft coal, sah."

At a colored church, something less than forty miles from this office, the pastor, in a glowing tribute to the late Queen, referred to her as "de ruler of de mighty empire on which de sun never ceases to set."

"I don't believe in superstition," remarked one of two men with race badges on their coats. "Neither do I," answered the other. "I am trying to get away from them. I've noticed lately that every time I think of a superstition I have bad luck."

SARCASM WASTED.

Customer (to dealer)—"Say, there must have been some mistake about those peaches you sold me yesterday."

Dealer—"What was the matter with them?"

"Nothing. That's just it. There were no bad ones at the bottom of the basket."

"By gum, so you got 'em, did you? I picked those out for myself."

Where Medical Science Fails.

To cure rheumatism, and all the time you suffer dreadfully, why don't you get a bottle of Polson's Nerviline and try that? Rub it into your stiff joints, sore arms, lame back, bent shoulders—wherever the pain is. Nerviline has cured plenty of people in this way, and that ought to be proof enough that it will cure you too. It is an unusually strong liniment that cures rheumatism in unusally quick time. Best household liniment known. 25 cents.

Permanent Muscular Strength.

There is this to be borne in mind in these days when so many young men are giving so much attention to muscular development, in gymnastic and athletic exercises, that there cannot be permanent muscular strength where there is not blood strength. No family living in a bilious country should be without Parmelee's Vegetable Pills. A few doses taken now and then will keep the liver active, cleanse the stomach and bowels from all bilious matter and prevent ague. Mr. J. L. Price, Rhoads, Martin Co., Ind., writes: "I have tried a box of Parmelee's Pills and find them the best medicine for fever and ague I have ever used."

The world is God's world by right, ours only by gift and sufferance; and it cannot go well with us if we try to shut Him out of it.—Gladstone.

Attention in the world of homeopathic medicine has been its very source of progress, as in politics and religion—the difficulties of opinions and the individuality of man have been parent to the disagreement by which the standard of these bodies have been elevated. So with most of our famous preparations—foremost in illustration of which truth stands the world-famous remedy to general debility and anæmia, "Quinine Wine,"—and which when obtainable in its genuine strength, is a miraculous creator of appetite, vitality and stimulant, to the general fertility of the system, Quinine Wine, and its improvement, has, from the first discovery of the great virtues of Quinine as a medical agent, been one of the most thoroughly discussed remedies ever offered to the public. It is one of the great tonics and natural life-living stimulants which the medical profession have been compelled to recognize and prescribe. Messrs. Northrop and Lyman, of Toronto, have given to the preparation of their pure Quinine Wine the great care due to its importance, and the standard excellence of the article which they offer to the public comes into the market proved of all the defects which skilled observation and scientific opinion are pointed out in the last perfect preparations of the latter.

Nothing is ill said if it is not ill taken.

NINE BOILS.

FOUR RUNNING SORES.

The T. Milburn Co., Limited,
Toronto, Ont.

Some time ago my blood got out of order and nine large boils appeared on my neck, besides numerous small ones on my shoulders and arms. Four running sores appeared on my foot and leg and I was in a terrible state. A friend advised Burdock Blood Bitters, so I procured three bottles. After finishing the first bottle the boils started to disappear and the sores to heal up. After taking the third bottle there was not a boil or sore to be seen. Besides this, the headaches from which I suffered left me and I improved so much that I am now strong and robust again.

Yours truly,
MISS MAGGIE WORTHINGTON.

God sends us no gift with choicer possibilities in it than are unwrapped in suffering.

Cucumbers and melons are "forbidden fruit" to many persons so constituted that the least indulgence is followed by attacks of cholera, dysentery, griping, &c. These persons are not aware that they can indulge to their heart's content if they have on hand a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial, a medicine that will give immediate relief, and is a sure cure for all summer complaints.

The poor man's story— usually the next one to the roof.

Sciatica put him on Crutches.—Jas. Smith, dairyman, of Grimsby, Ont., writes: "My limbs were almost useless from sciatica and rheumatism, and, notwithstanding my esteem for physicians, I must give the credit where it belongs. I am a cured man to-day, and South American Rheumatic Cure must have all the credit. It's a marvel.—34

A soft answer sometimes turns away talk.

"One Foot in the Grave."—If the thousands of people who rush to so worthy a remedy as South American Nervine as a last resort would get it as a first resort, how much misery and suffering would be spared. If you have any nerve disorder you needn't suffer a minute longer. A thousand testimonies to prove it.—36

Deafness of 12 Years' Standing.—Protracted Catarrh produces deafness in many cases. Capt. Ben. Connor, of Toronto, Canada, was deaf for 12 years from Catarrh. All treatments failed to relieve. Marriages are not as they are made, but as they turn out.

Strong words by a New York Specialist.—"After years of testing and comparison I have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart is the quickest, safest, and surest known to medical science. I use it in my own practice. It relieves the most acute forms of heart ailment inside of thirty minutes and never fails."—33

BRIGHTER THAN HE THOUGHT.

We hatile the men who tries to get chest of a lawyer. Such a one is likely to be himself outwitted. Vide a case in point. A young lawyer, just starting in his profession, hung out his sign in a Connecticut town where there was only one other lawyer, an aged judge. An elderly fellow thinking to get legal advice for nothing, called upon the young man, told him he was very glad he had come into the town, as the old judge was getting superannuated, and then entered in a sort of neighborly talk to get some legal questions answered. Then, thanking the young man, he put on his hat and was about to leave when the young man asked him if he should charge the advice, for which the fee was five dollars. The old fellow went into a violent passion, and swore he never would pay. The young lawyer told him he would sue him if he didn't. So the old fellow went down to see the judge, found him hoeing in his garden, and said:—

"That young scamp that's just come into town II dropped in to make a neighborly call on him, and he charges me five dollars for legal advice."

"Served you right," sai l the judge, "you had no business to have gone to him."

"But have I got to pay it judge?"

"Of course, you have."

"Well, then," said the man. "I suppose I must," and he started off.

"Hold on said the judge, 'aren't you going to pay me?"

"Pay you? What for?"

"For legal advice."

"What do you charge?"

"Ten dollars."

The result was that the old fellow had to pay five dollars to the young lawyer and ten to the old one.

There are cases of consumption so far advanced that Hickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup will not cure, but none so bad that it will not give relief. For coughs, colds and all affections of the throat, lungs and chest, it is a specific which has never been known to fail. It promotes a free and easy expectoration, thereby removing the phlegm, and gives the diseased parts a chance to heal.

Never ask a favor of a man a quarter of an hour before dinner.

The proprietors of Parmelee's Pills are constantly receiving letters similar to the following, which explains itself.—Mr. John A. Beam, Waterloo, Ont., writes: "I never used any medicine that can equal Parmelee's Pills for dyspepsia or liver and kidney complaints. The relief experienced after using them was wonderful." As a safe family medicine Parmelee's pills can be given in all cases requiring a cathartic.
