LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLETS

Which Caught the Eyes or Ears of Free Press Reporters this week.

Life outweighs all things if love be within it.

—The FREE PRESS to the end of the year for 15 cents.

—We will send the FREE PRESS to any address until Dec. 31st, 1902, for $1.00.

—Pumpkin pie socials are the current attractive affairs announced in many rural districts.

—Tuesday nights frost covered Fairy lake and the powerhouse pond with quite a thick film of ice.

—Henry Scott, weaver and knitter, is doing work which pleases customers at his shop on Main Street.

—Eight Barrie hotel keepers were fined $20.00 and costs each for selling liquor after hours during fair week.

—A Guelph teamster was fined $2 and costs on Monday for cruelty to the team of horses he was driving.

—The finest parsnips we have seen this year came from the splendid garden of Mr. James Waller, Fairview Ave.

—A high-class concert will be given in aid of Acton Cornet Band in the town hall, by the Page Concert Co., on Nov. 14th.

—Thus far November has given us more bright and warm autumn days than the "melancholy ones" the poet sings about.

—Trooper Mulloy, who has arranged to spend next Sunday with Acton friends, will briefly address the Methodist Sunday School.

—"I enclose $1.00 for the FREE PRESS for another year. I find the paper a valuable and instructive weekly visitor."—Mrs. T. D. —, Fordwich.

—The Guelph Cross Country and Road Race Association have given notice to athletes that they will not admit to their Thanksgiving Day races any who do training on Sunday.

—Rev. J. M. Hagar, M. A., goes to Moorefield next Sunday to preach anniversary sermons. Rev. Henry E. Hill, of Moorefield, will occupy the pulpit of the Methodist Church here.

—The FREE PRESS has received copies of the three splendid premium pictures of the Montreal Star—King Edward VII, Queen Alexandra and the renowned Gainsborough the Duchess of Devonshire. These three pictures are all given to each subscriber, new or renewal, this season. They are most dignified life-like portraits of King Edward and his beautiful Consort, and a faithfully executed reproduction of the famous Gainsborough painting.

Personals

Mr. L. P. Snyder, of St. Catharines, who has been very low with typhoid fever the past nine weeks, is slowly regaining strength and on Tuesday was able to sit up for an hour or so. Mrs. Snyder has also taken the fever and is in a critical condition.

In renewing his subscription for the seventh year Mr. Edw. J. Barry, of Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., writes: "I like the American "Boo" first rate. It is a lively place. I often see the former Acton boys on the Canadian side. They are all doing well and are all well pleased with their situations. I will be pleased to be remembered to all old friends. The FREE PRESS is always welcome and comes every week like a letter from home."

TO THOSE ABOUT TO MARRY

You men or old men who intend to marry — be pleased to learn that the new Marriage Act is made quite simple by applying to H. P. Moore, issuer of marriage licenses, at the FREE PRESS Office. Call a few days before the ceremony and have the matter explained. Private office. All business strictly private and confidential.

THE NEWS AT HOME.

Mostly of a Local Character, and every item interesting.

Halton Plowing Match.

The eleventh annual plowing match of the Halton Plowmen's Association, will be held on the farm of Mr. Alex. Chrisholm, near Milton, to-morrow. A silver cup, value $30, will be competed for, and about $150 in cash prizes. This should secure a large field of competitors and make the match one of the most successful in the history of the society. There are also a number of special prizes offered.

A New White Lime Company.

A company has been formed to control the white lime business of Ontario, and incorporated under the name of The Standard White Lime Company. The authorized capital is $300,000. The provisional directors are: D. D. Christie, and R. E. Nelson, Guelph; David Henderson, M. P., Acton; James Bolster, of St. Marys, and Thos. Christie, Toronto. It will be observed that all of the directors except Mr. Bolster are old-time Acton men.

Halton and Wentworth Win the Banner.

At the closing session of the Provincial W. C. T. U. convention at Stratford last week Miss Wiggins, of Toronto, presented the prize banner, awarded to the local union reporting the largest increase in membership during the year. The victorious union this year is that of the combined counties of Wentworth and Halton, which reported the increase of 50 per cent. The banner was received by Mrs. Inman, of Milton, Vice-President of the union.

Death of Edward Nicklin, Esq.

Death came shortly after noon yesterday to Mr. Edward Nicklin, one of our oldest and most highly esteemed citizens. For some time Mr. Nicklin has been in poor health, but until about a week ago he was able to be around. Eight or ten days since he was confined to his bed, and it was soon ascertained that a breaking up of the system was in progress. He was in his 78th year, and had spent more than half a century in Acton. A more extended sketch of the life of this worthy man will appear in next issue. The time of the funeral will be fixed as soon as friends from a distance are heard from.

The Provincial Winter Fair.

Arrangements are being rapidly made for the Provincial Winter Fair at Guelph, December 9th to 13th. Round trip tickets will be issued to the public at single fare from points west of Kingston and Sharbot Lake. Visitors from points further east will be accorded the same rates on the certificate plan, and exhibitors and judges will be allowed single fare to go between the 6th and 13th and return until the 17th. Many improvements are being made in the premises, and the lecture room is being enlarged by two-thirds of its capacity. Many enquiries are being received by Secretary Westervelt regarding the live stock auction sales at Guelph and Ottawa next February.

A Pretty Wedding in Esquesing.

The home of Mr. James Scott, Esquesing, was the scene of a very happy event on Tuesday of last week, when his daughter, Miss Rebecca N. was united in holy wedlock to David Barclay, of Guelph, eldest son of Mr. James Barclay, of Puslinch. The interesting ceremony took place at 3.30 o'clock, Rev. J. M. Hagar, M. A., officiating. The bride was daintily attired in white dipity, trimmed with valenciennes lace insertion, and tucks, and carried a bouquet of white carnations and smilax. She was given away by her father. Miss Agnes Scott, sister of the bride, performed the duties of bridesmaid, dressed, in white muslin, trimmed with lace insertion and tucks. Miss Nellie Crawshaw, niece of the bride, was flower girl, and looked sweet gowned in white. Mr. James Barclay, of Puslinch, brother of the groom, supported him. The wedding party entered the parlor, which was decorated with the popular colors at present prevailing, red, white and blue, to the strains of the wedding march, rendered by Mrs. Hagar, of Acton. After the young couple had received congratulations and good wishes, the company repaired to the dining room, where all did ample justice to the abundance of good things which had been provided. Some fifty guests were present. The popularity of the young couple was amply attested by the large variety of handsome bridal gifts bestowed. Mr. and Mrs. Barclay will settle in their new home in Guelph.

Trooper Mulloy's Splendid Recital.

As a result of the interesting newspaper reports the past few months respecting Trooper L. W. R. Mulloy, the brave Canadian soldier,—who lost his sight by a Boer bullet, while he and four others were surrounded by sixty of Botha's men at Watpoort,—a very lively interest was taken in him by our citizens before he reached town. A large attendance greeted him at the town hall last Friday evening. From the moment the chairman introduced Trooper Mulloy to the audience, Khaki-clad, gauntleted, spurred, his sightless eyes covered by dark glasses, until he closed with the thrilling scene in which a Boer bullet carried away his sight, the gallant young hero held his audience almost spell bound. His rare gift of humor was charmingly employed throughout. His introduction, in which he gave unanswerable arguments proving the justice of Great Britain's going to war with the South African Republic, and very valid and loyal reasons for Canada sending aid in the shape of the pick of her citizen soldiery, was highly interesting and instructive. His recital of experiences on the veldt had a wealth of most entertaining detail and gave information respecting the country, and the tactics of the Boer fighters which have not been so vividly and intelligently explained heretofore by either public-speakers or writers, to Canadian people. When Canada determined to send troops to South Africa, Trooper Mulloy, who was principal of a public school near Ottawa, resigned his situation and offered himself for enlistment. He joined the second contingent, Canadian Mounted Rifles, which saw some of the hardest service of the war. Returning to England, in a speech at Liverpool, he uttered those words that rang throughout the whole Empire at the time, "For me the past has no regrets," and these he reiterated in his address here. The reception of the Blind Trooper, by the Duke and Duchess at Ottawa was one of the most touching events of the recent royal visit to Canada. The sight of this handsome young Canadian standing before them bearing the sad evidence of his inestimable sacrifice to the Empire's honor, draw from Their Royal Highnesses the most tender expressions of sympathy. He is a noble specimen of well-developed young manhood, and the indomitable spirit of preeverance he manifests, in his announced intention of completing his University course, under his present physical disabilities, calls forth the admiration of all. The Trooper appeared here under the auspices of the Epworth League.

A Hint To Our Town Fathers.

It is reported that a prominent Georgetown manufacturer is considering the advisability of removing to Acton, in order to be at the base of supplies, and thus save a large amount annually in freight and express charges. This manufacturer employs upwards of 40 hands, a considerable number of whom are heads of families. Acton will certainly extend a cordial welcome, and put it in a practical form too. Our municipal authorities should give the matter their immediate consideration.

Golf Match With Georgetown.

A team from Acton Golf Club went to Georgetown last Saturday afternoon and had a delightful outing. With Reeve Williams in charge of the carriage a very pleasant trip to and from the aspiring manufacturing town was made. The weather was ideal for golfing, being an unusually warm and bright November day. The Georgetown players were in fine fettle and put up a splendid game, and the interest was intensified by the presence of the lady members of the club, who, very courteously and skillfully acted as caddies. The score of this match was 24 in Georgetown's favor, but when the defeat by Acton in the recent match here—58 up—is considered, our players have still the liberal majority of 32 holes up. Saturday's score was as follows:

ACTON	HOLES	GEORGETOWN	HOLES
R. McIntosh	4	C. C. Roe	7
H. E. Holmes	6	H. B. Henderson	9
H. Y. Moore	5	Dr. F. R. Watson	9
A. J. McKinnon	1	F. B. Goodwille	15
W. Stark	4	H. M. Wetherald	11
J. R. Wallace	9	B. Forsayeth	6
J. E. Corry	9	T. R. Kerr	6
	38		63

Another game with Georgetown is hoped for before the season closes.

Division Court Yesterday.

The only case which came up for hearing before Judge Hamilton in the Fourth Division Court sitting yesterday afternoon, was that of Donald Mann for the Limehouse Tug of War Team vs. Esquesing Agricultural Society. The case arose out of the Tug of War Contest at the Fair here on the 4th October last. On that occasion four teams entered. In the contest Limehouse pulled Acton, and made a draw with Speyside. Speyside pulled Scotch Block, and it then remained for Speyside and Limehouse to pull. By this time it was too dark to pull, and Donald Mann, Captain of the Limehouse team alleges that John McQueen and H. G. Clark, two of the directors of the society arranged for the final pull at 2.30 on Saturday, the day following the Fair. Mr. Mann's team went to the park to pull, but the other team failed to appear, and the Limehouse men then put in a formal demand for the prize money. In order to avoid any misunderstanding, however, the officers of the Society arranged for another contest on Tuesday, 22nd October. Scotch Block, Speyside and Boston pulled but Limehouse failed to enter. Scotch Block won first prize and Boston second, and the prize money was paid them. The suit was brought yesterday by Limehouse to recover $60, the amount of the first prize. After hearing the evidence of Mr. Mann and half a dozen witnesses the case was dismissed without costs.

Free Hospital For Consumptives.

A very interesting meeting was attended by a number of public spirited citizens in the council chamber last Wednesday evening when Mr. Walter James Brown, of Toronto, general secretary of the National Sanitarium Association, addressed the meeting. Mr. Brown gave much valuable information respecting the work of the association in treating consumptives in the insipient stages of the "white plague" at the Sanitarium at Gravenhurst. He also explained the purpose of the association in establishing the new free hospital under the same management, for the treatment of patients who are financially unable to meet the expenses of hospital treatment. This new free hospital will be opened in a few weeks with accommodation for fifty patients, which will be increased as fast as the needs require. The address referred further to the cause of consumption, its infectivity, prevention and curability. Treatment of cases in the early stages of the disease, especially in sanitoria, gives satisfactory results. It consists of sunlight, open air, rest, dry soil; a good digestion and contentment; an abundance of strong food which is taken to the limit of digestive power; medication of a constructive character, and very careful watching and nursing by skilled medical attendants. The time may soon come he said when more advanced cases will be cured. With the purpose of helping the association with its laudable work it was decided to organize a local branch in Acton, and officers were appointed as follows: Chairman, Rev. J. K. Godden, M. A., Treasurer, Rev. H. A. Macpherson, Secretary, Dr. S. A. McKeague, Committee, H. P. Moore and J. S. Coleman. The membership fee is $1.00 per annum. To furnish a bed costs $50 and the local association will no doubt aim to accomplish this. The following citizens attended the meeting: Revs. J. K. Godden, M. A., J. M. Hagar, M. A., H. A. Macpherson, Dr. McKeague, Dr. Macdonald, Miss Ida McNabb, Arah McNabb, James Moore, J. B Coleman, H. P. Moore, T. H. Harding, James Matthews, and Sidney Saunders.

GEORGETOWN.

The golf match with Acton Golf Club on Saturday afternoon was an interesting game. Our boys gave the Acton players nearly as big a defeat as was suffered by Georgetown at Acton recently.

General regret is felt that Geo. Kennedy, Esq., is not progressing at all toward health.

Trooper Mulloy, the blind soldier hero, of South Africa, will lecture in the town hall to-morrow evening.

Mr. Jas. Guthrie has received notice of his appointment as Bailiff of the Georgetown Division Court.

Mr. Arnold has not yet commenced preparations for his new glove factory. He is undecided as to location, whether to take the King Foundry property, the old Thompson House or the vacant lot opposite the old Spears House.

The planing mill on the Barber property at the dam was burned about midnight on Sunday. The building was somewhat dilapidated and not in use, though several machines were in it. The loss is estimated at $400. The firemen were handicapped owing to the long distance from a hydrant.

Bob Campbell's friends have been enjoying venison the past few days. He sent the first deer he shot in Muskoka home on Monday.

Dyspepsia

From foregin words meaning bad cook, has come rather to signify bad stomach; for the most common cause of the disease is a predisposing want of vigor and tone in that organ.

No disease makes life more miserable. Its sufferers certainly do not live to eat; they sometimes wonder if they should eat to live.

W. A. Nugent, Ballville, Ont., was greatly troubled with it for years; and Peter H. Gaare, Eau Claire, Wis., who was so afflicted with it that he was nervous, sleepless, and actually sick most of the time, obtained no relief from medicines professionally prescribed.

They were completely cured, as others have been, by

Hood's Sarsaparilla

according to their own statement voluntarily made. This great medicine strengthens the stomach and the whole digestive system. Be sure to get Hood's
